PATRONESSES for SALVATION ARMY CONCERT

News for publication in the Sunday society pages must be in the Journal office by Friday afternoon.

By Nona Lawler.
A SOCIAL function of distinction, a musical event of more than passing importance, and a philanthropic effort far reaching in its scope are combined in the forthcoming concert which is being arranged for the benefit of the Salvation Army by Mrs. Thomas Garrick Burke, and for which more than 200 of Portland's most prominent women are standing sponsors. The affair, which is announced for the auditorium of the Lincoln high school, March 2, gives promise of being one of the most notable events of the Lenten season, for it is during these gray monastic days that the hearts and minds of the people are easily touched with an appeal to help those less fortunate than themselves, hence the popularity of this big benefit, which bids fair to surpass in musical merit, social distinction and consequent gross receipts all previous efforts on behalf of this well known organization of Christian social workers.

The name of Mrs. Burke is sufficient to insure a program of rare merit. She will be assisted by Mrs. Delphine Marx, Mrs. Jane Burns Albert, Norman House and Dom J. Zan, who will give a part of the beautiful song cycle, "In a Persian Garden." There will be miscellaneous numbers by Mrs. Henry W. Metzger and J. Ross Fargo, vocalists, with Edgar E. Courson at the piano and by Charles Duncan Rolf, cellist.

The reception committee for the concert consists of Mrs. E. Whitney, Mrs. J. F. Gale, Mrs. H. R. Albee, Mrs. Theodore Nicholas, Mrs. H. J. Litt, Mrs. Dr. Ford Warren, Mrs. L. Chaplin, Mrs. E. M. Young, Mrs. James Zan and Mrs. Dom Zan. * * * * * Tuesday evening Miss Nan Russell will entertain informally with a dinner party at the Benson. * * * * * Mrs. A. J. Meier and her daughters-in-law, Mrs. Abe Meier and Mrs. Julius L. Meier, were joint hostesses Wednesday afternoon at one of the largest and most elaborate functions of the week given at the Benson hotel. Guests made up 18 tables at auction in the rose room of the hotel, after which the hostesses received a number of additional guests at an informal tea in the Marie Antoinette suite. Tea was served in the crystal room, where covers for 81 guests were arranged at small tables, each attractively set with favors and flowers. Red carnations and tulips formed an attractive decorative scheme throughout the room. Many beautiful gowns were worn. Pretty prizes at cards were given to the highest score at each table. * * * * * Though quite informal, owing to the Lenten season, a few pretty affairs took place Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Winslow B. Ayer had six tables of bridge at her home in North Nineteenth street, after which a few additional guests called for tea. Presiding at the table, which was decked with lovely spring flowers, were Mrs. John G. Edwards, Mrs. William D. Wheelwright, Mrs. C. E. S. Wood and Mrs. William Washburn of Minneapolis. * * * * * Mrs. William A. MacRae asked a few of her neighbors in for bridge Thursday afternoon. It was quite informal and several additional guests called for tea. * * * * * Coming as a complete surprise to many of their close friends is the announcement of the marriage Wednesday afternoon of Miss Florence Jennings, and Richard Wendel Bell, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jennings, in Irvington, Mr. and Mrs. William Bell of Roseburg, the parents of the bride, are guests of the Jennings family, having come down to be present at the wedding. Rev. Father George Thompson read the ceremony, before a small assemblage of the immediate relatives of the young couple. * * * * * Miss Violet Jennings was her sister's maid of honor, and Guy Farrar attended the bridegroom. All the appointments were quite simple. The bride was attired in a modish traveling suit of blue, and wore a chic green toque hat. Her flowers were a lovely combination of lilies of the valley and orchids. * * * * * Mr. and Mrs. Bell left for a short honeymoon trip, after which they will be at home to their friends in Portland about April 1. * * * * * Mrs. Bell is an exceptionally gifted girl, a talented pianist and accompanist. She studied here with Miss Mayme Helen Flynn and completed her course at the New England Conservatory of Music, and in Paris. She returned in company with her mother and sister from Europe last summer, after two years' absence from the city. She attended school at the Immaculate Heart convent, in Hollywood, Cal., and later at the Oregon Agricultural college. Mr. Bell also attended G. A. C. and their wedding is the termination of a romance begun at college. * * * * * Elaborate plans are being arranged for the formal opening of the new cathedral school hall now being erected at Seventeenth and Couch streets. A big dance and reception is to be given for this occasion April 6, Easter Tuesday evening. A general committee, Mrs. J. T. O'Brien, chairman, Miss Margaret Burke, treasurer, and Mrs. Frank Do-
