

PICTORIAL SECTION

Special illustrated section of The Journal showing latest war photographs of developments of the war in Europe. Actual scenes of fighting taken by the world's most daring and successful photographers.

SPECIAL FEATURE PAGE

Watch for this page of The Journal appearing every Monday and Saturday which will contain a complete pictorial history of the war and of other events of the world as they develop in the day's news.

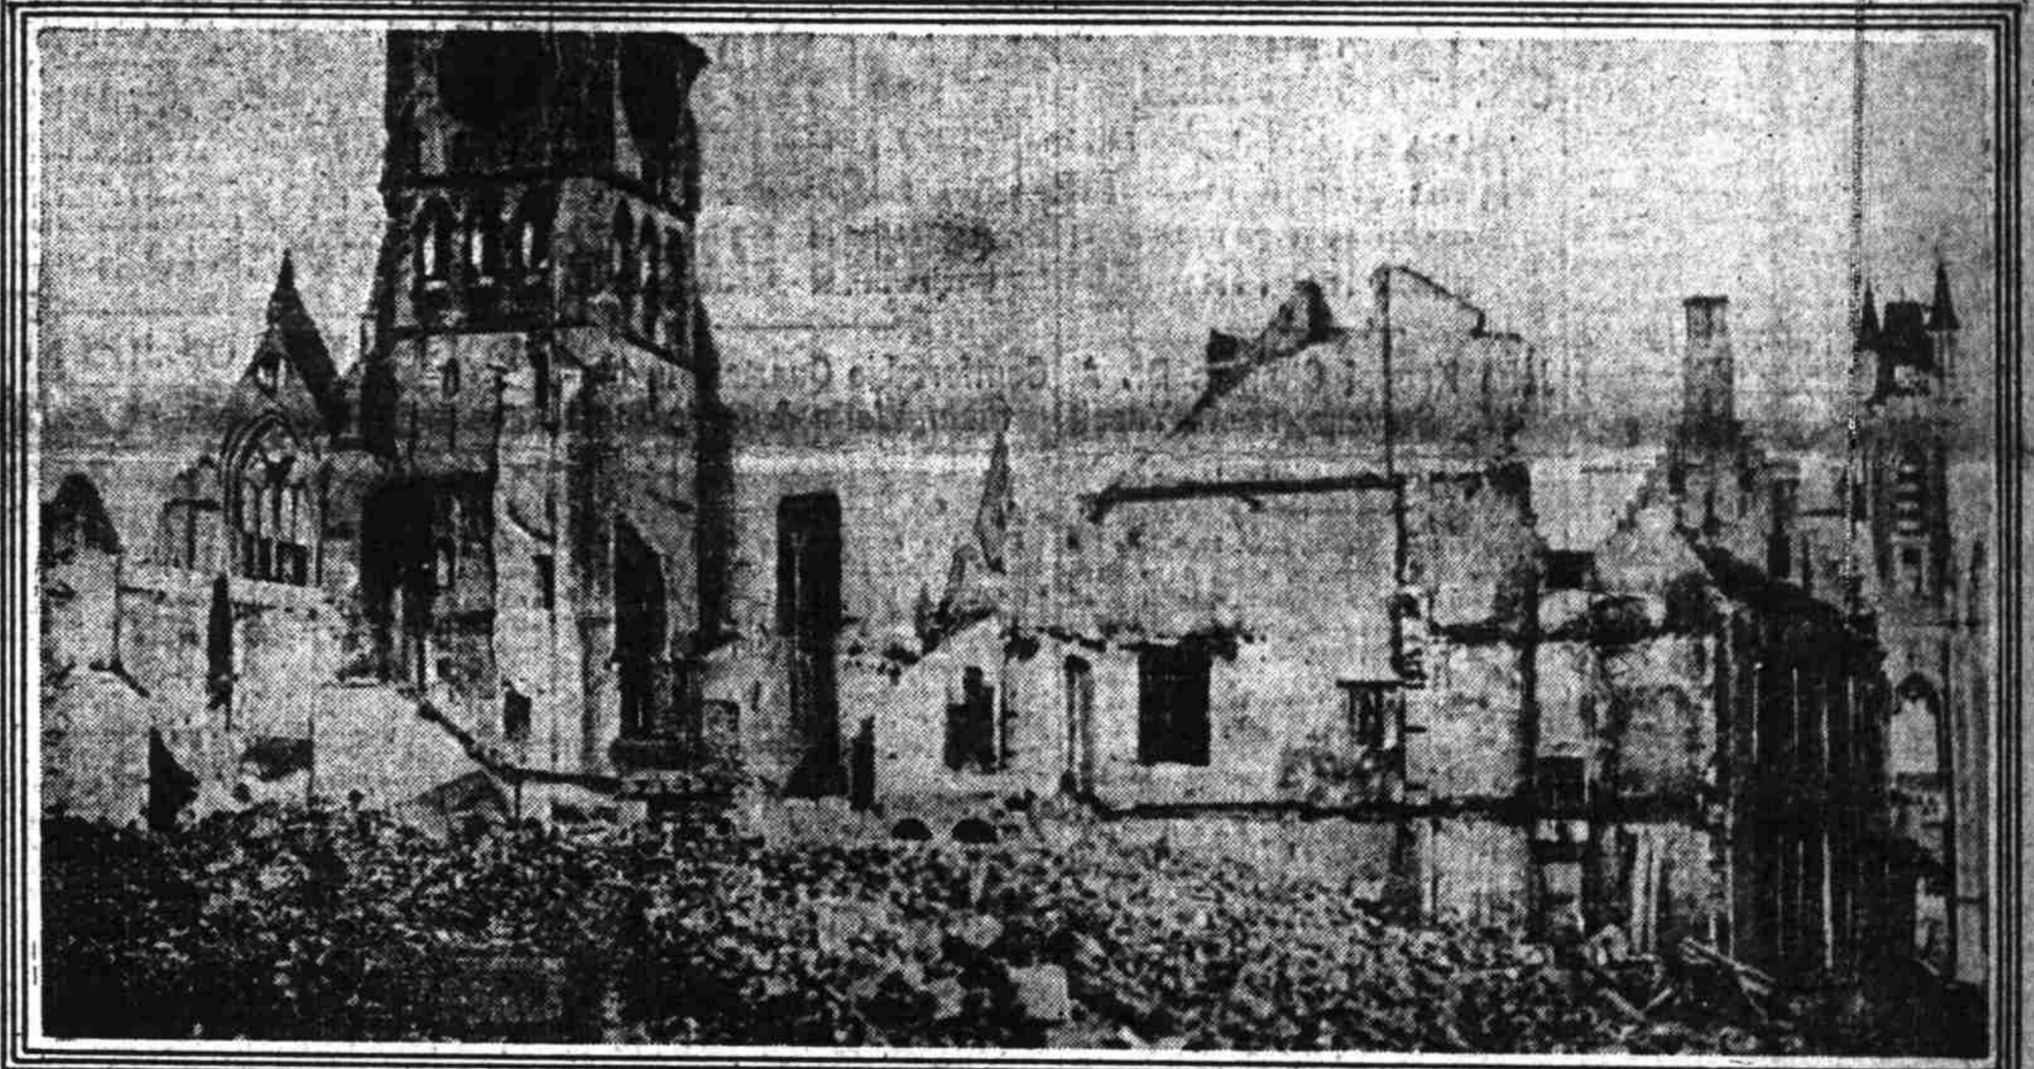

Crown Prince of Germany Gives Remarkable Interview on War Blaming "Iron Ring" Portland Shows Big Gains in All Lines for November. ∴ Battle in Poland Undecided

WRECKED CHURCH AFTER A GERMAN BOMBARDMENT
The interior of the Church of Vieille, the results of the German bombardment during the battle of October 18

DIXMUDE, BELGIUM, HAS BEEN BATTERED BY BATTERIES FROM BOTH SIDES
A street scene in Dixmude, Belgium, where furious fighting took place, showing the ruins caused by shell fire from both sides

EFFECTS OF TERRIFIC BATTLE BETWEEN ALLIES AND GERMANS
The church and surroundings at Dixmude, the center of a terrific battle, in ruins from the shell fire

ANOTHER SCENE IN DIXMUDE AFTER THE BATTLE
Main street in Dixmude, Belgium, a heap of ruins after the terrific battle

CATHEDRAL WRECKED BY GERMAN SHELLS
The Cathedral at Nieuport, Belgium, after the bombardment of the town by the Germans