TO OREGON TOILERS

The Rancher, the Railroad Man, the Laborer, Women

My Friday's bit for Mr. Hanley brought shower of responses. Listen:

The ceremonies that marked the shows opening were brief and the addresses were well received and to the point.

Grand March to Theatre.

They were opened by a grand march through the armory and pavilions to the temporary theatre where the addresses were made.

which stands in Agricultural hall, the patronesses lined up on one side and what you did in your advertisements for the rail-patronesses lined up on one side and the exposition officials on the other, and while the band played the "Star Spangled Banner," Mrs. O. M. Clark, wife of the president of the Oregon Panama-Pacific fair commission, directed the raising of the American flag to the ship's masthead.

Grouped around the vessel, which is made of fruits, were four squads of naval militamen in full uniform, standing at present arms. Their of-

Railroad men know you and your work for all workers, and those who have authorized me to speak for them will follow your advice to vote for Mr. Hanley, but don't you think you should tell the working men and women of Oregon, who, before reading your article, intended to vote for Senator Chamberlain, how Mr. Hanley's election to the United States Senate will not be a blow to President Wilson and his Administration?

These two men want to know what all Ore-

THE REASONS FOR MR. HANLEY'S ELECTION.

Here they are:

FIRST-NO GREATER CALAMITY COULD COME TO THE NATION, AT president of the show, intro- JUST THIS TIME, THAN THE TYING OF PRESIDENT WILSON'S HANDS DURING THE LAST HALF OF HIS ADMINISTRA-TION, BY THE TURNING OVER OF THE SENATE TO THE PARTY WHOSE MISUSE OF THEIR POWER WAS THE CAUSE OF PRESIDENT WILSON BE-ING SENT TO THE WHITE HOUSE—THAN THE DISCREDITING OF PRESI-DENT WILSON'S WORK BEFORE IT IS

The election of a straight-out Republican could mean nothing more, nothing less, to the country, to the world than-the great state of Oregon decides President Wilson's administration a failure. On this point there can be no difference of opinion. Mr. Booth's campaign is bottomed, topped and sided with this

I believe I know the country's condition as well as any man or woman in Oregon, and knowing it. I unqualifiedly say: NO GREATER CALAMITY COULD BEFALL THE COUNTRY THAN THE DISCRED-ITING OF PRESIDENT WILSON'S WORK, NOW, BEFORE IT IS FINISHED AND TRIED OUT UNDER HIS SUPER-

So grave a calamity do I consider the disrediting of President Wilson and his work. that I would, if it could not be avoided in any other way than by the election of a Democrat, not only vote for Senator Chamberlain, but for his Democratic office boy.

ELSEWHERE SHOULD MAKE NO MIS-TAKE ABOUT THIS-THE DISCREDIT-ING OF PRESIDENT WILSON AND HIS WORK NOW, WILL BE A CALAMITY, AN AWFUL NATIONAL CALAMITY.

This disposes of Mr. Booth as it would dispose of the greatest statesman of the country, if he occupied Mr. Booth's position,

That there may be no misunderstanding I will repeat: The election of standpat Republican Booth will tend to discredit President Wilson and his work, and the discrediting of President Wilson and his work would be a national calamity, the effects of which would add to the present Hellish conditions which are boiling beneath the surface of American

It the above does not completely dispose of Mr. bootn, ms own reason for asking to be sent to the Senate, that he may change the present tariff laws, should certainly do so. can anyone imagine an emptier argument than: as the present tariff hurts Oregon, send me, a Republican, to the Senate to change President Wilson's just enacted tariff law. THE VERIEST SCHOOLBOY KNOWS THAT THE PRESENT TARIFF LAW WILL REMAIN AS IT IS UNTIL THE END OF PRESIDENT WILSON'S AD-MINISTRATION, and at least as long after that-two or three years-as would be required for the changing of it by another administration, and in all probability until the country has tried it out. And this regardless of any number of standpat Republican Booths who may be sent to the Senate by Oregon or

SECOND-THE DEFEAT OF SENA-TOR CHAMBERLAIN BY THE ELEC-TION OF MR. HANLEY WILL NOT DIS-CREDIT PRESIDENT WILSON AND HIS MR. HANLEY'S ELECTION WILL BE AS GREAT A VICTORY FOR THE PRESIDENT-AS GREAT AN IN-DORSMENT FOR WHAT HE STANDS FOR-AS THE ELECTION OF SENATOR CHAMBERLAIN. GREATER, FAR GREATER.

