Bowser the Hound Does Bobby

Coon a Good Turn. Each deed we do, each word we say, Though trivial they often seem, May hurt or help somebody else In ways of which we never dream.

Certainly Bowser the Hound hadn't the least intention in the world of helping Bobby Coon. No, indeed! That was the last thing that would enter his head. And yet Bowser did help Bobby, and he did it at just the time when help was most needed. The funny thing is, Bowser didn't know that he was helping Bobby and he doesn't know that he did to this day. And that goes to show how little we can tell what an act of our own may mean to an other

Bobby had reached a hollow high up in a big tree, and in this he had hidden while down below Farmer Brown's Boy and some other hunters were disputing as to who should climb the tree Bobby had last been seen in by all but Farm-er Brown's Boy. The latter had seen

Bobby crossing from tree to tree and knew just where he was hiding, but Bobby didn't know this, and neither did the other hunters. The fact is, Farmer Brown's Boy was really Bobby's friend and the one reason why he was out hunting Bobby that night was to try to keep the other hunters from getting again! him. It was to give Bobby a chance to reach his present hiding place that Farmer Brown's Boy had made such a fuss about climbing that tree. Now Bowser the Hound had begun to lose interest in the hunt for Bobby found Bobby's tracks and he had followed them until he had forced Bobby to climb a tree. It seemed to him that Hound was saying-"A fox! a fox! a these men folks were dreadfully stupid. He had shown them where Bobby Coon fox! a fox!"
