

BUDGET COMMITTEE REFUSES MONEY FOR POLICE SUB-STATIONS

Sum of $100,000 Had Been Asked for Erection of Three Stations.

PAYROLL IS HELD DOWN

Chief of Police Clark Had Requested 50 Additional Patrolmen; Salary Increase Denied.

There will be no police sub-stations established for a while, as the budget committee of the city yesterday refused to allow an appropriation of $100,000 sought for the establishment of three of these branch stations.

Chief of Police Clark had also asked for 50 more patrolmen, which would have increased the payroll $15,000, but with a wish was chopped from the estimates.

While no definite plan has been made as to the establishment of the detention home for women on a piece of property near Troutdale, for which the commission paid three times its assessed valuation, the committee allowed $25,000 to be used toward the establishment of the home.

CITY APPROPRIATES MONEY FOR HOLDING OF RECALL ELECTION

Ordinance Passed This Morning Authorizes Expenditure of $25,000 for Purpose.

By adopting an ordinance authorizing the expenditure of $25,000 for a special election and accepting the list of judges and clerks, the city council this morning finished its part in preparing for the recall election scheduled for Tuesday.

As the supreme court has held that the ballot form is correct and that the direct question of the recall should be voted on in addition to voting on the various candidates there is apparently no further obstacles in the way of the election.

Smith had objected to the question, "Shall H. F. Albee be recalled from the position of mayor," and filed suit yesterday to require City Auditor Benbur to change the ballot form, but in upholding the demurrer brought by City Attorney La Roche the supreme court has ruled that the voters shall vote both on the recall question and on the candidates.

"If Smith is trying to infer that I am acting in the interests of 'big business,'" said Mr. La Roche, "I can only say that he does not know whereof he speaks. Such a statement is foolish and absurd.

"If he is the champion of the people as he poses, why should he object to having the voters voting directly on the recall question. It seems to me that he ought to be fair with the people and let them decide as to whether or not Mayor Albee and Commissioners

Dieck and Brewster should be recalled. Under the law the people have to decide this question in addition to voting for their successors if they are recalled."

A Statement to the Public

The Committee of One Hundred is now engaged in checking up the lists of Portland signers of the "declaration of principles" appearing as a paid advertisement of the Oregon State Brewers' Association in this morning's Oregonian.

So far, a number of these men deny signing the statement appearing over their names.

When the check is completed, the Committee of One Hundred will publish the names of 100 of these men, according to the terms of its challenge, which appears below: THE CHALLENGE.

"The Committee of One Hundred consists of business and professional men and women from all over Oregon. We are making a fight on behalf of a dry Oregon. We have heard a great deal about what Oregon dry will do for Oregon. While we know business will be far better all over the state, as has been proved in every dry town in Oregon, the wet interests tell us business will be doomed unless we vote for the saloon. They tell us we won't be able to rent our property unless we have the saloon. They tell us thousands and thousands of men will be out of work unless we have the saloon, quite regardless of fact that through the saloon more men lose their jobs than through any other half-dozen agencies.

"They tell us Mr. Roosevelt favors the saloon. Promptly Mr. Roosevelt comes out for a dry state. They tell us President Wilson is against a dry state. Very promptly, indeed, Mr. Wilson denies it. They tell us Lincoln was opposed to prohibition. The facts are that Lincoln was opposed to the liquor traffic in all its forms, not by statements that were never made, but by authentic reports of his speeches. They quote from people far back in history. So far we have not heard from Julius Caesar and Socrates.

"They tell us business is bad in dry towns. We prove by figures that it is better—far better, and we quote leading merchants to prove our case.

"They tell us a lot of things about Kansas which Kansas says are untrue. The same statement applies to Maine.

"Now, who is sponsoring these statements? Not the brewers of Portland, for evidently they are not interested in the campaign sufficiently to sign any of the costly and expensive posters. The 'Taxpayers' and 'Wage-Earners' League' fathered some of the above statements. But the 'Taxpayers' and 'Wage-Earners' League' has been shown to consist of two persons, Mrs. Dunway and Dr. Talbot, and Dr. Talbot has resigned. Moreover, Mrs. Dunway herself, the president of the league, repudiated the Lincoln statement, and said she did not believe it herself. And as this same 'Taxpayers' and 'Wage-Earners' League' of one person is repudiated even by its president for its official utterances, we are compelled to make this an open statement, instead of addressing the league direct. We would like to see the wet statements vouched for by persons of prominence in Oregon, not by leagues that do not exist.

"So, we challenge the wet interests of Oregon to produce a committee of 100 sympathetic supporters who are ready to stand out in the open in support of a wet state, and as soon as the names are furnished we shall publish them in every paper in Portland, parallel with the names of the members of this body, and leave the people to draw their own inferences.

"The members of the Committee of One Hundred are drawn from every rank in life. The payroll alone of the committee, for which its members are directly responsible, runs to over $5,000,000 a year. The members of the committee employ many thousands of men. Now, when they say that business will be improved under a dry state, they are talking about what they know.

"They know that as the Oregon dry amendment does not take effect till January 1, 1916, there will be more than a year for readjustment. They know that the choice saloon property will be in quick demand for other lines of business. They know that only 292 persons, including managers and stenographers, are employed in Oregon breweries, so they wonder why the fact that Oregon will save something like $15,000,000 a year from the abolition of the saloon will hurt business.

"As a matter of fact, they know that the voting out of the saloon will bring better business, prosperity and good times in very short order after the amendment takes effect. They know that this $15,000,000 will then be available for groceries, real estate and homes, not to speak of other lines of trade.

"Knowing all these things, they ask the wet interests to produce the names of 100 reputable Oregonians to back up their statements."

A STATEMENT.

The Committee of One Hundred asked for the names of 100 Oregonians willing to sponsor the various misstatements appearing in the newspapers and on billboards in Portland and throughout the state.

The Committee of One Hundred did not ask for a number of Portland taxpayers who are opposed to the dry movement. That would be silly—we know that there are plenty of them.

We might have published the names of the 42,000 persons who signed the Oregon dry petition.

The Committee of One Hundred wanted to know—and still wants to know—the names of 100 Oregonians willing to sponsor the statements made by the wet organizations.

Several of these are repeated in the advertisement:

The statement that 10,000 men will be thrown out of work as a result of state-wide prohibition.

The statement that 500 stores will be for rent as a result of state-wide prohibition.

The statement that 1500 residences will be for rent as the result of state-wide prohibition.

But the Committee of One Hundred is now asking every signer of the so-called "declaration" the following question:

Do we understand by this advertisement in the Oregonian this morning that you are simply opposed to prohibition or that you stand sponsor for the following:

1—The statement that Mr. Lincoln was opposed to prohibition. 2—The statement that ex-President Roosevelt is opposed to prohibition. 3—The statement that President Wilson is opposed to prohibition. 4—The statement that business is bad in dry towns. 5—The statement that 95 per cent of the bankers in Kansas do NOT favor a dry state. 6—The statement that Oregon dry will throw 10,000 men out of work. 7—The statement that 500 fine business locations will be for rent November 2, 1914, if the state goes dry. 8—The statement that 1000 other fine business locations will be for rent November 2, 1914, if the state goes dry. 9—The deliberate registration of floaters in the North End.