Would any but a fool say that the election of Senator La Follette over a Wisconsin Democrat would be a repudiation of President Wilson and what he stands for?

I know President Wilson and his ideals, and I know Mr. Hanley and his ideals, and the world knows Senator Chamberlain and his ideals, for his long public record screams them to all, and knowingly, I unqualifiedly say that when Mr. Hanley is in the Senate, President Wilson and his ideals will have no warmer supporter than the sage of Harney, and that at the end of President Wilson's administration, the record of Senator Hanley's support of President Wilson's ideals, compared with the record of Senator Chamberlain's support of them, will be as arc, to can-

THE GUIDING STARS OF THE PRES-IDENT AND WILLIAM HANLEY ARE THE SAME: THE GREATEST GOOD FOR ALL REGARDLESS OF PERSONAL OR PARTY INTEREST, REGARDLESS OF FVERYTHING BUT SQUARE - DEAL

RIGHT THIRD-If standpat Republican Booth is the victor of this peculiar Senatorial campaign, the world will say President Wilson and his in political and business affairs, for everyone will know that for at least the balance of President Wilson's term there will be the same shifting, waiting, uncertainty as has prevailed during the past two years. THIS WILL BE THE LAST STRAW TO BREAK THE AMERICAN BUSINESS CAMEL'S BACK, WHICH EVEN NOW IS BENT, ALMOST TO THE BREAKING POINT, BY ITS LOAD OF PERPLEXITIES.

If Senator Chamberlain is re-elected, the world will simply let its vision pass over that part of the map of the United States containing Oregon, as though it were not there, for Senator Chamberlain's election will have absolutely no effect on the present perilous times, in Oregon and the nation. Oregon and the country have had six years of Senator Chamberlain and everyone will know that the next six years will be but a repetition of the bullymixer-good-fellow-Senator performance of the

IF WILLIAM HANLEY IS HERALDED THE NEXT UNITED STATES SENATOR FROM OREGON, THE WORLD WILL BE ON ITS TOE-TIPS TAKING NOTICE AND OREGON FOR A LONG TIME AFTER ELECTION WILL BE ON THE MAP OF THE UNITED STATES IN LARGER BRIGHTER-COLORED LETTERS THAN EVER BEFORE.

In the event of Mr. Hanley's election, the world will ask: Who is this man who has smashed the two powerful political machines, and beaten down odds that appeared unsurmountable? What his secret? Whence his power? Why his need?

And the answer will be: His personality His simple, old-fashioned honesty. His country's and his people's peril. The world will be told this by a legion of simple folk, by a legion of toilers, by a legion of oppressed and suffering, as, with one voice, they shout: HE IS WITH US, FOR US, OF US. HE HAS HEAD, HEART, SOUL AND CONSCIENCE ALL OF WHICH WILL BE WITH US FOR US, OF US, WHEN HE IS IN THE NATION'S HALLS OF POWER, AS THEY WERE WITH US, FOR US, OF US, WHEN THEY WERE AS LOWLY AS WE.

Can any but an ass say that such a man from such a state, under such conditions, will not be able to do more for his state and her people, in the nation's hall of law-making and law-administration, than Senator Chamberlain, even though Senator Chamberlain were 10 times as bully a mixer, 10 times as good a fellow, and 10 times as able a United States Senator as he has been during the past six years.

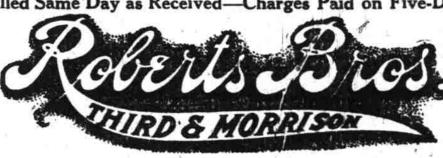

Knowing, as I do, the Oregon rancher, rail road and other worker, and their intelligent way of looking at life's ordinary problems, to say nothing of life's present intricate ones, and knowing as I do their mothers, wives, daughters, sisters and the perils ahead of them and their Hell-born causes, I CANNOT BELIEVE THAT WHEN THEY ENTER THE VOT-ING BOOTH NEXT TUESDAY THAT THEY WILL SO FAR FORGET THEIR OWN. THEIR STATE'S AND THEIR COUNTRY'S VITAL INTERESTS AS TO GIVE OVER THIS GRAND OPPORTU-THOMAS W. LAWSON.
