

NEWS OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

(piano). Rev. George Thompson will preside.

The following notice from the Seattle Times is of interest to the many friends of the bride-elect in Portland: "Mr. J. W. Slover, announces the engagement of his sister, Miss Mable Slover, to Mr. John J. Conway of Spokane. The wedding will take place the latter part of March."

Miss Slover is a charming and talented girl. She has a splendid soprano voice and has done considerable concert and church singing of the east. She returned last November from studying in New York.

Mrs. V. M. C. Silva entertained Saturday afternoon at her home in Rose City park in honor of Mrs. W. Frank Whittely of Fairbanks, Alaska, who is spending the winter in Portland. The house was profusely decorated with poinsettias and tulips and hearts and cups predominated in the living and dining rooms. Old fashioned games were played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Aronson and Mrs. Thomas. Those present were Mrs. A. D. Walker, Mrs. D. M. Dunn, Mrs. George Thomas, Mrs. Marion Meacham, Mrs. J. C. Reed, Mrs. R. Aronson, Mrs. J. M. Meacham, Mrs. H. H. Duff, Mrs. A. C. Poole, Mrs. Frank Schlegel and Miss Florence Haine.

Mrs. Silva entertained at a Valentine party Saturday evening. The house was attractively decorated in hearts and Valentine suggestions, the color note being carried out in the delightful buffet supper which was served. Various games were played, the prizes being won by Mrs. Frank Whittely, Mrs. F. Page, Mr. Grossmayer and Mr. Harvey O'Brien. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Grossmayer, Mr. and Mrs. F. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Schlegel, Miss M. Duff, Miss Mary Tyson, Mrs. Frank Whittely, Mrs. Louis DeMer, Jack O'Neill, Harvey O'Brien and Doris E. Keasey.

At the First Presbyterian church parish house Tuesday afternoon the women's association will entertain the members of the church and their friends with their annual colonial tea. Mrs. Frank Riggs, the president of the association, Mrs. Wallace McManis, president of the church and the secretary, and the vice-presidents of the association, Mrs. W. D. Jellison, Miss Mrs. N. A. Evans and Mrs. J. S. Bradley, will assist. Presiding at the tables will be Mrs. P. J. Mann, Mrs. Kate Wendling, Mrs. John Swinton and Mrs. J. S. Bradley. Other serving women will be Mrs. Greta Butterfield and Miss Julia Palmer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Forbes entertained the Laureate Association at their home last Thursday evening. Card honors were received by Mrs. Will C. Davis and L. A. Lawson. All the ladies were delightfully surprised with a lovely corsage bouquet. March 4th and Mrs. L. S. Lawson will entertain the club.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Miss Claire Wilcox, prominent society girl of Portland, Or., who is the house guest of her cousin, Mrs. Joseph D. Gould, of San Francisco, has just returned from a visit to Del Monte with some of the members of the San Francisco smart set. Recently Mrs. Grant entertained in her honor at a table at the residence of the St. Francis. About 30 of the debutante set enjoyed Mrs. Grant's hospitality.

Mrs. I. M. Standifer, with her daughter, Miss Ruth Standifer, and her brothers, Oscar R. Menefee and Lee Bruce Menefee, left last Sunday night for their former home in Texas, having been called south by the serious illness of their mother, Mrs. Virginia Menefee.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Graves, of Lebanon, Ore., are being felicitated on the birth of a Valentine baby daughter, who is to be called Mary Allison. Mrs. Graves will be remembered as Miss Agnes Duffy, of Portland, before her marriage.

Mrs. W. R. Mersereau has moved from her home on Portland Heights and has taken apartments at the Regent apartments, 153 East Morrison street. Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Mersereau will occupy the Portland Heights home.

Mrs. Thomas B. Hart and daughter, Miss Gene, of Lead City, S. D., arrived in Portland for a visit with J. H. Hart and family at 153 East Morrison street. They expect to remain for some time.

Mrs. Frank C. Owens came up from her home in Medford last week, owing to the illness of her mother, Mrs. Fanny Shelby. She is registered at the Benson and will probably remain in the city for several days more.

Mr. and Mrs. Elias Rhine and children of San Francisco have arrived to attend the wedding of Miss Gertrude Lesser and Harry Isadore Mendelson, which takes place March 2.

