

JIM COFFROTH AFTER WELSH-RITCHIE BOUT BEFORE DECEMBER 15

Champion Says He Will Demand Same Guarantee as Ritchie Got In London.

RITCHIE IS NOT WORRIED

Will Make Weight Only for Important Match and Thinks He Can Regain Title from Britisher.

San Francisco, Nov. 17.—Promoter James V. Coffroth plans to stage one more championship fight here before the anti-boxing law goes into effect on December 15. A Freddie Welsh-Ritchie match is the bout "Sunshine Jim" is after, and there is a strong probability of the pair getting together.

Writing from Los Angeles, Coffroth notified Ritchie that Welsh would fight the former title holder if Freddie were given the same guarantee that Ritchie received in the London bout. The weight was placed by Welsh at 133 pounds, but Coffroth added that Welsh most probably would agree to Ritchie's 135 pound stipulation.

Ritchie was more than pleased at the turn in affairs.

"What terms Welsh can make with the promoter is his own affair," said Ritchie, "but I personally will not guarantee him $25,000. I'll attend to my own end of the financial deal. I'm a bit overweight now and would not take the trouble to reduce for an ordinary match. But a championship contest is different. I am satisfied that I can get the title if given another chance with the present holder of the lightweight championship.

"I have wired Coffroth asking him when he will return to San Francisco and will confer with him when he gets here. I hope the match can be arranged to take place in this city before the anti-boxing bill goes into effect."

Should the Welsh-Ritchie match fall through, Coffroth will try to arrange a 10-round bout between Welsh and Charlie White.

Coffroth also has several other matches in mind. He plans to put on Harlem Tommy Murphy and Eddie Mox here the end of the month and it is also probable that he will see to it that neither Red Watson or Joe Bayley.

Bud Anderson Beats W. Mack at Astoria

Astoria, Or., Nov. 17.—Bud Anderson of Vancouver made the best showing in a no-decision ten-round exhibition with Willie Mack at the local arena last night.

The go was even until the sixth round, but after that Mack began to show signs of being the bout was the full ten rounds, Anderson by his superior strength and endurance proved too much for his opponent. The contest was clean and thoroughly enjoyed by 400 fans.

Dick Phillips of Astoria fought four rounds to a draw with Archie Stoy of Chehalis. While Phillips had a shade the better of the fight the difference was not sufficient to warrant a decision in favor of the local lad.

Bob Shawkey Weds Philadelphia Woman

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—Robert Shawkey, a pitcher for the Philadelphia Athletics, and Miss Marie Clapp were married here last night. Amos Strunk, another player on the former world's championship team, acted as best man.

GIBBONS CLEVEREST OF WORLD MIDDLES SAYS CRITIC EDGREN

Only Man Who Has Ever Made Him Hop Around Was Eddie McGoorty.

COULD FOLLOW KETCHEL

Only One of the Bunch Who Knows Feint From Marshmallow—Doesn't Waste Energy Like Welsh.

By Hal Sheridan.

New York, Nov. 17.—Bob Edgren, sporting editor of the New York World, says Mike Gibbons is the cleverest and greatest of all the world's middleweights.

"Clabby is fast and clever," says Edgren. "Chip can hit, McGoorty is lucky, McGoorty is wonderful but over-weight, but Gibbons combines all the best qualities of the rest and adds a few that are peculiarly his own. It's a long time since we have had a middleweight as clever as Mike. The only thing we don't know about, in Mike's case, is the extent of his courage. He hasn't been in danger of a knockout in any of his fights. The only man who has ever made him hop around on the defensive is Eddie McGoorty."

"Mike met Eddie shortly after McGoorty had knocked out both Dave Smith, champion of Australia, and Jack Harrison, champion of England, in half a dozen matches each. He knew that McGoorty had the punch of a fast heavyweight—and Mike surely used caution on that occasion. It was only in the last round that he turned loose all his fighting power, and he showed what he might have been able to do had he tried it time."

"Gibbons is the only middleweight in sight now who could follow the late Stanley Ketchel's example and fight heavyweights. While not the furiously aggressive fighter that Ketchel was, by any means, he might have as good a chance as Ketchel because of his remarkable skill."

