ters do social service work, and the Portland Chi Omegas have chosen this lunch room as their work. Every day they feed from 60 to 80 children and many of these who are unable to pay, have been supported by private donations.

All who are interested in this cause are cordially invited to the tea.

Miss Sallie Paige of Spokane, who is visiting Miss Margaret Mackenzie, was the honored guest at a pretty tea given Monday by Miss Dorothy Sanford. Spring flowers were beautifully arranged about the rooms and on the tea table where Mrs. Hall Stoner Lusk and Mrs. Medford Reed poured and served ices. Assisting in serving were: Miss Margaret Mackenzie, Miss Genevieve Butterfield, Miss V'Ona Gutherie, Miss Margaret Bates, Miss Barbara Macey, Miss Elsie Hamilton and Miss Helen McCusker.

About 70 guests called during the afternoon. Miss Paige and Miss Mackenzie are passing the week end at Gearhart-by-the-Sea.

Flowers and all the pretty expressions of congratulations are finding their way to two homes of prominent Portland families where tiny future beaux made their advent Wednesday. At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke their second child, a son, was born Wednesday morning; and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Eugene Kingsbury (Lulie Hall), are also being felicitated on the arrival of their second son.

Mrs. Joseph N. Teal left with a party of young people for Rodger's Mount Hood lodge Friday to pass the week end. Miss Ruth Teal and Miss Rhoda Rumelin are in the party.

Another group of young people who are passing the week end at the lodge is: Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Crumpacker, Miss Cornelia Cook, Miss Katherine Hart, Richard Hart, Lester Hodson and Jack Latourette.

The Misses Maisie and Ailsa MacMaster are among the prominent young people of the smart set who are passing the week end at Roger's Mt. Hood Lodge.

A colonial dinner will be given by the women of the White Temple Monday evening at the church. George and Martha Washington will preside over the repast, and a number of prominent matrons of the church, in colonial costume, will assist in receiving and serving the guests. This event is given each year for the benefit of the church, and is always a pleasurable occasion. As in the past, a program will be given later in the evening in the Sunday school room. Henry Odeen, baritone soloist, Mrs. Lulu Drury Scott, reader, and Donald Ross, character reader, will deliver the program.

For the benefit of the German Red Cross, the women's auxiliary of the German Relief society will give a card party next Wednesday evening at the Deutsches Haus. Elaborate preparations have been made for the event, which is in charge of the following committee: Mrs. T. Abendroth, Mrs. Paul Wessinger, Mrs. Von Witzingerode, Mrs. Adam Mueller, Mrs. R. Ruetter, Mrs. J. H. Blaesing, Mrs. H. Eberhardt, Mrs. Elsa Schwabe, and Mrs. Charles Meier.

In honor of the women legislators, Miss Marian Towne, representative from Jackson county, and Miss Kathryn Clarke, senator from Douglas county, the young women of the house and senate gave a merry party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. M. Baker, North Liberty and Center streets, Salem.

One of the gay diversions of the evening was a mock "third house," which was carried on with all the dignity which parliamentary law could afford, the members passing numerous humorous bills. Later music and dancing were indulged in. Refreshments were served from a long table around which the guests were assembled, Representative Towne and Senator Clarke presiding, their places being marked by corsage bouquets of violets. Miss Elizabeth Jean Braun of Portland acted as toastmistress. Pink carnations were used for table decorations.

Among the guests were: Mesdames Nellie Ball, A. L. Moore, Eleaner Sheldon, L. W. Therkelsen, Alice Nugent, A. R. Fairbank and the Misses Grace Worrell, Elizabeth Jean Braun, Helen A. Dorsey, Christene Elder, Ellen Gaynor, Zylpha Harper, Alice Migard, Winnie Doyle and Lulu Hockett of Portland; Miss Gladys Ashby, St. Helens; Mrs. A. A. Anderson and Miss Isabella Paulsen, Astoria; Mrs. Nettie Spaulding, Misses Jessie Barnes, Jeanette Booth, Salem; Miss Kathryn Clark, honor guest, Glendale; Miss Gladys Warner, Woodburn; Miss Marian Towne, honor guest, Phoenix; Mrs. D. C. Thoms and Miss Martha Tandy, Jefferson; Miss Florence Moore, Oregon City; Miss Christene Macrodt, Forest Grove; Miss Alvira Frizeen, Marshfield, and Miss Anna Elliott, McMinnville.

About 50 guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mrs. N. P. Sorensen last Monday afternoon, when she entertained at her beautiful home on Willamette Heights with cards and music. The house was decorated profusely with palms, cedar, Oregon grape and carnations, the color scheme being red and green. The prizes, two beautiful pieces of cut glass, were won by Miss M. Troy and Miss G. Chandler.

