SORROWING MOTHER FOUND CHAMBERLAIN HER MAIN SUPPORTER

Mrs. Rosa B. Sutton Tells Efforts to Secure Inquiry Into Son's Death.

ALWAYS WILLING TO AID

Legislator Not Only Faithful to Interests of People of Oregon, But of Strangers as Well.

A mother to whom Senator George E. Chamberlain gave aid when others would not has written to The Journal advising his re-election for the good of Oregon. She is Mrs. Rosa B. Sutton, whose determined and patient effort to clear the cause of the death of her son, Lieutenant James N. Sutton at Annapolis attracted National attention several years ago. Mrs. Sutton, who lives at 784 Hoyt street, Portland, has written as follows:

"If the mothers of Oregon only knew how kind Senator George E. Chamberlain was to me in Washington in 1910 and how hard he tried to help me clear the name of my son, the late Lieutenant James N. Sutton, I am sure they would all want him to return and remain the United States senator from Oregon. We none of us know what is in store for us, and when we have a man in the United States senate that has been tried and not found wanting, why let us keep him there.

"Senator Chamberlain is a father and dearly loves his family, and any sorrow that destroys a home touches his heart deeply.

"In March, 1910, Senator Chamberlain introduced a joint resolution in the United States senate asking for a congressional investigation into the facts and circumstances attending the death of my son, Lieutenant James N. Sutton, and due to the influence of the Republicans the resolution was pigeon-holed and that was the last of it. Since the Democrats have been in power I have not been able to return to Washington on account of illness and circumstances over which I had no control.

"If we do not fight for the life and rights of our Oregon boys how can we ever expect to have Oregon men. With the exception of four Republicans, and they were Progressives, 'next thing to Democrats,' they did not want Lieutenant James N. Sutton's death investigated. Why?

"If such a crime should happen under President Wilson's administration, and he did not see justice done, my, what a howl would go up to the very heavens from our good Republicans out west, 'in Oregon.'

No matter when you go to Senator Chamberlain's office in Washington, you will always find him ready to do all he can for you. A widow in Washington, whose son was dismissed from West Point, wrote me of her sorrow and trouble. I told her to go and see Senator Chamberlain, and if the case was as she told me, Senator Chamberlain was the man to go to; he was the chairman on military affairs and would see justice done.

"After 13 months the boy was reinstated. The mother wrote me how kind Senator Chamberlain had been to her and she thought Oregon was blessed to have such a man represent her. Senator Chamberlain had never met the lady before, and had no interest in the case, but to see justice and fair play.

"Now let the mothers come out and vote for the man who we know will look out for our boys, whose ambition takes them to the far east.

ROSA B. SUTTON.

Students to Hear Orchestra Rehearsal

Entertainment Will Be Given in Heilig Theatre Tomorrow; Concert Season Will Open Sunday.

Students of the Lincoln High school and of one of the grammar schools will assemble tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Heilig theatre, Broadway and Taylor street, to hear the final rehearsal of the Portland Symphony orchestra for its first concert of the season next Sunday afternoon. The seating capacity of the theatre will be filled tomorrow and it is expected also on Sunday afternoon.

The principal offering will be the "Great" symphony in C of Franz Schubert. This was the last important work of this now famous composer and it is full of melodious and charming orchestration. It is generally supposed to be a picture of gypsy life. The symphony will form the first half of the program. The second half will consist of "Mignon," overture by Ambrose Thomas, a work full of poetic beauty and charm; "Evening in the Mountains," by Edward Grieg; "Moorish Fantasia" and "Malaguena" from the ballet "Boabdil," by Moszkowski and Wotan's "Farewell" and "Magic Fire" from "Die Walkure," by Richard Wagner. This forms the conclusion of the most stupendous of Wagnerian operas and will prove a splendid closing number for an excellently built program.

The Sunday afternoon concert will begin at 3 o'clock. Harold C. Bayley will conduct and Herman S. Heller will be the concert master. The general seat sale opens tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock at the Heilig.

Reports Made Upon Election Measures

Eleven Bills and Amendments Reported to Bar Association by Committee of 100 Lawyers; Only Two Approved.

Eleven measures were reported on by the committee of one hundred of the Multnomah Bar association at a meeting Tuesday night. The committee advised a negative vote on 9 of the 11. It approved the bills to make all terms of county officers four years, and to increase the pay of legislators from $3 to $5 a day.

The committee disapproved the $1500 exemption measure, proportional representation, the abolishing of the desert land board, the "right to work" amendment, the tide-land amendment, the non-partisan judiciary bill, the eight hour law for female workers, the sur-tax amendment, the bill abolishing the state senate. No recommendation was made as to the prohibition amendment. The non-partisan judiciary bill was rejected as improperly drawn.

The dentistry bill submitted for vote November 3 is disapproved in a report by a sub-committee of the committee of 100 appointed by the Bar association
