

ROUGHEST GAME THIS SEASON PROVIDED BY COLUMBIA AND HILL

Two Disqualified for Slugging and Others Cautioned by Officials for Tactics.

COLLEGIANS WIN, 29 TO 0

Gadets Are Weakened By Loss of Several Star Men Through Injuries and Can't Advance Ball.

"Sunny Jim" Coffroth, "Uncle Tom" McCarey and "Snowy" Baker, the well known fight promoters, would be bidding against each other for the services of several members of the Columbia university and Hill Military academy teams had they been spectators at yesterday's gridiron battle on Multnomah Field.

The veteran twirler, Jack Ryan of Los Angeles, is the real leader, with the mark of 586. Ryan twirled in 25 games during the year, winning 24 and losing 11. Speck Harkness finished the year with six victories and three defeats, and Southpaw Lush of the Macknets won seven and lost four.

The splendid playing of Captain Nixon and quarterback McKenna of the Columbia team was a feature. Time after time these two players would carry the ball around Hill's weak ends for gains of 10 yards or more.

Columbia scored the first touchdown in the opening period, after Hill had failed at a place kick. Nixon intercepted a Hill forward pass and gained 15 yards, and then made a 3-yard end run.

MARTINONI TOPS COAST LEAGUERS IN WIN COLUMN

Jack Ryan Real Leader and Irve Higginbotham Is League's Iron Man.

Elmer Martinoni, the elongated twirler of the Portland Beavers, topped the twirlers in the Pacific Coast Baseball league during the 1914 season with the percentage of .846. Marty won 11 games and lost two, while his teammate, Frank Eastley, who joined the Beavers during the last six weeks of the season, won five games and lost two.

The veteran twirler, Jack Ryan of Los Angeles, is the real leader, with the mark of 586. Ryan twirled in 25 games during the year, winning 24 and losing 11. Speck Harkness finished the year with six victories and three defeats, and Southpaw Lush of the Macknets won seven and lost four.

Salem Asks That Bishop Live There

Salem, Or., Oct. 29.—Before adjourning its annual session, the Central Convocation of the Episcopal Church adopted a resolution here to petition that the residence of Bishop Summer be established in Salem, instead of Portland, the argument being advanced that Salem is more central than Portland, and that a bishop living here would take a broader view of the needs of churches outside of Portland than he would if he resided in that city. Seven counties are in this district.

Pays Visit to Bend. Robert E. Strahorn, president of the Portland, Eugene & Eastern railway, is in Bend today taking his first glimpse of central Oregon. Accompanied by Mrs. Strahorn, the railroad builder planned to take an automobile and travel over the plains and see for himself how man is winning in the battle with the arid wilderness. Last evening they were honor guests of the Emblem club of Bend boosters.

Teacher Training Center Is Favored

Re-opening of Normal School at Ashland Urged By People of Southern Oregon.

"There may be some division in southern Oregon on partisan issues, but on one thing our people are united, and that is the effort to provide a teacher-training center for our common school system by reopening the Normal school up at Ashland," said B. C. Sheldon of the Medford Commercial club. "I am surprised at the unanimity of sentiment in its favor throughout that section of the state. Repeated efforts to better our school conditions have driven the people to a realization of the fact that without the trained teacher we could not maintain an efficient common school, and that the only way the trained teacher could be secured was by establishing training schools close at hand. This has been the experience of practically every state in the country, especially those maintaining the best school systems. "Like the rest of the state, we are alive to the necessity of retrenchment and economy in public affairs, but we know that true economy does not mean that the $250,000 expended in this state annually on common schools should be spent through teachers, who have not been trained how."

Pilots' Report Filed

Salem, Or., Oct. 29.—Tonnage totaling $01,904 was handled off the Columbia river during the year ending June 30, according to a report of the state pilot commissioners filed with Governor West yesterday afternoon. This would mean pilot tolls totaling $44,334.85, according to the report.

