

BEAVERS WILL PLAY WHITE SOX TEAM IN STOCKTON, MAR. 22

Mackmen Also Have Game Scheduled Next Thursday With Chinese Team.

LINEUP IS ANNOUNCED

Batting Order for Opening Game With Los Angeles Given Out; Coltrin Shows Up Well.

Fresno, Cal., March 12.—Negotiations for a game with the Chicago White Sox first team in Stockton March 22, were closed this morning by Manager Walter McCredie of the Portland Beavers. This makes four games between the two teams, the largest number that will have been played between them. A game with the Chinese team of Honolulu to be played March 15 was also scheduled.

The Beaver boss was much surprised when he was told that Milton Reed, the infielder secured from the Phillies with Murphy as part payment for Dave Bamert, who, by the way, is making the Phillie critics sit up and take notice, had jumped to the Brooklyn Federals. If Bobby Davis continues to show up as he has been during the past couple of days, McCredie will not miss the Phillie recruit.

The lineup and batting order of the Beavers for the first game with the Los Angeles team March 30 was given out by McCredie last night. It is: Coltrin, shortstop; Derrick, first base; Doane, right field; Stumpf, second base; Spess, center field; Lober, left field; Davis, third base; Fisher, catcher; and Higginbotham, pitcher.

The form Bobby Coltrin has been showing in fielding, and batting has caused him to be named as a lead-off batter. Doane has been showing up very well and Stumpf's stick work is practically faultless.

Pitcher Stanley Cojaleskie, accompanied by his wife, joined the team last night. He was over a week late.

The Indianapolis team, which battles against the Mackmen tomorrow and Sunday, will arrive here this afternoon.

HARD GOING PROMISED MILLIONAIRES IN TWO HOCKEY GAMES HERE

All-Stars Show Up Well in Practice and Bid Fair to Take Both Contests.

The Vancouver Millionaires will find the going pretty hard in the two-game series with the Portland-Victoria All-Stars in the Ice Hippodrome March 15 and 17. This statement was made today by Manager Pete Muldon of the Rosebuds, who was confident that the champions would be on the short end of the score each night.

The players showed up exceedingly well in practice yesterday afternoon and with work-outs this afternoon and tomorrow afternoon should be in tip top shape for the battles with Frank Patrick's aggregation. It is not quite definitely decided whether Tommy Dunderdale, the Victoria center, will be in the All-Stars' line-up. Dunderdale is anxious to return to his home in Winnipeg and for that reason he may not play.

Lester Patrick, the brainy leader of the Victoria septet, will arrive in Portland tomorrow morning in order to set in one day of practice with the Rosebuds.

The line-up of the All-Stars has not been selected, Muldon being undecided which players he will start in the game. Tobin has been showing great form on the forward line in the practice games and Ran McDonald has also been showing up well.

The Portland players were much surprised yesterday when they heard that the Wanderers were shut out by the Ottawa in the first game of the series to decide the N. H. A. championship. If Ottawa wins the title, the chances of the world's hockey title coming to the Coast League are very bright. The Millionaires, in the opinion of the local puck chasers, have a better chance against the Ottawa sextet than they would have against the Wanderers.

Arrangements are being made to have the bleacher seats set up at the west end of the rink in order to accommodate the crowd.

of his winter in the eastern Oregon county, McCredie looks for Evans to be one of the leading pitchers of the league if he keeps up the good work. Rube, among his other accomplishments, is the champion wrestler of the camp, and is among the light heavyweights.

BEAVER CAMP NOTES

Fresno, Cal., March 12.—George Kircher says that he had a talk with Milton Reed just before he started west. Reed called around at the hoteling alley that Kircher ran during the winter and wanted to know if he could be suspended if he did not return his contract by March 1. Kircher told Reed he did not think so, and that was the end of their conversation. George tried to locate Reed later to find out if he was coming to the coast, but was unable to do so.

Elmer Rieger is suffering from a sore arm and is out of the line-up. Complaint than any of the other pitchers in this respect. Martinoni's arm is also too sore to pitch to batters, but it is believed the pain will work out once he begins to working regularly. Rieger is a great spring pitcher and McCredie hopes he will be in shape to open the season. Tiny Leonard is also a sore-arm victim.

