

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, MARCH 21, 1915.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY

Miss Beth Ludlam, who is visiting friends in Seattle.

News for publication in the Sunday society pages must be in the Journal office by Friday afternoon.

By Nona Lawler.
PROBABLY the most interesting event to society in connection with the San Francisco exposition was the opening of the polo tournament Tuesday afternoon. Columns were devoted Wednesday in the San Francisco papers to descriptions of the game and the smart attire of the society women of prominence in attendance from every city of the country who occupied their boxes, entertaining groups of friends.

"YOU WANT YOUR SPRING SUIT"
You Haven't the Money, but Cherry's Will Trust You.

"To my mind, Virginia, that's all there is to it. A woman either has the money to buy a suit when she needs it, or else she hasn't. With me it doesn't matter, for I BUY MY CLOTHES ON CHERRY'S INSTALLMENT TERMS. You try it, Virginia! Haven't you noticed the girls coming forth, one by one, in their spring suits? I thought I wanted one like Ida's, with a straight little box jacket, till I saw Mary's, with a coat cut-in that charming ripple effect. Even when I saw them all at CHERRY'S it was pretty hard to decide at first. "And no wonder! Of course, all the new shades are there, and all the sizes, and every new idea and classy feature. CHERRY'S SPRING COATS are as fascinating as their suits. Go to see them tomorrow sure and you will find just what you want. Their place is at 282 1/2 Washington street, in the Pittock block."

was in attendance. Miss MacKenzie has been the guest of Miss Harriet Homeroo, a frequent visitor here with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Scott Brooke. She is now visiting at the home of Miss Beatrice Nickel and plans to remain about 10 days longer.

Preparations for the ball and card party planned for Easter Tuesday night as an opening event at the new Cathedral hall in the parochial school building at Seventeenth and Couch streets, is occupying the time of many women of the Cathedral parish. Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, chairman of the general committee, Miss Margaret Burke and Mrs. Frank Dooly announce the following additional committees which are assisting to make the event a notable success. Mrs. Joseph D. Leonard will be in charge of the punch table, assisted by Mrs. Andrew C. Smith, Mrs. John Kavanaugh, Mrs. Dan J. Maloney, Mrs. C. F. Whitney, Mrs. William H. Bradthorn, Mrs. William Miller, Miss Inez Barrett and Miss Edith McGinn.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph N. Teal entertained Friday evening with a most enjoyable musical at their home in St. Clair street. Mrs. Thomas Carrick Burke, pianist, gave the program and J. Ross Fargo assisted her, singing a group of songs. About 40 guests were present. The rooms were decked with the gay yellow and red tulips. A buffet supper was served after the music. Mrs. Walter V. Smith, Mrs. C. H. Martin, Mrs. Charles F. Swiger and Miss May Failing presided at the table.

for the pleasure of Mrs. Edward Dovey of Seattle, the guest of Mrs. Charles F. Adams, a frequent visitor here with her sister, Mrs. Martin of Omaha mother and sister of Mrs. Otis Wright, with whom they are visiting. The appointments of the dinner Wednesday evening were most attractive and clusters of spring blossoms adorned the table, at which 22 guests were seated.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Adams was a hostess at an informal tea Wednesday afternoon for the pleasure of her house guest, Mrs. Edward Dovey of Seattle. Spring blossoms formed the attractive decorations at the table at which Mrs. George F. Russell, Mrs. Joseph N. Teal and Mrs. Oscar Menzies presided. Monday afternoon Miss Failing also entertained for Mrs. Dovey at a small tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Carey and Miss Evelyn Carey returned home Monday after a delightful six weeks sojourn in California and the Hawaiian Islands. They passed some time at the San Diego and San Francisco fairs, visited in Santa Barbara and Honolulu. Miss Carey was delightfully entertained in San Francisco by Miss Beatrice Nickel and Miss Ruth Zelle, both of whom have been her guests in Portland, and Miss Mary Louise Black, enjoying a round of entertainment.

with Mrs. John C. Ainsworth. Mrs. Weeks is the wife of Captain George Weeks and has many friends in Portland, as she formerly lived in Vancouver post. Monday Mrs. Ainsworth gave an informal luncheon in her honor and Friday afternoon she was the guest of Mrs. William D. Wheelwright at luncheon.

