(Salem Bureau of The Journal.) Salem, Or., Dec. 9.—Several small lots of hops have been sold here this week at 11 cents. The largest sale was made by George Rose, who dis-posed of 500 bales at that figure. Prices range from 9 to 11 cents. There has been a steady movement, according to T. A. Livesley, at 9 to 11 cents, and the Hill sale at 12 cents at Independence, was the only one at that figure he had heard of. He as-market. There was little change in the price of creals on the Portland Merchants Exchange for the day. A sale of 5000 bushels February bluestem was made at $1.124/2, 10.000 bushels February club at $1.194/2, 10 sales would indi-cate a slightly is ger tendency in the market. Future in general showed little change in the bids. Coarse grain bids were practically unchanged with the exception of brew-ing barley, which lost 50c a ton for the day.