Among the Portland people who left on the Great Northern last Tuesday, sailing from San Francisco for Honolulu, were Mrs. Poulsen and her daughter, Miss Louise Poulsen.

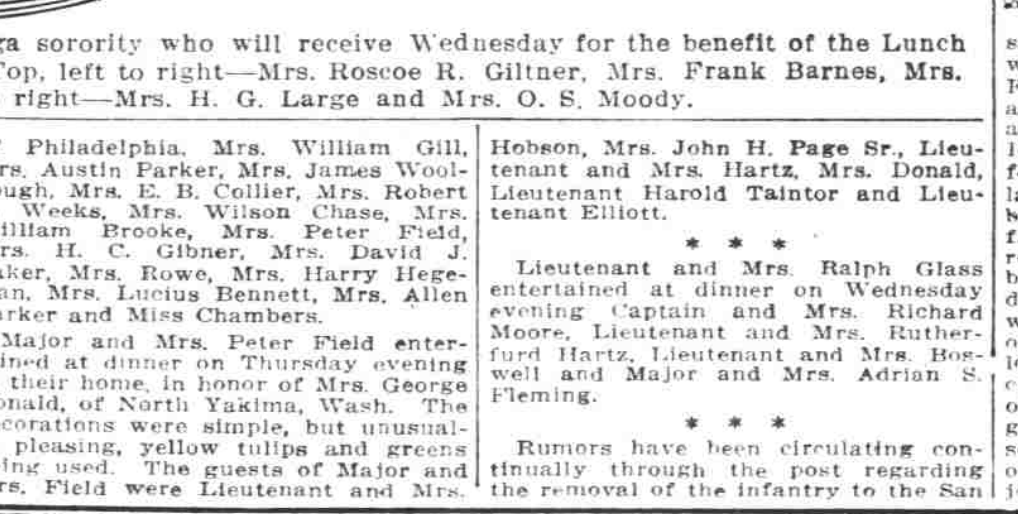

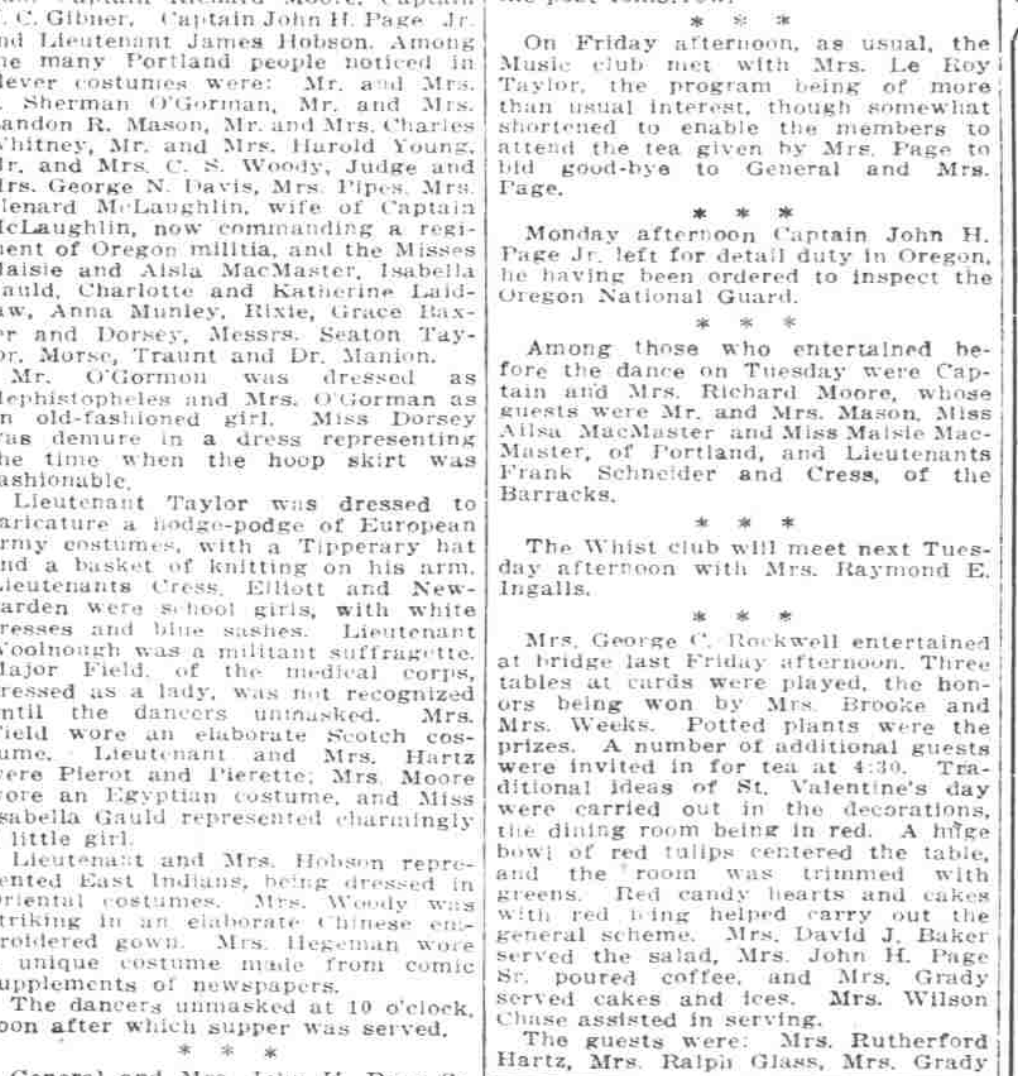

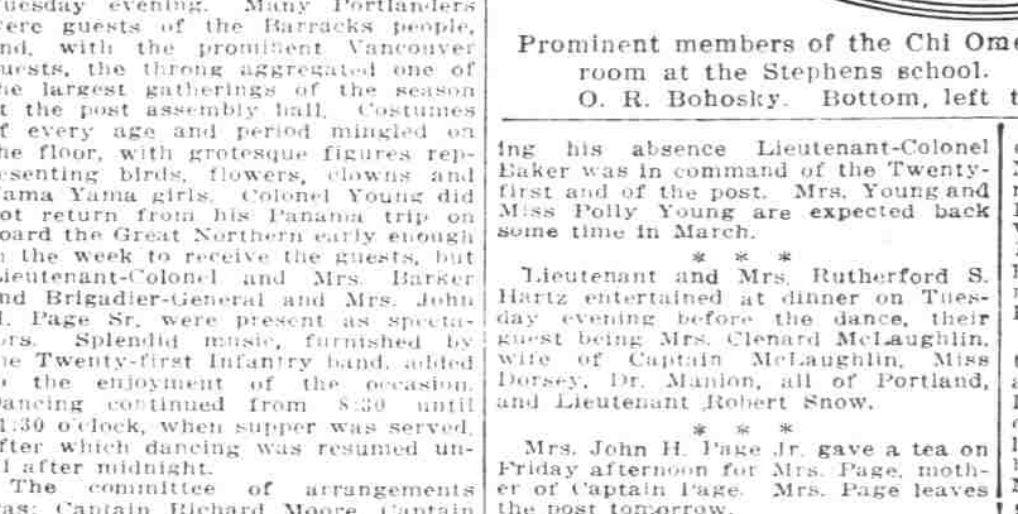

Congratulations are finding their way to the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Shepard (Miss Feltus) on the arrival Thursday of a baby daughter, who has been named Lucy.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kee of Hood River are being felicitated on the arrival of a baby boy, born February 18.

Mrs. T. B. Howe left Wednesday evening for San Francisco where she will visit for an indefinite time.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Harlan was gladdened with the arrival of a baby girl Monday morning.

Mrs. Grace Swirsky of Portland is passing the winter in southern California. Before her return she will visit the San Diego and Panama expositions, also her former home, Chico, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Joyce have returned from a week's visit in Seattle and Spokane.

WEDDINGS

The Dalles, Or., Feb. 18.—Miss Walfred Matney and Frank C. Lewis of this city were united in marriage last evening at the home of the bride's parents, Rev. B. A. Warren of St. Paul's Episcopal church, officiating. The bride is one of the popular young people of the Dalles. She was chosen "queen" of the Fourth of July celebration in this city last year at a popular voting contest. Mr. Lewis has been employed on The Dalles-Celilo canal work.

