

TWO HEROES OF WAR WHO ARE FIGHTING FOR CONFLICTING CAUSES

This German soldier won an iron cross for being the first man to cross the river Meuse. (Photo by the Int. News Service.) A wounded British marine on his way to the hospital from one of the outer trenches at Lierre. (Photo by Int. News Service.)

BELGIAN GIRLS BRINGING WALNUTS TO THE SOLDIERS IN THE TRENCHES

This photograph was taken at some point between Duffel and Lierre during the German advance on Antwerp, and shows a group of soldiers receiving walnuts from peasant girls. (Photograph, copyright 1914, by The International News Service.)