Eight bar pilots have licenses, as follows: Gustaf Anderson, A. E. Cann, H. O. Hansen, Michael Norton, M. S. Staples, R. Swanson and G. W. Ward. These are river pilots: Julius Allyn, C. J. Anderson, J. J. Anderson, L. A. Bailey, D. H. Crang, H. T. Graves, John Peterson, W. C. Snow, Edwin Sullivan, S. V. Short, A. R. Pearce and George McNally.

Oregon State Board of Dental Examiners Will Accept $10,000 Challenge

538 Morgan Building, Portland, Oregon, October 24, 1914.

Dear Dr. Olinger: Secretary Oregon State Board of Dental Examiners, Salem, Oregon. Dear Mr. Olinger: Incidental to the campaign we are conducting against the Dentistry Bill, a news story has appeared in one of the local papers in which Dr. E. R. Parker is quoted as saying that he had "posted a challenge to the Oregon State Board of Dental Examiners that if public proof is made before November 3 that he had failed to pass the examination conducted by the board and is not qualified to practice dentistry in the state, he would pay into the fund the sum of $10,000 for the relief of the unemployed in Portland this winter."

Will you kindly forward to this office a copy of the challenge which has been sent you and inform us as to the exact status of Dr. E. R. Parker before the board? Respectfully yours, OREGON SOCIETY FOR DENTAL EDUCATION.

Salem, Or., Oct. 29, 1914. OREGON SOCIETY FOR DENTAL EDUCATION, 538 Morgan Building, Portland, Oregon.

Gentlemen: In reply to your favor of October 24, we beg to state that because the producing the records of his examination is now a matter before the courts, we have refrained from publishing any statement concerning the examination of Dr. E. R. Parker. The Oregon State Board of Dental Examiners has received no challenge from Dr. Parker offering to pay $10,000 into the relief fund of the unemployed of Portland if the board will produce his examination papers. Our only information regarding this "challenge" is a statement in one of Dr. Parker's paid advertisements, which, of course, is not a bona fide challenge. It being known that there is a rule of the board that examination papers are preserved but one year, Dr. Parker, believing that evidence of his failure has been destroyed, makes this offer in an advertisement.

If Dr. Parker will show his good faith by making a genuine challenge and will send the governor of Oregon a certified check for $10,000 to be used for the purpose he designates, we will accept the challenge and will produce the evidence to prove his failure to pass the examination.

In accordance with your request for information concerning his status before the board, we are giving you the following resume of the situation.

Dr. E. R. Parker made application and took the examination in June, 1912, and failed to get the required percentage of 75 per cent. He again appeared for examination at the November meeting of the same year, but was two days late. Being too late to take the examination in theory, he demanded that his markings in the theoretical work at the June examination be given him at this examination. When told that they were not of a passing grade, he said they were the best he could do and that he would not take the examination again for anybody. To favor him he was permitted to take the operative or practical work. After two days he informed the board that he had done all the work he intended to do, and left for his home in California. The rest of the applicants remained and finished the required three days' practical work.

Dr. Parker again appeared for examination in June, 1914, and demanded that his markings in theory of June, 1912, be given him, and declared that he would take the operative examination only. The board informed him that this was a privilege that had not been granted to any other applicant during the past eight years, except to him at his examination in November, 1912, and that the board could not see why he should receive any more favors than any other applicant who desired to comply with the laws of the state of Oregon. He demanded that a certificate be given him and when told that he would have to take the examination and pass it as others do, Dr. Parker stated that he would never take another examination and that he would make every dentist in Oregon sorry that he had not given him a certificate; that he would use the Dental Board as a whipping post, and that the board's refusal to give him a certificate was worth ten thousand dollars to him as an advertising stunt.

Regardless of the threats and demands as stated above, he was not given a certificate. It was from this date he commenced his unwarranted attacks upon the board and the profession throughout the state, and placed upon the ballot his proposed law, annulling our present one, which is very similar to the dental law of every state in the union. Yours respectfully, OREGON STATE BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS, H. H. OHLINGER, Secretary.