Miss Olga Hendrickson, reader, and Miss Emma Sorensen, soprano, gave an excellent program of songs and recitations. Miss Sorensen has a pure coloratura voice which was heard at its best in the brilliant arias from Faust and Ernani. Her other numbers were a group of English songs and "One Fine Day," from Madam Butterfly. Miss Hendrickson was especially good in her portrayal of the small boy and his ideas.

Dainty refreshments were served by Misses Grace Bingham, Olga Spilid, Eva Anderson and Hazel Young, Mrs. J. E. Murphy and Miss Sorensen.

Following is the list of guests: Mrs. H. S. McCraken, Mrs. B. Holmes, Mrs. R. Barth, Mrs. M. C. Banfield, Mrs. G. M. Strong, Mrs. H. C. Anderson, Mrs. F. W. Isherwood, Mrs. D. S. Painter, Mrs. Sheffield, Mrs. H. P. Leonard, Mrs. J. E. Murphy, Mrs. B. Slaughter, Mrs. R. C. Hulbert, Miss Olga Hendrickson, Miss M. Troy, Miss Olga Spilid, Mrs. D. M. Donough, Mrs. Max Friedenthal, Mrs. H. Beckley, Mrs. J. W. MacKenzie, Mrs. F. C. Young, Mrs. Fred Drake, Mrs. A. H. Birrell, Mrs. W. G. Gosslin, Mrs. L. D. Chandler, Mrs. Clark, Mrs. D. L. Carpenter, Mrs. Alex Sweek, Mrs. R. Wilson, Miss G. Chandler, Miss L. D. Chandler, Miss Eva Anderson, Mrs. P. Versen, Mrs. E. A. Beals, Mrs. R. Politzch, Mrs. M. Anderson, Mrs. B. Gray, Mrs. Francis Drake, Mrs. Treve Jones, Mrs. C. Crogster, Mrs. W. M. Daly, Mrs. T. L. Spilid, Mrs. A. E. W. Peterson, Mrs. A. Hrix, Mrs. C. F. Hendrickson, Miss Hill, Miss Grace Bingham, Miss Hazel Young.

The delightful young people, Miss Harriett Harlow and Harold Grady, who were seen in society classic dancing at the Charity ball and Visiting Nurses' tea, have won recognition in the professional field as well as captivating the hearts of those who have watched them dance at local affairs. They will open a vaudeville engagement here Monday in a fancy dancing turn, and continue on the circuit, touring California. Cupid, too, lurks in their footsteps, and they are to be married at the close of the week and make the southern tour their honeymoon, booking from here as Mr. and Mrs. Harold Grady.

The wedding will be a simple affair, with only the immediate relatives present.

Miss Harlow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Harlow, and a granddaughter of Captain Harlow, a pioneer of Oregon. She graduated from Portland academy, class of '13, and is a member of the Delta Iota Chi sorority. Her coming before the public as a dancer brings to mind interesting memories to older Portlanders of dancing here in early days when her grandmother, Mrs. H. A. Foreman, was the foremost teacher of dancing in the city, having built the old hall formerly located at Twenty-third and Kearney streets, afterwards known as Larowe hall. Here many a prominent matron made her debut and was courted and won at the dances. Mrs. Foreman and her daughter, Miss Clarice Maybelle, and granddaughter Georgine Nichols Maybelle, are now in San Francisco, where the latter two will do fancy dancing at the exposition. Miss Harlow has the same lithe, slender grace that has been the charm of her grandmother's and aunt's dancing. Those who saw her dance at the Charity ball predicted a future career for her, but little dreamed that professional recognition would come so soon.

Mr. Grady is a University of Washington man. He came here first with a group of Washington boys in a college skit on the Orpheum circuit. Later his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Grady, moved to Portland. Mr. Grady Sr. is connected with the O-W. R. & N. Co., but was formerly United States marshal here.

In compliment to Mrs. K. A. Wykoff of British Columbia, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Jerome O. Hoyt, at the latter's home in Irvington, and Mrs. M. Jobson, who recently returned from a year's stay in Los Angeles, Mrs. Carl G. Liebe entertained at cards last Saturday afternoon at her Irvington home at East Fourteenth and Knott streets. Several tables at 500 were arranged amid a bower of jonquils and pussy willows, the guests including for the most part the intimate friends of the honor guests. Card honors fell to Mrs. Henry Harmon and Mrs. L. M. Davis. A dainty collation was served at 4:30 o'clock. Those present were Mrs. Wykoff, Mrs. Jobson, Mrs. C. M. Cather, Mrs. B. F. Boydon, Mrs. T. J. Seufert, Mrs. L. M. Davis, Mrs. Julia Freeman, Mrs. J. H. Abrey, Mrs. Harley Stevens, Mrs. J. O. Hoyt, Mrs. Henry Harmon, Mrs. Dan J. Maher, Mrs. Luzelle McNicholas, Miss Valeska Liebe of The Dalles, Miss May Breslin, Miss Nona Lawler, Miss Grace Walsh and Miss Mayme Collins.

