TOMORROW VERY LAST DAY TO BRING GIFTS

Continuous Stream of Kind Hearted People Brought in Gifts All Day Yesterday.

OUTSIDERS ARE LIBERAL

Portlanders in Making War-Stricken Families Happier.

Schools Aid Cause.

"Send a truck up to the school superintendent's office. and get the pennies for the Christmas Ship," was the somewhat startling call that came over a Journal telephone late & Journal motor truck was dispatched forthwith and returned with the three bags of oppers-a total of 20,303 peniles-the gift of the Portland public school children to the cargo of the Christmas Ship.

The schools who contributed to this unique fund totaling $203.03 are: Alnsworth, Albina Homestead, Brooklyn, Buckman, Capitol Hill. Chapman, Clinton Kelly, Couch, Creston, Eastmoreland, Ellot. Failing, Fernwood, Fulton Park, . Glencoe, Glenhaven, Hawthorne, Highland, Hoffman, Holladay, Molman, Irvington, Jefferson High, Kennedy, Ladd, Lownsdale, Multnomah, Peninsula, Portsmouth, Richmond, Rose City Park, Shattuck, Sunnyside, Thompson, Vernon, Washington

To each and every contributor. The Journal hereby extends . its most sincere thanks on behalf of the Christmas Ship and the people who will share its. .

By Vella Winner.

Attention! Tomorrow is positively the last day for receiving gifts for the Christmas Ship at The Journal office.

Do not delay another moment, but wrap your contribution, write on the outside what the contents are and bring or send to the editorial rooms of The Journal by 5 o'clock tomorrow, if you would have a share in America's great message of peace and plenty which is being carried to the war zone through the agency of 100 of the leading newspapers of the

The generous giving has been a curious and touching revelation of the fundamental and enduring truth that lies at the heart of the Christian admonition that "it is more blessed to give than to receive."

Nothing could be more beautiful than this generous and spontaneous response to the need we recognize nothing could be more beautiful unless it is the radiant joy of the givers in the giving. Babies trundled into the office by fond mothers re-linquish their hold on a favorite Teddy bear or dolly with a grace that was beautiful to see.

Children Give Beloved Toys. Three and 4-year-old cherubs, saucer eyed and almost breathless with excitement, clasping little bundles of toys and books in their tiny arms, are among the very numerous contributors; and then there are the mothers, who have fashloned with their very own fingers some little frocks to warm and comfort the little ones across the sea.

Messenger boys, delivery boys and drivers of express wagons all help to swell the never ending procession that is passing in and out of The Journal office these days with their burdens for the great Christmas cargo. Contributors toward making the Christmas a great success are not confined to boys and girls or even to individual men and women. The big concerns of our city and country are interesting themselves in this unique enterprise. Lipman & Wolfe have placed at the disposal of The Journal their big shipping rooms and a corps of expert packers, who, under The Journal's supervision, will wrap and pack in big wooden boxes all of the Christmas Ship contributions. Then, too, the O.-W. R. & N. has nis to carry the cargo, free of charge, across the continent to Brooklyn, the point from which the ship sails.

Give Up Christmas Presents. The 10 children of the Zogg family of Boring, Or., have relinquished all claim on Christmas presents from their grandmother and aunt and adding $1 of their own to what would have been spent by their fond relatives for them, have purchased two bundles of toys and clothing for their little brothers and sisters across the Women in Jail Help.

A bundle of beautifully made dresses for little girls was sent in from the city jail yesterday, the material having been donated by a Portland woman, and the work having been done by one of the inmates of the Little Miss Shirley Overholt brought beloved roller skates, a top, knife and this gift, she solemnly removed the id, opened up her little purse and shook the contents in a sort of baptism of pennies and dimes for the skates; then she put on the lid and walked out, just as if little girls giving their fortunes to the war sufferers was an everyday occurrence.

The State Woman's Press club sent in a box of clothing and the Corriente | day, as the following list will attest: | students have enrolled already.

Evangelical Sunday school contributed $2.25. Mrs, H. A. French brought in a great quantity of cookies neatly packed in small boxes.

One of the notable contributions was as automobile load, comprising 65 separate bundles of clothing, toys, books, food and dolls, from the children of the Holladay school.

> Civil Service to Be Y. M. C. A. Course

Preparations Being Made to Put in Department to Equip Students to Take Examinations.

Preparations to put in a department to equip students for the civil service examinations are on at the Portland Y. M. C. A.

Robert C. French, educational secretary of the association, has received many requests for a course that would enable students to take the examinations for government positions. There will be day and night sessions of the school and a heavy enrollment is expected. Five members of the faculty have been chosen. The school is expected to start within the next week or two for the winter

Courses in higher mathematics for Portland people, failing to give students who intend to specialize in their names, brought a large number that study are being arranged by Dr. H. Chapman. The public library will cooperate with the association and get some of the more expensive tributors was unusually large yester- books needed in the work. Several

Shanahan's Great Defiance Sale

A Merchandising event of the greatest magnitude and most immense importance. The absolute closing out of Portland's most popular, exclusive Dry Goods and Furnishing Goods Store. A price smashing sale on a gigantic scale. The crowning event of 30 years of continuous square dealing with the local public. The most important underpriced distribution of clean, new wearables for men, women and children in my whole career. Right on the threshold of the new season I offer my entire stock at prices that are truly amazing. Values that are a little short of marvelous with the sole and uppermost determination to sell out the entire establishment. In DIRECT DEFIANCE to all COMPETITION, I place this four column bargain list before you. Take advantage.

Sale Opens Friday, 9 A. M., and SHANAHAN'S Continues From Day to Day Until Every Article Is Sold.
