Says "Never Again" Is the War Slogan

English Post Predicts International Alliance to Establish Collective Responsibility Among the Nations. New York, Feb. 5.—Alfred Noyes, English poet and peace advocate, and visiting professor of English at Princeton, has arrived here. "The watchword of even the most pronounced militarists among the allies," said Mr. Noyes, "is 'Never Again!' When the settlement comes, there certainly will be a grim attempt to establish a collective responsibility among nations, so that treaties cannot again be torn up with impunity. "The whole thing reduces itself to whether we are going to have international wars in the future. A system of international police is rather a distant ideal, but I don't see why the principle of international alliances cannot be worked out."

Freshman Claims Record for Wounds

London, Feb. 5.—The Daily News correspondent in a dispatch from Paris says: Major Serle of the French army medical service must hold the record. It is earnestly declared that he has been wounded 97 times and has so far recovered that he is looking forward to going to the front again. As might be expected, most of his injuries are slight, but three months ago he was seriously wounded in three places and brought back to Paris for treatment. He has been decorated with the Legion of Honor.

Poland Suffering More Than Belgium

Distress of People Is Reported by Red Cross Agents, After Making Investigation of Conditions. Berlin, via London, Feb. 5.—Dr. Wickliffe Rose and Ernest P. Bicknell, who, after making investigation of conditions among the war sufferers in Belgium, on behalf of the Rockefeller Foundation, went to Russian Poland for the American Red Cross, have returned to Berlin. Their trip took them through the parts of Russian Poland under German control, and was undertaken with the object of organizing in that territory relief work similar to that in Belgium. Dr. Rose and Mr. Bicknell said that conditions in Poland were most distressing, and, if anything, worse than in Belgium. They were inclined to recommend the institution of relief work, if provision could be made for forwarding supplies. The transportation question is extremely difficult to solve, because of the poor roads and the heavy demands on railroads for motor trucks and horses for supplying the needs of the troops. The German government is issuing provisions to civilians to a certain extent, but has

Says Black Sea Is Ruled by Russians

Treasurer of Turkish Missions of American Board in Constantinople Confirms Reports From Petrograd. New York, Feb. 5.—W. W. Peet, treasurer of the Turkish missions of the American board in Constantinople, in a letter received by the board, tells of conditions in Turkey since the outbreak of the war in that region. Mr. Peet's letter confirms the reports which come by way of Petrograd and London papers to the effect that Russia is in command of the Black sea. While rumors were afloat in Constantinople that Van and Erzerum, in High Armenia, had fallen into the

Cracow Prepares For a Long Siege

Geneva, via Paris, February 5.—Dispatches from Budapest state that the governor of Cracow has ordered the partial evacuation of that city and its suburbs by women, children, men unfit for military service. The men over military age, but who are still active, have been formed into a city guard. The banks have been transferred to Vienna. Provisions of all kinds, it is stated, are scarce in Cracow. The Austrian war office has issued an order calling up all of the land-storm men up to and including those aged 60. This order applies throughout the Austrian empire.

Nurses Are Killed On Russian Fields

Seventeen Met Death While in the Performance of Their Duty—One Under Fire Seventeen Hours. Petrograd, February 5.—Seventeen women nurses in the Russian Red Cross service have been killed in the battlefield or died of wounds received while in the performance of their duty. An official "eye witness," attached to the staff of Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander in chief, says that the nurses, have
