NIGHT CLERK IS HELD PENDING AN INQUIRY IN CAUSE OF DEATH

Thomas M. Ellinger Arrested on Charge of Second Degree Murder.

WILL HOLD AN INQUEST

Agod Man Believed to Have Been Thomas Buffell Had Been Shoved Out of Motel.

Because an old man whose name i believed to have been Thomas Ruffell. did not have any money, Thomas M. Ellinger, night clerk of the New Ohio hotel at Second and Burnside streets, shoved him out on the sidewalk and pushed him over Monday night. Ruffell died at the Good Samaritan hospital yesterday of internal injuries, and Ellinger was arrested last night on a charge of second degree murder. He is held in the city jail without bail, pending the inquest to be held by Coroner Slocum tomorrow afternoon Ellinger told Detective Captain Baty that the man had come to his hotel and asked for a room. He had no money, he grew boisterous, and Ellinger escorted him to the door and gave him a shove.

The man, who was about 5 feet, 8 inches tail, and wore the clothing of a salior, was found unconscious on the sidewalk by Detectives John Moloney and Royle Monday night. He was taken to the emergency hospital because it was believed he was suffering from delirium tremens. The interne at the nospital thought this was the trouble all yesterday morning, and treated him accordingly. He was still unconscious. When the hospital interne came from lunch yesterday the man was bleeding at the mouth and seemed to be near death.

He was rushed to the Good Samaritan hospital, but died 10 minutes later. A few papers, on which the name Thomas Ruffell appears, furnish the only means of identification.

The body was taken to the morgue, where an autopsy is being performed

Read of Zousewives' League Inaugurates Movement in New York in Response to Letters From Growers.

New York, Dec. 16,-Mrs. Julian Heath, president of the Housewives' eague of New York city, inaugurated today a "Buy a box of oranges" movement here. This action resulted, she said, from the receipt of hundreds of letters by the league from citrus fruit growers, saying crops were good but the market was poor and their plight was serious.

California Is Willing.

Los Angeles, Dec. 16 .- Southern California orange packers and growers, expressed general satisfaction to day in the "Buy a box of oranges" movement inaugurated by the House wives' league of New York city. The southern California crop this year is of unusual quality, and fully normal in volume, according to a statement today by G. Harold Powell, secretary of the California Fruitgrowers' exchange. Powell further said that there will be plenty of oranges for Christmas trees in the eastern states. The early December eastern cars are being moved daily. Powell expressed the opinion that the movement started by the New York women was an economy measure for housewives, in view of the fact that oranges may be purchased cheaper by the box.
