Cattle and Horse Raisers Will Meet

Executive Committee Announces Arrangements for Sessions Here During Livestock Show

With Portland as the seat of the Pacific International Livestock show, December 7 to 12, meetings of the executive committee of the Cattle & Horse Raisers' association of Oregon have been called for each evening of this period to be held at 8 o'clock, in room 209, Imperial hotel.

A feature of the meetings will be addresses by officers and members of the American National Livestock association, who are expected to be present. The Cattle & Horse Raisers' association of Oregon now has 275 members, an increase of 500 over last year. It has been eminently successful during the past year, through the employment of a brand inspector at the Portland Union stockyards in cutting down stock thefts.

Boys Will Meet at McMinnville Friday

Portland Organizations Will Send 60 Delegates to Conference.—Prominent Speakers.

Sixty delegates from the boys' clubs of Portland will join those of other sections of Oregon in the State Older Boys' conference at McMinnville Friday, Saturday and Sunday where plans for the work of the organizations for the winter will be laid.

Prominent churchmen, educators and association workers will address the boys on topics of current interest in the prosecution of the club program. The conference is called by the State Young Men's Christian Association and by the Oregon Sunday School conference.

Boys' Work directors of the Portland Y. M. C. A. together with several city pastors and Sunday school workers are on the program for addresses to the boys.

SPECIAL RATES GRANTED

County Commissioner Rufus C. Holman, president of the state association of county judges and commissioners, has sent out word to all members of the association that a fare-and-a-third rate had been agreed upon to and from the convention of the association in Portland December 9, 10 and 11, provided 60 or more take advantage of the offer. The tickets will be sold from December 6 to 11 and on the return trip will be good from December 9 to 15.

With a new camera lens of French invention for long distance work it is possible to get a picture a man 600 yards away large enough to fill a plate.
