MUCH DEPRESSION SHOWN FOR POTATO OFFERINGS LOCALLY

Market in Bad Shape Owing to the Extremely Low Price Outside Stock Is Offered at; Usual Markets Cannot Be Reached,

Further weakness is showing in the sotato trade and the bulk of the suplies are being offered today by jobbers to retailers at $5 to 96c a cental. It is stated that five cars of Yakima netted gems have been sold in this market for arrival during the next day or so at $15.50 a ton delivered to be No. 2 stock, still the quality is reported the average shown here.

While prices are generally un-changed at 45c a dozen for extras in the egg market today, some of the re-ceivers were asking a lower price yes-terday, are now able to sell at the ex-treme mark.

BUTTER TRADE MUCH MIXED

While some of the city creameries report their ability to maintain values at 34 ½c a pound in case lots, it is reported that secret cutting of values is again going on. Country creameries again going on Country creamer are generally asking lower values. ARTICHOKES ARE PLENTIFUI

Quite liberal supplies of artichokes are arriving from the south. For best offerings the trade is generally quot-ing 75c a dozen but for smaller sizes, the price ranges from 50 to 60c.

CANNED SALMON HOLDS FIRM While prices continue unchanged, there remains a very active demand for canned salmon and especially for

DISEASE OF THE FOOT AND MOUTH IS ANCIENT

The dreaded foot and mouth disease, which is reported from various sections of the country as affecting livestock is believed to have been known fully 2000 years ago, when it attacked the herds of the old Greeks and Romans.

While in some quarters it is stated that the disease is not fatal to livestock still those who have studied the trouble state that an infection generally results in the animal dying. The disease is virulently contagious.

The disease is virulently contagious, abilists in the animal licks this, thus conveying the infection to the mouth, where it works so virulently that it often causes the tongue to drop off. In such case the animal dies of starvation.

Hogs are subject to the disease and it may infect human beings. Chickens and other farm animals carry it. It was suddenly subjected to a terrific fire from a ridge the British had supposed was still occupied by the French Pight With Gun Apiece. Under Captain Bradbury's orders, the British gunners unlimbered, but could bring only three of their six guns into action. The men who were not killed or wounded in the first few minutes managed them. One by one they put out of action mine of the 10 field guns the Germans were using against them. By this time one of the three British guns had also been put out of action, and only three men remained to man them. They accordingly de voted themselves entirely to a single gun, and with a gun apiece, the Germans and British continued to fight until a rescuing cavalry detachment found them still crouching behind their gun shield and relieved them.

When this fog cleared the battery

The fourth man recommended for the Victoria cross is Private F. W. Dobson of the Second Coldstream guards, who won distinction by a dash in front of the firing line to save a wounded comrade,
