OREGON'S LEADING PHILANTHROPIST OPENLY OPPOSED TO PROHIBITION

S. Benson, owner of the Benson Hotel, of Portland, and known the length and breadth of Oregon for his great works of charity, public enterprise and civic leadership, takes positive stand against a "dry Oregon."

READ MR. BENSON'S LETTLED CADEFULLY:

HOTEL BENSON, (Formerly New Hotel Oregon) Portland, Or., Oct. 29, 1914.

Mr. S. Blumauer, City—

Dear Sir: In response to your inquiry regarding my views on the prohibition question, I desire to state that I HAVE NEVER BELIEVED IN OR ADVOCATED STATE-WIDE PROHIBITION.

In that case, I would advocate National prohibition of the manufacture of whiskey after a period—say of ten years—which time would give the manufacturers an opportunity to dispose of and liquidate their interests...

IT HAS BEEN PROVEN THAT STATE PROHIBITION DOES NOT PROHIBIT, and that CONSUMPTION OF LIQUORS IS AS LARGE TODAY AS IT EVER HAS BEEN IN THE PAST.

Yours very truly,

(Signed) S. Benson

The "dry forces" have spread the impression across the state that Mr. Benson is an ardent Prohibitionist. His letter be the answer—that he advises you to

VOTE 333 X NO

Against Prohibition. (Paid Advertisement, Oregon State Hotel Association, by M. G. Dickman, Pres. Oregon Hotel, Portland, Or.)
