fighting with him. The other man suddenly drew a revolver and began shooting at the smaller man as the latter ran down Third street toward Morrison. Policemen arrested Percy Meyer at East Third and Taylor. McCray explained to the officers that he had been at a masked party at a skating rink on the east side and had just escorted a girl to her home on East Third street. He was loitering about the premises, he said, because he had lost a black mask. The officers found the mask on McCray's home. McCray was arrested on suspicion that he might have participated in the flight.

Collection Costs Reduced.—The minimum charge schedule for collections has been lowered by the Multnomah Bar association to conform with the standards set by the Commercial Law League of America. The new minimum rates will be 10 per cent on the first $300, five per cent on the next $300 and two per cent on the balance over $1000. The old rates were 10 per cent on the first $500, five per cent on the next $500 and three per cent on all over $1000. Little change in collection costs is expected as no maximum charge is fixed.

Booming House Proprietor Held.—Charging him with conducting an illicit rooming house at 223 Market street last night, Patrolman Fair arrested John W. Jones, proprietor, aged 39, and Miss Jones, aged 23, as witnesses. Previous to the arrest two girls, one 16 and one 14, had been sent home together with two boys under age. The girls were in the house contributing to the noise making, were in the party.

Revision of Election Laws.—Revision of the election laws will be one of the principal topics for discussion at the annual convention of county clerks to be held in Portland December 10 and 11. Suggestions will probably be made to the legislature for changes in the laws to bring greater efficiency and less expense. County Clerk Coffey, of this county, has sent out a call for all members to be present and all are expected for the meeting.

Talk on Advertising Tonight.—The Parent-Teacher association of the Richmond school will hold an evening meeting at the school tonight beginning at 8 o'clock. A talk on "Honest Advertising" will be given by A. G.