There are three pitchers who are in shape right now: The steady Higginbotham, Rube Evans and Harry Krause. These will doubtless go more than three innings against Indianapolis and the White Sox.

Joanny Lush is taking his time about getting into shape. Lush is a good consistent and says that he has never before failed to be in shape by the opening bell.

Bishop and Callahan are also ready to go slowly. Callahan looks pretty good and so does Bishop. The big collegian appears to be a speed pitcher and ought to be a good fielder. Barnes is showing nicely and McCredie will give him plenty of chance to make good. He is the greenest twirler of the lot. There is not much chance for Wilhingham to make good in this company.

Elmer Martinoni is the kingpin of the forensic league. It is said of Marty that he never lost an argument; that is, so long as his opponent had breath enough left to keep on talking.

Rube Evans ought to be a vastly improved pitcher this year. The big outpawp is one of the first to bed and the earliest to rise, an heirloom

THE GENTLE GAME OF HOCKEY ON ICE TAKEN UP BY WOMEN

The curved sticks have proved so fascinating to the fair sex who have taken up skating that regular games are now played between teams of women at the rink. The picture shows Mrs. Constance Meyer and Mrs. J. G. Seed in a friendly scuffle for the puck.

Pitcher Ed Walsh to Be a Coast Leaguer

Los Angeles, March 12.—That Pitcher Ed Walsh and Joe Benz would be left on the coast when the Chicago White Sox leave for the east was the statement today of Manager Clarence Rowland.

"Walsh has not been showing to the best advantage," said Rowland, "but he may improve. If he does not, there is a strong chance that we may leave him and Benz permanently on the coast."

Rowland did not state what Pacific Coast league club would get Walsh and Benz.

Jess Starts for Havana.

CHAMPION WELSH OF ENGLAND OUTFOUGHT BY RITCHIE, EX-CHAMP

Former Title Holder Says He Could Have Finished Opponent in 12 Rounds.

New York, March 12.—Freddie Welsh of England retains his title as world's lightweight champion today, but this fact is largely due to his ability to hold and run.

Wille Ritchie of San Francisco, the former titleholder, whipped Welsh as badly in a 10 round bout in Madison Square Garden here last night that even the champion had nothing to say in his own defense. Welsh was carried off his feet by the San Franciscoan's rushes and the champion was not on the offensive once during the 30 minutes of fighting. The crowd hissed and booed Welsh, but he flatly refused to mix, thereby plainly showing his respect for Ritchie's famous right cross.

Welsh never worked harder in his life to avoid punishment than he did last night. Ritchie was in prime condition, and he put up a wonderful exhibition, considering the fact that this was his first start in a year. His judgment of distance was not what it should have been, but it was the consensus of opinion that had Ritchie gone into the ring with a few fights under his belt he would have knocked out the champion.

Ritchie continued the same rushing tactics through the 10 rounds, and the champion was never able to gain the slightest advantage.

"My only regret," said Ritchie today, "is that I was not for 12 rounds instead of 10. Welsh was tiring rapidly and I am confident I could have finished him in two more rounds. I guess the public will realize now that I was robbed of my title when I fought Welsh in London."

Both made the stipulated weight, 135 pounds, apparently with ease. The betting was 7 to 5 in favor of Welsh.

Oaks Lose to White Sox.

Oakland, Cal., March 12.—Oakland fans were still talking today of the great game staged here yesterday by the Chicago White Sox No. 2 team and the Oakland club. It was the best played contest witnessed in Oakland this season, and though the Sox won 1 to 0, the Oaks outbatted and outplayed the big leaguers.

"A new Suit tomorrow? Well, that's a fine suggestion for you to make when you know I can't possibly spare the money till the 20th of March! Of course, it's that dinner party tomorrow night that's bothering you, but I warned you when you planned it, Elaine, that I'd be a shabby host this time."

"BUY IT ON CREDIT? AT CHERRY'S, was that the place you said? Why, that's a swell store, Elaine. No, I've never been there, but I noticed the name in Smith's overcoat—and he's the finest dresser I know. So that's where you bought that pretty Spring suit? Thanks for the tip, Elaine—I'll call at CHERRY'S tomorrow."

"No, no, you needn't tell me CHERRY'S address. I pass that store every day—Cherry's is at 289-491 Wash. st. in the Pittock block."