BARRACKS NEWS

The most elaborate social function of the season at the post was the masquerade ball which took place Tuesday evening. Many Portlanders were guests of the Barracks people, and with the prominent Vancouver guests, the throng aggregated one of the largest gatherings of the season at the post assembly hall. Costumes of every age and period mingled on the floor, with grotesque figures representing birds, flowers, cloaks and Yama Yama girls. Colonel Young did not return from his Panama trip on the steamer until the evening of the ball in the week to receive the guests, but Lieutenant-Colonel and Mrs. Barker and Brigadier-General and Mrs. John H. Page, Sr. were present as spectators. Splendid music, furnished by the Twenty-first Infantry band, added to the enjoyment of the occasion. Dancing continued from 8:30 until 11:30 o'clock, when supper was served, after which dancing was resumed until after midnight.

The committee of arrangements was: Captain Richard Moore, Captain H. C. Gibner, Captain John H. Page Jr. and Lieutenant James Hobson. Among the many people noticed in their clever costumes were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Sherman O'Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Landon R. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Woody, Judge and Mrs. George N. Davis, Mrs. Phips, Mrs. Cleary, Mrs. Lanchlin, wife of Captain McLaughlin, now commanding a regiment of Oregon militia, and the Misses Maisie and Aisla MacMaster, Isabella Gaud, Charlotte and Katherine Laidlaw, Anna Munley, Rixie, Grace Baxter and Dorsey, Messrs. Seaton Taylor, Morse, Traut and Dr. Manion.

Mrs. O'Gorman was dressed as Mephistopheles and Mrs. O'Gorman as an old-fashioned girl. Miss Dorsey was demure in a dress representing the time when the hoop skirt was fashionable.

Lieutenant Taylor was dressed to caricature a lodge-podge of European army costumes, with a Tipperary hat and a basket of knitting on his arm. Lieutenants Cress, Elliott and Newgard were school girls, with white dresses and blue sashes. Lieutenant Woolhough was a militant suffragette. Major Field, of the medical corps, dressed as a lady, was not recognized until the dancers unmasked. Mrs. Field wore an elaborate Scotch costume. Lieutenant and Mrs. Hartz were portrayed as a Chinese couple in an Egyptian costume, and Miss Isabella Gaud represented charmingly a little girl.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Hobson represented East Indians, being dressed in oriental costumes. Mrs. Woody was striking in an elaborate Chinese costume and Mrs. Hegeman wore a unique costume made from comic supplements of newspapers.

The dancers unmasked at 10 o'clock, soon after which supper was served.

General and Mrs. John H. Page Sr. will leave tomorrow to visit their daughter, Mrs. Marshall, at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga. General and Mrs. Page have many friends, who regret their departure, they having been with Captain and Mrs. Page for more than a year. General Page was retired a few years ago with the rank of brigadier-general, having served in the Civil War, the Indian wars, and in the Spanish war, both in Cuba and in the Philippines.

ing his absence Lieutenant-Colonel Baker was in command of the Twenty-first and of the post. Mrs. Young and Miss Polly Young are expected back some time in March.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Rutherford S. Hartz entertained at dinner on Tuesday evening before the dance, their guest being Mrs. Cleland McLaughlin, wife of Captain McLaughlin, Miss Dorsey, Dr. Manion, all of Portland, and Lieutenant Robert Snow.

Mrs. John H. Page Jr. gave a tea on Friday afternoon for Mrs. Page, mother of Captain Page. Mrs. Page leaves the post tomorrow.

On Friday afternoon, as usual, the Music club met with Mrs. Le Roy Taylor, the program being of more than usual interest, though somewhat shortened to enable the members to attend the tea given by Mrs. Page to bid good-bye to General and Mrs. Page.

Monday afternoon Captain John H. Page Jr. left for detail duty in Oregon, he having been ordered to inspect the Oregon National Guard.

Among those who entertained before the dance on Tuesday were Captain and Mrs. Richard Moore, Mrs. Gustave were Mr. and Mrs. Mason, Miss Aisla MacMaster and Mrs. Maisie MacMaster, of Portland, and Lieutenants Frank Schneider and Cress, of the Barracks.

The Whist club will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Raymond E. Ingalls.

Mrs. George C. Rockwell entertained at bridge last Friday afternoon. Three tables at cards were played, the honors being won by Mrs. Brooker and Mrs. Weeks. Potted plants were the prizes. A number of additional guests were invited for tea at 4:30. Traditional ideas of St. Valentine's day were carried out in the decorations, the dining room being in red. A huge bowl of red tulips centered the table, and the room was trimmed with greens. Red candy hearts and cakes with red icing helped carry out the general scheme. Mrs. David J. Baker served the salad, Mrs. John H. Page Sr. poured coffee and Mrs. Grady served cakes and ice. Mrs. Wilson Chase assisted in serving.

