

MINISTER JOINS IN JOURNAL CONTEST TO WIN PIANO OR AUTO

Presbyterians Aiding in Race to Capture Honors for the Rev. W. A. Spalding.

Rev. W. A. Spalding

Believing that there is plenty of room for an automobile or a piano in the work of the Third United Presbyterian church on East Thirty-seventh, near Hawthorne avenue, the name of the pastor, Rev. W. A. Spalding, has been entered as one of the contestants in The Journal's trade and circulation contest by H. L. Balcer's class of boys.

It is their intention to secure the cooperation of all organizations connected with the Presbyterian church in Portland with a view of winning their candidate out victorious.

"We need a good piano in the church," said Mr. Balcer, "and the contest which The Journal and affiliated business firms and manufacturing companies is putting on certainly points out a way to win it. Of course, we want one of the automobiles which are offered as grand prizes; and if we can secure the proper cooperation on the part of other Presbyterian organizations, we will get it. Dr. Spalding will then have an opportunity of extending his work. This is an automobile age, and Dr. Spalding needs it in his business.

"With this object in view, I ask all Presbyterians to help. All they have to do is to save the labels of the vote getting kind of goods, such as are listed in The Journal, and we will do the rest."

Mr. Balcer's class consists of a live bunch of boys, ranging from 12 to 16 years of age, and they have entered the work of securing votes for their candidate with much enthusiasm.

Dr. Spalding has been a minister for a quarter of a century. He has been in Portland two years, and has many friends. He came to Portland from Seattle, where he was pastor at a church for 12 years.

Two Estates Will Pay State $1245

Heirs of Henry S. Rowe and Daniel Kunkel Are Assessed in Accordance With the Law.

The state of Oregon will receive $1245.89 in inheritance taxes from two estates. County Judge Cleeton yesterday ordered Agnes H. Rowe, widow of Henry S. Rowe, once mayor of Portland, who died March 20, 1914, to pay $470.91 tax on an inheritance of $22,091.09, from her husband's estate. Two sons were left $199 each, which sums are exempt.

Judge Cleeton also directed Samuel Kunkel of Kronopach, West Prussia, Germany, to pay $766.87 tax on an inheritance of $77,864.87 received from the estate of his brother, Daniel Kunkel, who died January 17, 1914. Mrs. Anna Kunkel, the widow, was left but $293.23 of the estate, and will pay $48.33 as her tax.

South Bend Elects.

South Bend, Wash., Nov. 12.—Five city officials were nominated to succeed themselves Tuesday. The primaries are decisive, as there is but one party here. Charles Coulter, incumbent, was chosen mayor. Herman Murray, attorney; Charles H. Mills, incumbent; K. M. Leach, incumbent, treasurer; Fenton Smith and L. P. Larson, incumbents, and J. E. Shone and Oscar Sather, councilmen.

Resinol makes itching eczema vanish

There is immediate relief for skins itching, burning and disfigured by eczema, ringworm, or other tormenting skin trouble, in a warm bath with Resinol Soap, and a simple application of Resinol Ointment. The soothing, healing Resinol balsams sink right into the skin, stop itching instantly, and soon clear away all trace of eruption, even in severe and stubborn cases where other methods fail.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment also clear away pimples and blackheads, and form a most valuable household treatment for sores, wounds, boils, piles, etc. Sold by all druggists. Prescribed for 19 years.
