Space for Visitors Enlarged.—Changes in the lobby of the Y. M. C. A. have been made within the past few days, opening another reading room to the thousands of men who flock through the association rooms every week. The unused section of the office in the lobby has lost its partition and the space opened to those men who, although not members of the association, come to enjoy associational advantages. Part of the lobby has been cut off for the members of the association. Books and magazines have been provided for the tables. Papers have been provided for the non-members during their rest hours in the lobby.

Boy Taken by Police.—As he was in the act of purchasing a steamboat ticket for San Francisco, Eugene McNeil, 15 years old, was arrested by police officers at Third and Washington streets yesterday afternoon and charged with larceny. Until yesterday morning the lad was employed as messenger for L. Meyer & Co., grocers, on Third street. Yesterday morning, according to his admission to City Detective Hellyer, he tapped the grocer's cash register for $25, and left. His father is a Columbia river pilot at Astoria. The boy was turned over to the juvenile court this morning.

To Hold Examination.—The United States civil service commission announces that an examination will be held in this city on November 18, to fill a vacancy in the position of guard, United States penitentiary, McNeil Island, Washington, salary $340 per annum. Applicants must be between 21 and 60 years of age, must be not less than 5 feet 6 inches high and must weigh not less than 145 pounds. Complete information and application blanks may be obtained from T. V. Hutchins, local secretary, postoffice building, Portland.

Barred From Recall Election.—Residents of portions of two precincts, 48 and 88, which are partly in and partly out of the city, will not be eligible to vote in the recall election next Tuesday. The territory embraced in the restriction is a mile and a half square, and comprises the section which the supreme court denied admission to the city when it held the annexation election of Sylvan, Mt. Zion and surrounding territory illegal.

Nominal Fine Imposed.—For punishing three boys who raided his prune orchard, George H. Warren, of Forty-second and Simpson streets, was yesterday fined $5 by District Judge Dayton. Because the boys aggravated Warren until he took a horsewhip to them, the fine was made nominal.