"Mike is the only real middleweight we've seen lately who knew a feint from a marshmallow. Mike feints all the time—feints with his head, his hands, his body, his knees, his feet. He doesn't hop and skip about like Freddie Welsh, wasting twice as much energy dancing as he uses up fighting. Every movement of Mike Gibbons means something and has its purpose. He makes his men give the opening he wants, and then drives a blow through to exactly the spot he wants to hit. And he can hit hard—like a heavy-weight. His right hand is exactly like McGoorty's crusher, although he can land a clean knockout on occasion. He hits constantly, and all his blows join in producing a dazing, jarring effect. When his opponent tries to clinch he is especially effective. He twists around and pokes through blows that no other fighter ever thought of. Each hook and jab and cuff has a jar in it. He's a real champion."

having kept the crowd waiting for more than an hour while he haggled with the promoters over the money end.

The bout with Jim Cameron of Los Angeles at the last minute refused to go over the long route and demanded more money. He finally agreed to eight rounds. The scrap really lasted five and a half, and was stopped when Cameron claimed he had broken his hand.

Two preliminaries between navy boys and local boxers furnished the only real ring action of the evening. Cameron hung onto his opponent most of the time. He was outclassed.

A. A. U. ELECTS LILL AND PERMITS WOMEN TO ENGAGE IN SWIMS

Events Must Be Exclusively for Fair Racers, Is Restriction Placed by Body.

New York, Nov. 17.—Henry Lill Jr. of Boston, was unanimously elected president of the Amateur Athletic Union of America at a meeting of the delegates of the various branches here last night. John Elliott, San Francisco; George F. Pauling, Philadelphia; Charles A. Dean, Chicago, and George Turner, Baltimore, were elected vice presidents.

Fredrick W. Rubien, president of the Metropolitan association, was unanimously elected secretary-treasurer to succeed the late James E. Sullivan.

The Pacific Northwest, Pacific Southern Pacific, Intermountain and Rocky Mountain associations were given permission to stage the far west championships during the Panama-Pacific exposition. The canal zone was added to the Southern Pacific association.

The delegates adopted three amendments to the constitution. The most important of these was the one by which women are enabled to register for swimming events, exclusively for women competitors.

The other amendments adopted are: "General rule 6, section 14, regarding entries, was amended to read as follows:

"The entries for all Amateur Athletic Union championships, both national and association, shall be made to the chairman of the championship committee or such persons as he may designate for that purpose."

"The winner of a junior championship shall be permitted to compete in any event in the senior championship in the same year upon paying his entry fee."

"No professional contests or exhibitions shall be allowed at games, meetings or entertainments, held under the auspices of the American Athletic Union. A regularly employed instructor, however, may take part with his pupils in group exhibitions only. No competition shall be held between an amateur and a professional and where both amateur and professional contests are held at the same place and same day, all amateur events must either precede the professional events or vice versa."

OREGON TAKES NIGHT PRACTICE IN SECRET FOR O. A. C. CONTEST

Coach Bezdek Allows No One on Field but Team in Final Preparation.

BIG BONFIRE FOR RALLY

Reports From Seattle Say Oregon Team Was Beaten Before It Went on Field Last Saturday.

Eugene, Or., Nov. 17.—Aside from all the breaks in the game going to Dobbie's team, from the stories of the Eugene media who saw the struggle in Seattle Saturday, it appears that Oregon was beaten before the team came on the field, 15 minutes late from waiting on the corner for a street car. Huntington, the freshman quarterback, was overruled by the crowds and lost control of his team. Though coached for the past two weeks to prevent just such a play as Washington worked for a touchdown, Lyle Bigbee stood in his tracks, dumfounded, until the ball had sailed over his head and into the arms of a waiting Washington lineman.

Oregon's green line played like veterans, say the fans, and Sam Dolan, head lineman, said after the game that Beckett, at tackle, played one of the prettiest games he had ever seen. Cook, for a man who had just got out of a two weeks' siege in bed with the mumps, played a good game. Bryant, at fullback, played a wonderful game, and Ed West, the 60 pounds of scrappiness stationed on the left wing position.

With just four days before the piece de resistance on the annual University of Oregon football card, the O. A. C. battle, Bezdek and his men are out on Kincaid field every night using the "ghost ball" and the arc lights long after the dinner bell at the men's dormitory, a block away, has rung. Secret practice prevails, to which the coach will not even admit the newspaper men. It is quite likely that Bezdek will use Sharp in the quarterback position Saturday in Corvallis as the former Multnomah club boy showed up well in the Seattle game. Cornell is definitely out of the game for the rest of the season.

