Press Club "Jinks" Will Be "Hummer"

Members Are Invited to Attend and Bring Four Friends to Share in the Fun. The Portland Press club entertainment scheduled for tomorrow night in the clubrooms is promised to be a

"hummer." This is the first "night at home" the club has put on in many months and will be the first "jinks" by the recently selected entertainment committee.

Dependent on the success of this entertainment is a series of "jinks" planned for the winter, so it is essential that all of the members, with four men friends at least, are present.

While the program as a whole is being kept secret, it is known that Miss Frances Magill, star pupil of Professor Ringler's dancing academy, is to show the club members how to dance the latest and most modern dances. She will have as her partner Arthur Himes and Mrs. Mader will preside at the piano.

It has also leaked out that Fred Hildebrand, eccentric comedian at the Marcus Loew Empress theatre, is to be on hand to assist in the fun. He is one of the big hits of the show at the Empress tills week and is a sure cure for the "blues."

From the New York Times. Mrs. Flint, a kind hearted mistress, was much disturbed that Martha, her new maid, was obliged to sleep in a cold room on the top floor.

"Martha," said she, remembering the good old fashioned custom in her girlhood, "it is going to be a very cold night and I think you had better take a flatiron to bed with you."

"Yes'm," the girl quietly assented. When Martha announced breakfast the following morning the mistress asked:

"Well, Martha, how did you get along with the flatiron?"

Martha breathed a deep, reminiscent sigh.

"Well, ma'am, I got it 'most warm before morning."
