

What Society is Doing

BY NONA LAWLER

MRS. D. P. THOMPSON, her daughter, Miss Genevieve Thompson, and niece, Miss Mary Meltrum, will arrive home tomorrow evening from the east, where they have been motoring for the past six weeks. Miss Ruth Teal, who has been visiting Miss Katherine McMillan in Minneapolis, joined them en route home and will return with them. Miss Teal went to Minneapolis to be present at the debut of Miss McMillan which was a fashionable event in that city the latter part of last month. They were school mates at Miss Spence's school in New York.

Miss Genevieve Thompson will be welcomed by her hosts of friends here with many social affairs. She has been away from the city about 14 months in all, having left September 6 of last year for San Francisco in company with Mrs. Harriet McArthur, from where they sailed for the Orient. Their trip through the Orient, the far east, the Mediterranean and Europe was an exceptionally interesting one. At the outbreak of war they were motoring in England and continued their trip before sailing for New York, early in September.

Mrs. Thompson and Miss Meltrum went east to greet them on their arrival.

Mrs. Joseph N. Teal has sent out cards for a large tea, Friday afternoon, from 4 until 6 o'clock, to welcome her sister, Mrs. Thompson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Home from the Orient.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lewis returned home Sunday afternoon after an absence of two months and a half. They have enjoyed a most delightful trip, visiting the Hawaiian islands, the Philippines and a few points in China and Japan.

Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, who have been visiting at the Lewis residence, have taken the Thomas Erskine residence, 618 Kearney street.

Miss Hammond to Wed.

An event of much interest tomorrow evening will be the marriage of Miss Beesie Hammond of Oregon City and Lloyd Harris of Wilbur, Wash. Rev. Mr. Ramsey will read the ceremony, which will take place at St. Stephen's pro Cathedral. Miss Hammond is an attractive girl and she comes of an old and prominent Oregon family. Her father, Richard Hammond, is a merchant of Klamath Falls, and she is a niece of Mrs. D. P. Thompson. The wedding has been planned quite simply. The relatives and intimate friends have been invited to attend and there will be no reception. Following the young couple leaving immediately for their home in Washington, D. C., Thompson Meltrum, a sister of the bride, will be the matron of honor and Frank Harris will attend his brother.

A feature of the ceremony will be the singing by Mrs. Fred Hartman, who will render, "Love Me and the World is Mine" (Johns).

Many delightful social affairs have been given for the bride-elect both in Portland and in Oregon City. Mrs. Hartman presided at a bridge and miscellaneous shower last Wednesday afternoon. The relatives and intimate friends of the bride-elect were present at a luncheon with honors falling to Mrs. Elwood Hendershott and Mrs. D. Thompson Meltrum. The rooms were actively decorated with flowers, ferns, thurms and ferns. Those present were Miss Hammond, Mrs. D. Thompson Meltrum, Mrs. Robert Silkmitter, Mrs. Edgar Bryan, Mrs. Katharine Lay, Mrs. Thomas Langham, Mrs. Lilly Purdy, Mrs. E. H. Hartman, Mrs. Charles Myers, Mrs. Ingo Sturgis, Mrs. Paul Trullinger, Miss Queenie King, Mrs. Elwood Hendershott and Miss Irene McCown.

Mr. and Mrs. Boss Hosts.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Boss entertained at their Irvington home for an informal card party. Honors fell to Mrs. Frank McCullis and H. B. Adams. An enjoyable feature of the evening was the playing of several piano solos by Lillian Becker. The evening tables were original compositions. The rooms were abloom with clusters of red carnations and greenery. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. F. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Gaze, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Closset, Mr. and Mrs. Francis P. Ward, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. B. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Jellison, Mr. and Mrs. George Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. William Knapp, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Burntrager, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCullis, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Blasinger, Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Closset, Mrs. Katharine Lay, Mrs. Nina Larowe and Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Root.

Washington Hip Camera Club.

On Saturday evening the Washington High School Camera club gave its annual masquerade party in the high school gymnasium. Dancing was the feature of the evening, but other entertainment was provided for the guests. William Bradley, in the costume of a country maid, gave some clever impersonation songs; Miss Helen Stoddard and John Lee gave a pantomime of the balcony scene from "Romeo and Juliet," and Alma Sharp gave two charming recitations. Ray Staub, acting as auctioneer, sold a number of boxes of home made candy. Miss Marie Vial won the first prize for the most original costume. She wore a Chinese costume. In the last part of the evening dainty refreshments were Mrs. R. W. Blackwood, who received this afternoon from 3 until 7 o'clock for the British Red Cross and Prince of Wales funds.

