

VINCENT BORLESKE TO SUCCEED HAHN AS WHITMAN'S COACH

Report That Former Football Idol Is to Return Creates Great Surprise.

SOURCE AUTHENTIC ONE

Local Man Has Had Great Success in Coaching Various Sports at Lincoln High School.

Walla Walla, Wash., Feb. 27.—Vincent Borleske, athletic coach of the Lincoln high school, of Portland, Or., and former athletic director of the Broadway high, of Seattle, will succeed Archie Hahn as physical director and athletic coach of the Whitman college, according to reports from authentic sources.

The report from Walla Walla to the effect that Archie Hahn was to be let out as director of athletics of Whitman college and that Vincent Borleske, of the Lincoln high school, was to succeed him, took the local sporting world by surprise.

In securing Borleske, who attended Whitman college in 1908 and 1909, the Missionaries have a capable coach. During the time he has been coach of the Lincoln high school, Borleske has sent out teams that have been contenders for the title in baseball, basketball and football.

Borleske is regarded as one of the greatest ballplayers that ever played in the northwest conference. In 1908 and 1909, he was selected on the All-Northwest teams.
