"TRYING TO OUTSHINE THE FASHION, EH, TED?"

"Oh, I forgot you hadn't seen me since I started to go in for real 'class', Bill. Talk about a custom tailored chap wearing awfully clothes—I can't see it!"

"I bought this spring suit AT CHERRY'S one day last week—bought it on CREDIT, Bill. When I used to have my clothes made to measure they cost so much I had to wear them threadbare—and a suit would be completely out of style half the time I was wearing it."

"But GETTING READY-TAILORED CLOTHES ON INSTALLMENT TERMS, I can afford to have the newest thing right at the start of the season."

"CHERRY'S SPRING SUITS certainly are stunners. English and box coats with the vests a bit lower and other little changes about the cut of them. The store is a tip-top, big place, with a lot of cheery windows. You know their store is on Washington street, don't you? 329-331 in the Pit-look block."

TRAINING CAMP GOSSIP

Bill Stumpf is one of the cards of the camp. He has a dry philosophy that beats anything.

"Did you see him much?" perstated his inquirer. "Didn't see him at all."

"Then how do you know he was sick all winter?" "Oh, he was sick all summer, so why shouldn't he be sick all winter?" returned the big Dutchman.

"These ballplayers remind me of a lot of Sunday school delegates," said the chief clerk of the Hughes hotel.

Manager McCreddie has started in on Bobby Coltrin the same way he did on Fred Derrick last year.

"I never saw such a well-behaved bunch of fellows. It is rather the exception, I think, for a bunch of red-blooded athletes to be so mild when they are off the athletic field."

McCreddie spent many minutes on him every day trying to hit the ball into right field.