The guests were: Mrs. Rutherford Hartz, Mrs. Ralph Glass, Mrs. Grady of Philadelphia, Mrs. William Gill, Mrs. Austin Parker, Mrs. James Woolnough, Mrs. E. B. Collier, Mrs. Robert L. Weeks, Mrs. Wilson Chase, Mrs. William Brooker, Mrs. Peter Field, Mrs. H. C. Gibner, Mrs. David J. Baker, Mrs. Rowe, Mrs. Harry Hereman, Mrs. Lucius Bennett, Mrs. Allen Parker and Miss Chambers.

Major and Mrs. Peter Field entertained at dinner on Thursday evening at their home in honor of Mrs. George Donald, of North Yastima, Wash. The decorations were simple, but unusually pleasing, yellow tulips and greens being used. The guests of Major and Mrs. Field were Lieutenant and Mrs.

Hobson, Mrs. John H. Page Sr., Lieutenant and Mrs. Hartz, Mrs. Donald, Lieutenant Harold Taintor and Lieutenant Elliott.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Ralph Glass entertained at dinner on Wednesday evening. Captain and Mrs. Richard Moore, Lieutenant and Mrs. Rutherford Hartz, Lieutenant and Mrs. Boswell and Major and Mrs. Adrian S. Fleming.

Rumors have been circulating continually through the post regarding the removal of the infantry to the San Francisco expedition for guard duty. The general consensus of opinion seems to be that the move is contingent upon an appropriation being made to cover expenses. While the summer, or perhaps eight or nine months, at the expedition would be pleasant in many ways, the duties would be very arduous. Coming just at this time, too, when the children of the officers are at school, makes a removal very inconvenient, so that opinion as to the desirability of the new duty differs.

If this change is made, Engineer Company F, under command of Captain Moore, will remain to guard the post. Captain Moore then will be post commander.

Captain Robert S. Knox reported at headquarters for duty with the Twenty-first Infantry during the week.

Miss Dorsey, of Portland, was a guest of Mrs. Hartz for several days last week.

Mrs. George Donald, of North Yastima, is the house guest of Major and Mrs. Field.

Mrs. Walter Boswell, wife of Lieutenant Boswell, was hostess at a prettily appointed luncheon on Friday.

EVENTS OF WEEK

The forty-seventh wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Barker was celebrated at their home, 250 East Fifty-third street, Tuesday, February 16. They were married February 16, 1868, in Van Buren county, Iowa, located in Albany, Ore., the following year and moving to Portland in January, 1912. The home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and ferns. They were the recipients of many flowers. A large bowl of red tulips centered the long dining table, where a 12 o'clock dinner was served to 45 friends and members of the Degree of Honor of the city lodges, Mr. and Mrs. Barker being charter members of Greenleaf lodge of Albany, Ore. After dinner the guests all joined in singing old-time songs and the afternoon was a happy one for Mr. and Mrs. Barker, who enjoyed having their friends with them.

Mrs. Carrie Holman, of Salem, was an honor guest. Mr. and Mrs. Gilchrist, the host and hostess were assisted by Mrs. B. J. Barker and Mrs. Sarah Moore. The following ladies were present: Mrs. Mattie Griffith, Mrs. Dora Twigger, Mrs. Millie Pugh, Mrs. Carrie Holman, Mrs. Margaret Hooker, Mrs. Bekka Triter, Mrs. Mary E. Taylor, Mrs. Caroline Koerber, Mrs. Caroline Beck, Mrs. Fidella I. Mann, Mrs. Cynthia Cryder, Mrs. Ray Hol-

Mrs. F. E. Dishrow entertained the members of the U-reka 500 club and friends at her home Saturday evening with a Valentine party. After the game Mrs. J. C. Johnson delighted the party with recitations, after which a buffet luncheon was served. The prizes were won by Mrs. A. C. Thorpe, Mrs. W. A. Gill, Ovide Oota, J. H. Hoon, and consolation prize by Octava B. Taylor. Singing was later enjoyed. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Hiff, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Kroll, Mr. and Mrs. D. L.