The committee was: Miss Helen Stoddard, Marion Stephenson, John Lee worked hard to make the party the success which it was. There were over 100 members and their friends present, including the officers of the club, who are: E. H. Combs, president; Harry Pearce, vice president; Dorothy Morrow, secretary; Harry Clair, treasurer; Raymond Lucas, editor; Frank Hunt, sergeant-at-arms.

Birthday Party.
A jolly crowd gathered at the home of Mrs. Hallinan, South Oswego, Saturday evening, the occasion being the nineteenth birthday of Billie Davis. The evening was spent in playing games, telling fortunes, in music and dancing. Delicious refreshments were served at 11 o'clock. Those present were: Muriel Julian, Alda Bickner, Amy Schawper, Iva Elston, Edna Elston, Mildred Neuhush, Mrs. Jurisch, Leona Tomlin, Hazel Gadke, Mildred Monk, Florence Simonton, Della Davis, Billie Monk, Albert Rosentrater, Lydie King, Tom Martin, Charles Hill, Hope Combs, Harold McFeeters, Charles Bickner, Lloyd Tomlin, Kenneth Davidson, Leonard Davis.

Social Club to Give Dance.
The Hibernian social club will entertain tomorrow night at Hibernia hall, 340 Russell street. A. J. Campbell heads the committee on arrangements, and is assisted by: W. P. Lillis, Daniel P. Hogan, A. B. Cain, Daniel Smith, J. D. Walsh, F. J. Riordan, John Kenny and John McGreal. The misses Marie Chambers, Kate Gaffney, Mary F. McCarthy, Margaret Smith, Cecelia McMahon, Henrietta Wascher, Anna Donovan and Ella Sullivan.

The patronesses will be: Mrs. L. Devine, Mrs. H. J. Mathieson, Mrs. W. P. Lillis, Mrs. H. Lee, Mrs. W. A. Elvers.

Piedmont Club Dance.
The opening dancing party of the recently organized Piedmont club will be held tomorrow evening at the Kenyon Tennis club on Patton avenue. Unusual interest is being shown in this affair by a large number of the younger contingent. Patronesses: Mrs. P. E. Sullivan, Mrs. J. Warren Warwick, Mrs. M. G. Clancy and Mrs. James J. Hogan. The club members in charge of the arrangements include: Messrs. M. E. Kioley, J. A. Clancy, M. J. Melohor and J. B. Warwick.

For Red Cross Chain.
Mrs. R. W. Ewell will give a tea and musicale Wednesday, November 18, at her home, 608 East Taylor street, from 2:30 until 5:30, in aid of the British Red Cross fund. All who are interested in the work are most cordially invited.

For the British Red Cross Fund.
Mrs. H. W. Blackwood entertained this afternoon at her Irvington home with a tea for the benefit of the British Red Cross and Prince of Wales funds. A silver offering was given by each guest. From 5 until 7 Mr. Blackwood will join in receiving the guests and the men interested in the cause are also invited.

Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. L. J. Evers will entertain for the fund at a hall

Woodland Paper Moves.
Woodland, Wash., Nov. 17.—The Woodland Chronicle formerly the Echo has been moved by E. H. Tarter from the Reed building to original home of the paper, the Echo building, near the depot. Mr. Tarter has installed his family in the rooms above.

A mass meeting of the voters of Woodland has been called by Mayor Joseph Bennett to convene in the city hall November 20 to name officers to be elected December 8.

The attendance in the Woodland school this year is about 18 per cent greater than last year, and the attendance in the high school is 40, a 30 per cent increase over last year. Professor Frederick Stuckert is serving his third term as principal.

on the fifth floor of the court house. Cards will be played and all who are interested in this good work are invited to be present.

AMERICAN FASHIONS

American beauty is a stunning evening gown, and it is most effective here.

By Lillian E. Young.

From a host of charming evening gowns exploited at a recent social function the model portrayed has been selected as representative of the new fashion trend. Without disturbing the play of long lines or interfering with the contour effect, this one of the most interesting characteristics of the present modes, a much flounced skirt is introduced that bears no resemblance to other treatments.

The materials employed are American Beauty velour and satin, with a delicate corsage of white chiffon. The velour is used for the basque-like central portion of the gown and for the first tunic flounce, just below it. The other three flounces and the inside blisse turned up against the corsage are of the satin, all cut out in a rose scalloped edge and bound with flat, narrow folds of self-material. The chiffon corsage is cut by a kimono sleeved pattern and trimmed with narrow bandings of ermine. It will be noticed that the top of the basque grille is cut out in the scallop as well as the flounces. This is a pretty touch and conforms with lines of the satin bib above. A rather large satin rose is caught in front of the left hip, just at the joining of basque and tunic.

American Beauty is to be a very smart shade this season, especially where evening gowns and wraps are concerned. While it is conceded that it is a somewhat trying shade, it certainly will be found ravishing on those whom it suits, and it lightens up well at night.