Great preparations are being made for the game Saturday. There will be at least 500 Oregon students in Corvallis. An immense rally will be staged on Kincaid field Friday night and the annual freshman bonfire will be lit after the students have got out of the downtown streets in the gathering of "pep." "Green cappers" are watching their fire day and night and have erected a tent on Kincaid field where the men off watch may snatch a little sleep. A committee is also taking care to see that the famous Oregon "O" on Skinner's butte is not painted in the O. A. C. colors this year as it was last.

Organization on the campus will put on a "stunt" and these combined with the program mapped out by Yell Leader Ernest Vosper of Portland, insure plenty of entertainment for the hundreds of townspeople and hundreds more of students who flock to Kincaid field on this night for the biggest "cheer" fest of the season.

GAME ARRANGED FOR TACOMA BENEFIT FUND BY O. A. C. AND U. S. C.

Corvallis, Or., Nov. 17.—The annual Thanksgiving day football game between the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Southern California at Tacoma, Wash., for the benefit of the Belgian relief fund, was arranged by the Oregon Agricultural college and the University of Southern California.

Expenses of both teams will be paid by the Tacoma Commercial club. It is expected that 15,000 people will witness the struggle.

WASHINGTON TO MEET JEFFS ON GRID TOMORROW

Wolfer and Nelson May Be Out of Interscholastic Game.

The annual gridiron game between the Jefferson and Washington high school teams will be played tomorrow afternoon on Multnomah field at 3 o'clock.

The blue and gold team will be handicapped if like Wolfer and "Hooligan" Nelson are out of the game on account of injuries. Nelson's knee is giving him a whole lot of trouble lately and it is likely that he will remain out for the rest of the season. Wolfer's injuries are not so bad and he may get into tomorrow's game for a short time.

Jefferson will be outwaged by the east sides by a number of pounds, but Coach Jamison is confident of holding the Eagles to a low score. Washington will use the old style line smashing game, while the blue and gold team will depend on open plays for their gains.

NORTHWESTERN SAVED BY CLIP IN CLUB SALARY

Bob Brown Says Northwestern League Will Continue in British Columbia.

By A. P. Garvey.

Vancouver, B. C., Nov. 17.—That the Northwestern league was saved from financial ruin by the action of the National association in revising and adopting new salary limits is the opinion of Bob Brown, president of the Vancouver baseball club and leading pennant winner in this part of the universe. Bob heaved a sigh of relief when the club tidings were imparted to him. A reduction of $1500 over last season's figure and two men less to carry on the monthly payroll. Bob looked years younger after he had perused the official advice, and every other magnate was probably viewing the situation from almost the same angle.

It means the salvation of the Northwestern league, if an attempt was made to continue to operate under last year's limit the result would be disastrous.

"We've lost money, every league in the country and we're going to get down to a real business basis," remarked the Vancouver magnate. "The players will not like the change, but it had to come, and next year we will be able to produce first class ball and no one individual will be drawing down all the money. I believe we will have a six club circuit in 1915, and the same teams in line."

"While the war will have some effect on the attendance in Vancouver and Victoria, should it continue, we will not suffer to the extent that we will have to close our parks. We will be doing business as usual, both here and in Victoria; and with horse racing dead here, we should have a most successful season."

The Vancouver magnate has not signed a player for next season. He is not going to worry himself about signing them, either, until after the new year. But if he goes through with his plan of campaign new faces will be numerous on the Beavers' lineup in 1915.

Schmeer and Wheelers, Local Favorites, Will Appear Before Fans.

Two Portland favorites—Yost Schmeer and Dave Wheelers—will appear in the six round boxing contest to be staged at St. Helens, Or., tomorrow night. Schmeer will meet Dick Wayne at 133 pounds and Wheelers will be pitted against Joe Hennessey at 142 pounds. The other bout of the program will be the event between Kid Brooks and Jim Tracco.

Arrangements have been completed to have a special train leave the Union depot at 7 o'clock, which will carry the fans direct to the hall in which the events will be staged. The train will return to Portland immediately after the events.

There is a great deal of interest in the coming goes, and it is expected that a large number of Portland fans will make the trip to St. Helens.

"Cyclone" Pat Calhoun of Portland will meet Arch Stoy of Centralia in a four round event before the Eagle Athletic club of Tacoma, Wash. Tonight Joe Swain, another Portlander, will be pitted against Ivan Miller of Seattle.