Mrs. Elizabeth Tongue Freeman and Frank Edward Fey were united in marriage Tuesday at a simple home ceremony at the residence of the bride's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gay Lombard. The Rev. Luther R. Dyott read the wedding service in the presence of the family. There were no attendants to the bride and bridegroom. The bride was attired in a chic traveling suit of blue and white, with tailored hat, and she wore a corsage bouquet of lavender orchids. The decorations about the rooms were a beautiful combination of Killarney roses and Easter lilies.

Plans are progressing for the lecture by Mary Antin at the White Temple Wednesday evening, March 24, which is under the patronage of the Council of Jewish Women. "They Who Knock at Our Gates" will be the subject on which she will talk, giving an illuminating discourse of the immigration problem. Much interest is being taken in this event by society people. Among those who have planned the party for the evening are Mrs. Joseph N. Teal, Mrs. Edmond L. Dewveraux and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot.

Much entertainment was given the early part of last week attendant upon the visit in the city of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Furlow of New York. Mrs. Furlow is a sister of Foyler Johnson and Mrs. Johnson gave a smart tea Monday in compliment to Mrs. Furlow. Gay clusters of jonquils and tulips decked the rooms and centered the table, at which Mrs. Harold M. Sawyer and Mrs. Preston Smith presided, with Miss Genevieve Thompson and Miss Genevieve Church, assisting in serving were Miss Hildreth Humason and Miss Dorothy Dolph.

Monday evening Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Kellie gave a dinner honoring Mr. and Mrs. Furlow at a crystal ball of pink tulips centered the board, at which were seated: Mr. and Mrs. Furlow, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Gerlinger, Mrs. Genevieve Thompson, Ernest Howard and the host and hostess. Mrs. Johnson entertained at a luncheon at the Furlow country club Tuesday for Mr. Furlow and Tuesday evening she and Mr. Furlow were honor guests at a dinner party at "Rockholm," the estate home of Dr. and Mrs. Alpha E. Rockey.

Mr. and Mrs. Benji Mitsui, of Tokio, Japan, here taken up their residence at the Maltry.

Colonel and Mrs. W. F. Tucker, of the upper Hood river valley, who are passing several months in the city at the Hotel Maltry were hosts at dinner Wednesday evening prior to the hotel dance. Their guests were Dr. Manion and Dr. and Mrs. Hubert F. Parsons.

A most enjoyable dinner dance was given by Alpha Xi chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta Saturday, March 13, at the Hotel Osburn. The dining room was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of yellow daffodils, carrying out the fraternity colors, black and gold.

The patron and patronesses were: President and Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Miss Mary Perkins, Mrs. George Gerlinger of Dallas, and Mrs. Charlotte Steffa. The invitations list included the Misses: Leola Corbin, Jeanette Wiggins, Vera Barker, Esther McCulloch, Ruth Walters, Helen Manning, Josephine Bracons, Naomi Marcellus and Alice Corvill, of Portland; Emma Toozie, Don Newbury, Fred Kiddie, Keith Powell, of Salem; Ed Simmons, Dean Walker, Frank Wray, Ernest McCowan, Charles Dunbar, Jay Lewis, John Albert, Bob McMurtry, Bert Jerard, Alex Bowen, Dave Hawkins, Howard Hall, Carson Bigbee, Pete Sexton, Jack Montague, Jimmie Ayers, of Portland; Walter Church, Charles Tidale, Leslie Toozie, Bill Snyder, Cord Sengstake, Merlin Batley, Harold Triggus, Tom Boylen, Bill Schwan, Harold Fitzgibbon, Maurice Hill, Honor Egan, Bob Fitzmaurice, Clark Eurgard, Tom Campbell, George Schaefer, of Portland; Lyle Bigbee, Hollis Hentington, Delbert Starard, Angus Cornell, Guy Carlson, Bert Roche, Mella Williams, Charles Hadden, Bill Holden, Edgar Keithley, Bryant DeBar, Blair Hokomb.

