Several important amendments to the constitution of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and the adoption of imendments to the widows' pension bill, were salient features of this morning's session of the congress.

Mrs. R. C. Bondurant, chairman of the widows' pension committee, submitted the resolutions proposing amendments to that bill, which is the "child" of the congress, having been drawn by it two years ago. amendments provide that a mother must reside in the state for three years and in the county for one month No family can receive more than $40 per month. Ten dollars will be lowed for the first child and $7.50 for each additional child. Children welfare of the children.

Improvements Are Pavored. The convention went on record as favoring improvements at the Frazier Detention home, by the use of the $17,000 voted last year for this purcose; favoring the reopening of the State Normal school at Ashland; cooperate with juvenile court in creatng a bill to regalize illegitimate children; to go on record declaring the saloon to be a moral and economic waste as opposed to liquor traffic and willingness to work for its eradicacommittee to look into the matter of organizing Parent-Teacher associations in the high schools of the state: Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, Mrs. Martin Wagner, Mrs. J. W. Kerr, Mrs. Ralph Duniway and Mrs. George Rebec. The convention adjourned for the luncheon given at Hotel Benson by the Portland Parent-Teacher association.

Plea for Elimination of Pear. Yesterday afternoon's session was characterized by delightful music and helpful addresses. Mrs. Jane Burns Albert sang two solos, accompanied by Miss Mamie Helen Flynn, and Miss Ada Alice Tuttle gave a group of artistic solos. Professor Irving E. Vining of New York was the principal speaker, his topic being "The Boy Problem in Cities and Small Towns. His address was replete with helpful suggestions on how to help the boy in the highest and best development of himself physically, mentally and morally. He made a plea for the elimination of everything that suggests fear in all training as it is one of the principal sources from which criminal ten dencies are developed. Short addresses were given by Runo Mr. Arne, who is the new superintendof making the home sufficiently attractive that the boys and girls will seek their entertainment there rather state for which they are correspondthan outside. He said that one of the prime reasons that boys do not stay at It nome is because of the lack of freedom, or to use a less elegant but more forceful term, because they are not allowed to "let off steam."

"Parents should live with, play with show their sympathy with the things which interest their sons and daughcome to the friends of the boys and necessary. girls. Too many homes are planned for | the adults of the family with no conheart of the home and in her hands lies the destiny of the children.
