

RIVAL LIGHTWEIGHTS READY FOR 10 ROUND GO IN N. Y. TONIGHT

Charlie White of Chicago Expects to Stop Joe Shugrue Within Eight Rounds.

New York, Dec. 29.—Joe Shugrue of Jersey City and Charlie White of Chicago, the two most logical contenders for the lightweight title, will clash tonight at Madison Square Garden in a scheduled ten round bout. The seat of war has been enormous and record breaking crowd was expected to attend the contest.

Both men were pronounced fit as the proverbial fiddle today. The weight stipulation calls for 133 pounds at 6 o'clock and both were said to be at weight. Each scrapper was confident of victory. White asserting he would stop Shugrue within eight rounds.

"I've never been in better condition for a battle," said White, "and I expect to win by a knockout. I have the confidence, the experience and the punch. Shugrue, I know, is a good little man, but he does not figure in my class. I expect to stop him within eight rounds."

Shugrue was equally confident but he was not boastful.

"In all my experience in the ring," he said, "I've been knocked from my feet only once. That was when I first met Leach Cross. Leach was at his best then. He caught me with a terrific right to the jaw as I was going away and the blow upset me. I was up instantly, however, and held Cross to a draw."

"White's boast that he will win by a knockout is absurd. He cannot hit hard enough to knock me off my feet. I expect the battle will go the full route, but I hope to win the newspaper decision."