Kappa Alpha Theta's chapter at the university numbers many well known Portland and Eugene girls among its members. The active members are: Grace Bingham, Alice Bingham, Katharine Walsh, Ruth Roche, Mella Williams, Marjory Williams, Mary Chambers, Cleome Carroll, Margaret Hawkins, Myrtle Smith, Virginia Peterson, Louise Manning, Julia Platt, Genevieve Shaver, Marjorie McGuire, Charlie Fenlon, Ruth Fraley, Alice Gram, Maude Newbury, Madge Barry, Frances Heath, Mabel Smith, Kate Schaefer, Beulah Hayes, Bernice Lucas, Helen Jones Hamilton, Louise Adams, Gertrude Taylor, Hazel Rader, Emma Keithley, Ruth Rothrock and Helene DeLano.

shower. The tea table was especially attractive with its center of pink sweet peas.

Mrs. Charles F. Berg and her little daughter, Caroline, will make their departure next Saturday for Evanston, Ill., where they will pass several months with Mrs. Berg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rosenberg. They plan to return home via San Francisco, where Mr. Berg will join his wife for a month's sight-seeing at the exposition.

Wednesday evening, at the Hippodrome, the Portland Rosebuds' game with Vancouver called forth the devotees of ice hockey. Monday night the same teams played, and a large representative gathering witnessed the game. Among those who entertained parties Wednesday were: Madge and Mrs. H. E. Wood, Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Murphy, Robert McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. T. McHugh, Miss Bessie Davis, F. F. Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Brandt Wickersham, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Neppach, Miss Ruth Teal, Miss Mae Hirsch, Henry G. Beckwith, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Walker, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Savage, of New Westminster, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Cook, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Metzger, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Froehlich, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. F. G. Rundtlett, Lieutenant Schneider, of Vancouver Barracks; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Grace and Mrs. J. George Keller.

Mr. and Mrs. Barge E. Leonard are receiving messages of congratulation on the arrival last Sunday of a baby daughter, who has been named Marjoe Leonard. Mrs. Leonard was Miss Madge Seyster of Oregon, Ill., before her marriage.

A social affair of especial interest in college circles of the University of Oregon, at Eugene, is the formal dancing party which is to be given by the girls of the Delta Delta Delta fraternity at the Hotel Osburn, on the evening of March 27. Among the guests who will be present are popular members of the younger society set, both of Portland and Salem. Plans for the party are being kept secret but it promises to be an elaborate and most delightful affair.

Mrs. Joseph E. Greer will leave Sunday night for Walla Walla to visit Mrs. Harriet Bush Greer. She is going to Walla Walla for the wedding of Douglas Greer and Miss Bernice Crawford, which will be an event of the early part of April, and will call a number of prominent Portlanders to that place.

Much interest attended the opening of the exchange of complimentary tickets at the Hellig Friday morning for Mrs. Rose Courson-Reed's student recital to take place Monday night. The soloists will be: Miss Christine Denholm, Mrs. Rose Friedle-Glanell, Raymond Graham (Astoria), Mrs. Margaret Gray (Vancouver), Mrs. Sanderson Reed, Mrs. A. L. Richardson (La Grande), Miss Maude C. Ross (Astoria), Miss Madeline Stone and Oscar Woodfin (Oregon City), with Edgar L. Courson at the piano.

Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ralph H. Mitchell entertained a number of their friends with a St. Patrick's day party at the Irvington Park club. Festoons of cedar with clusters of daffodils and St. Patrick's day favors combined in an effective decorative scheme. Dancing was enjoyed, after which supper was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Farrington returned Tuesday on the steamer Great Northern from an extended trip to San Francisco and southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lamond made their departure the latter part of last week.
