

Social and Personal

MISS LOU KILLINGSWORTH, whose marriage to Harry A. Swart will take place November 11, is receiving much entertaining. Last week Mrs. David Chambers entertained for her Saturday afternoon with a bridge party, and Friday Mrs. George Swires gave a luncheon of 15 covers. This week Mrs. Walter Cox entertained Tuesday with a luncheon for six. Mrs. Frank MacCauley a bridge Wednesday and his afternoon Miss Grace Jarvis gave a luncheon in his honor.

Mrs. Arnold of Hood River Guest in the City. Mrs. Hosmer K. Arnold of Hood River arrived this morning to pass a week in the city. She will first visit a few days with Mrs. William Gray at her home at Wilsona, near Riverdale, and later will be the guest of Mrs. John L. Travis, who is now ensconced in her city residence, 90 East Sixteenth street, after having spent the spring and summer at her country place at Lakeview.

At the University Club. The next of the University club monthly dances will be held on Friday, November 6, at the University club. The dancing will be limited to 150 plates. A most pleasant and enjoyable evening is anticipated, a contributing factor being the excellence of the club cuisine. At the last affair the fine old English dancing hall presented a brilliant appearance when the parties were seated. The ladies greatly appreciated the novelty of dining in the usually taboed quarters of a gentleman's club.

On Saturday, October 31, at a dinner to be held at the University club in the large dining hall, W. D. Wheelwright will address the guests present on the European war, a scholarly and impartial presentation of the present debacle in Europe will be made. Mr. Wheelwright is particularly qualified because of his recent trip through the countries involved in war, and by his natural gifts of acute observation.

The Yacht Club Party. The ladies of the Oregon Yacht club, following their well known custom, had a party for a Halloween party Saturday night. There will be games of all kinds in keeping with the idea, ghost dances and card playing. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mendonhall, Dr. and Mrs. Jack M. Yates, Mrs. Ramsey, Mrs. Newton and Mrs. Emerson will be in charge, assisted by the entertainment committee—Mr. Rainey, Mr. Lane and Mr. Standish.

Guerin-Krogstad Wedding. The wedding of Miss Agnes V. Krogstad, daughter of Otto O. Krogstad, of 55 1/2 Nehalem avenue, and Harold T. Guerin, son of Mrs. Sarah Guerin of 645 East Burnside street, was solemnized Wednesday at Oakland, Cal., where Mr. Guerin is engaged in business. Upon their return from a honeymoon automobile tour through California, Mr. and Mrs. Guerin will make their home in Oakland.

Mutual Art Association. Monday evening, November 2, at the Manufacturers and Land Products Show, the Mutual Art Association will be the hosts of the evening. A reception at 9 o'clock will be held, with musical program following, under the direction of Dr. Clement B. Shaw, Joseph H. Finley and Mrs. E. D. M. Fowler. All active associate and honorary members are requested to be present.

At Hibernian Hall. St. Francis Court, Catholic Order of Foresters, will give a dancing party in their hall, 210 1/2 Commercial street, on the evening of November 20. The Amicus club will entertain on November 21, an informal dance at the Hibernian hall, 210 1/2 Commercial street, between Rodney and Union avenues.

To Give Hard Times Party. The Ladies' Altar society, St. Stephen's Altar society, Forty-second and Taylor streets, will give a hard times party Friday evening, October 30. Society Notes. Mrs. Iva J. Munter, wife of George Munter, the deputy director of the Royal Order of Moose, is visiting her mother for a few days in Seattle. She is accompanied by her little son.

Wedding at Verboort. Cornelius, Or., Oct. 25.—The marriage of Miss Nellie Vanderzanden, daughter of Mrs. Henry Vanderzanden, and Oscar Labate of the Verboort section, took place this morning at the church at the Verboort church, Rev. Father LeMiller officiating. The bride and groom are well known and popular young people of this section, and a large number of relatives and friends were present at the wedding. A wedding breakfast followed at the residence of the bride at 12 o'clock.

Policemen to Guard Halloween Night. Chief of Police Clark Issues Orders to Captains of Three Beliefs; 60 Men in Plain Clothes. Sixty police officers will be in plain clothes Saturday evening to prevent Halloween vandalism. This was the order issued today by Chief of Police Clark to the captains of the three beliefs. Instead of reporting in uniform, most of the patrolmen will report in plain clothes for this occasion. The orders carry the usual instructions that all disorder and rowdiness must be suppressed. Destruction of property will not be tolerated, loud and unreasonable noise will not be allowed. Policemen of the day relief will return to work at 10 o'clock, being sprinkled throughout the city in plain clothes. Members of the second night relief will go to work at 10 o'clock, instead of midnight.

Correct Dancing. One Step, Mazurka, Lull, Fado, Ostin's Half and Half, Maxine, Fox Trot. Private Class (2 or 4 persons) Special rates. LaSerrinta & Freeman STUDIO, 516 ELLERS BLDG.

Seeks Reservations for 1915 Round-Up. Pendleton, Or., Oct. 29.—Though the last cheers for the 1914 Round-Up have recently died out, request has already been received for reservations for the 1915 show. Robert M. Beebe, manager of the Cornucopia Mines company of New York, has written that some New York mining men intend to take in the Round-Up next year, and to secure the best possible accommodations for them he filed his application early.
