crepe de chine, trimmed with lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of white roses. Miss Anna Gmahling, the bridesmaid, was gowned in a pretty dress of lace over pink silk, and carried pink carnations. The decorations were green and yellow, being a pretty combination of ferns, Oregon grape and yellow chrysanthemums. An elaborate wedding dinner was served, which was attended by only a few of the intimate friends of the families. Mrs. Earlywine has a host of friends in this city, and Dr. Earlywine, a graduate of the Pacific Dental college of May, 1914, is practicing in Everett, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Earlywine will stop a few days in Seattle, and also visit friends at Bellingham, before taking up their residence in Everett.

The bride's residence, 22 East Tenth street North, was the scene of a delightful wedding Wednesday evening, December 9, when, at 7:45, Al Frank Watkins and Tillie Dickel were united in marriage in the presence of 50 invited guests. The rooms were most beautifully decorated in yellow and evergreen. The bride and bridesmaid, Miss Frieda Keller, carried beautiful bouquets in harmony with the decorations. Preston Whiting was the groom's attendant, and the bride was given away by her brother, A. Dickel. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. S. Bollinger, of the Highland Congregational church. The many and valuable presents were the evidence of the high esteem in which the happy couple are held by their friends. A bounteous wedding dinner was served. Mr. and Mrs. Watkins will make their home at Castlerock, Wash.

Lieutenant Schneider was one of the box holders at the ice hockey match Tuesday evening at the new Ice Hippodrome in Portland. Lieutenant Mrs. Robert L. Weeks gave an informal supper Sunday evening for Captain and Mrs. Ed.
