confirmation of the prophesied supremacy of the little subcommittee. If it could drive off swifly battle cruisers, what would be its effectiveness against slower dreadnoughts such as the United States proposes to build?

Senator Tillman, chairman of the Senate Naval Committee, says this country should learn all it can from the European war before investing further in big battleships. It is advice worth heeding.

SENATOR BINGHAM ought to withdraw his compensation bill. He has never been a leader for private interest in opposition to the public interest. He has never been disposed to run counter to the edicts of the popular will.

THE BINGHAM BILL
SENATOR BINGHAM ought to withdraw his compensation bill. He has never been a leader for private interest in opposition to the public interest.

After experimenting with cheaper pavements the King county authorities have come to the conclusion that the most expensive one is the cheapest in the end, the cost of maintenance being reduced to a minimum.

There is an urgent demand for economy in state and county administration. The legislators with the approval of taxpayers have taken the position that it is not economy to curtail road development which is becoming an asset of permanent and tangible value to the people of the whole state.

THE commercially conducted theatre in America is an avowed failure.

Letters from the People
(Communications sent to the Journal for publication in this department should be written on one side of the paper, and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender.)

Small Change
A man has no real kick coming when his wife talks to herself.
Many an expert swimmer has been drowned in the sea of matrimony.

The Oregon Sidelights
The Macksburg correspondent of the Canby Herald writes: "When it is considered that for many days the past month the children have had to wade through water ankle deep, on the way to school, it is not surprising that they are so glad to be in school."

Farm Mortgage Loans
Owners of money who live in cities will not be able to satisfy themselves with farm mortgages on land which they can inspect.

A Few Smiles
To the grouchy looking person who has boarded his car, the conductor says, as he returns him his transfer:

When You Were Unemployed
Portland, Feb. 6.—To the Editor of The Journal—Were you ever unemployed? Did you ever get up at night, trying to get work, and when Saturday night rolled around, you were no better off than you were the first of the week?

No Such Movement Apparent
Portland, Or., Feb. 4.—To the Editor of The Journal—Is there a movement in Portland or other coast cities to organize the unorganized women, such as milliners, dressmakers, stenographers, etc.?

Asiatics That Are Excluded
Mohler, Or., Feb. 3.—To the Editor of The Journal—Please state through your paper if the United States at this time excluding Chinese and Japanese from the United States.

Commends Merciful Watchman
Portland, Feb. 4.—To the Editor of The Journal—Through your paper I wish to commend the night watchman in not having the heart to shoot down one of his fellow beings, even though he was in the act of robbing.

Too Much to Bear
From Judge.
Friend—Why are you crying, Bobby? Bobby—Ma whipped me because my face was dirty, and then washed it.
