PRAISES LOCAL SCHOOLS Fido and Kitty on

After a four weeks' trip in which New York, Chicago, Milwaukee, Cleveland, Boston and Gary, Ind., were visited, Superintendent of School Properties F. A. Naramore returned to Portland satisfied that Portland has school buildings which will compare with any of those places. He said that Cleveland especially is building fine schools, having been spurred to Suspected of Stealing Horse, Roy E, Neal, a horse trader, was arrested this morning by Deputy Sheriff Phillips while in possession of portions of a harness stolen from T.

L. D. Thomas of Fairview. Attempt, it is said, will be made to identify Neal as the man who stole a horse from M. Burns, sold it to some Japanese and then stole it from the Japanese and then stole it from the Japanese. nese and then stole it from the Japa-
