What Society is Doing

Auctioneer," opened his week's engagement here at the Heilig last night and called forth a capacity audience that has rarely beenequaled in Portland, even on the rare occasilons of grand opera appearing in Society filled the of the theatre. Among the larger box parties was one given by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore B. Wilcox. The first enter-tained at dinner at their King street home, the appointments of which were elaborate and most effective. A big Venetian bowl filled with gay little gold fish and a few yellow rosebuds centered the board and the color scheme of golden yellow was further carried out with small vases filled with yellow rosebuds and yellow shaded candelabra. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Koehler, Miss Leslie Smith, Miss Louise Burns, Miss Claire Wilcox, Roderick Macleay, Hamilton Corbett, Prescott Cookingham, Theodore Wilcox Jr and the host and