YOUR FRECKLES

Need Attention in February and March or Face May Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish it to look well the rest of the year. The February and March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles that may stay all summer unless removed. Now is the time to use othine—double strength.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of othine — double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely. (Adv.)

Mr. Arne was formerly the assistant secretary of the Associated Charities, and is at the present time superintendent of the Boys' and Girls' Aid society of this city.

Coming as a complete surprise to her hosts of Portland friends is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Ida A. Hickey, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Hickey, a pioneer Portland family, and Benjamin F. Stingl of San Francisco. Rev. Father Edward O'Hara read the ceremony at the cathedral residence at 7:30 Monday evening, and Miss Nelle Beth Hickey and Mitchell J. Hickey, sister and brother of the bride, were the attendants. Only the immediate family was present, as owing to a bereavement in the family of the bride during the past year, all the arrangements were quite simple. She wore a smart traveling suit of golden brown broadcloth, trimmed in marten, with small spring toque to match. Mrs. Stingl is a woman of charming personality, and it is much regretted that her marriage will eventually take her to San Francisco to live.

The couple left Monday evening for the sound and British Columbia, where they will pass their honeymoon, returning to Portland, where they will be at home to their friends for a short time before going to California.

Mrs. Martha Averill was honor guest at a pretty informal tea Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. Miller, given by the Sisterhood circle of the Central Christian church, of which she is a prominent member, it being the anniversary of her birthday. The rooms were aglow with spring flowers yellow jonquils and pussy willows, and a large crystal vase of white carnations—a gift from the ladies—graced the library table. Mrs. Averill wore a soft blue gown of embroidered silk. Those present were: Mrs. J. C. Proebstel, Mrs. C. H. Chambreau, Mrs. Arthur Miller and little daughters, Elizabeth and Dorothy, Miss Ethel Graves, Mrs. J. D. McGown, Mrs. H. N. Reel, Mrs. H. Wright, Mrs. Leonard Cleek, Mrs. E. T. Hedlund, Mrs. R. V. Jones, Mrs. H. E. Bloyd, Mrs. William Landaner, Mrs. G. O. Miller, Mrs. C. G. Dougherty of San Jose, Cal., Mrs. E. E. Lawrence, Miss Wilson, Mrs. L. Snyder, Miss Caton, Mrs. J. L. Bell, Mrs. L. Miller and Mrs. Averill.

The Laurelhurst club gave a pretty valentine party in their new clubhouse, Friday evening. The clubrooms were daintily decorated with palms and valentine novelties.

A. C. Holmes was in charge of the dancing program and during the evening the guests were treated to an exhibition of the Laurelhurst Hesitation waltz, which was danced by four of Mr. Holmes' pupils. This waltz has been dedicated to the Laurelhurst club by Mr. Holmes.

Mr. Green was in charge of the card tables which were placed on the balcony overlooking the ballroom.

During the evening the punch table was presided over by Mrs. Forbes, assisted by the Misses Green, Forbes, Waller and Lauderdale.

The committee in charge of the party consisted of Allen H. McCurtain, Ben F. Green, Dr. E. T. Parker, J. J. Valentine and Owen Summers.

One of the most successful and delightful fraternity parties of the year was given last Monday evening by the Oregon Alpha chapter of Eta Kappa Phi at the Benson hotel. The party was in the nature of a dinner dance, and covers were laid for 50 members and guests. After the dinner, which was enlivened by talented musicians and singers, the party adjourned to the Tyrolean room for an informal dance. During the intermissions the guests were favored with several solos and duets by Miss Mary Westaway and William Laughton. The patrons and patronesses were Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Holcomb, Mrs. H. C. Kisky, Mrs. J. A. Graef, Mr. and Mrs Edward H. Fitzgibbon and Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Brubaker.

"I BOUGHT THIS COAT JUST FIVE MINUTES AGO AT CHERRY'S"

"It's that store up on Washington street at 389-391. But, of course, you know—you see, I've only been in town about a week, so everything's new to me.

"I didn't go out at all yesterday, because I didn't have a smart Coat. All the girls look so stylish and pretty on the streets that I'd be miserable in my old coat.

"But last night when the paper came I read about CHERRY'S splendid Coats. The trouble was, you see, that I couldn't afford to buy a Coat right now, and I read that CHERRY'S WOULD TRUST ME.

"They did, too! You can't imagine how 'at home' it made me feel to walk into CHERRY'S exquisite store, buy this $20 Coat for only $12.95, and pay just a little of the price down. There are others, some worth $25.00, for $14.95, and a few $30.00 beauties at $19.50.

"Find the place easily? I should say I did. It's so convenient. It is at 389-391 Washington st., in the Pittock block. O, say; I almost forget to tell you of their beautiful spring line that is coming in. Don't fail to look that over, too, when you are there." (Adv.)
