

NEWS OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

week for New York by way of San Francisco and the fair. Mr. Lamond, who has been 27 years here with Lipman, Wolfe & Co., has been appointed manager of their New York business and Mr. and Mrs. Lamond will make their home in that city.

Mrs. Lamond has taken a prominent part in social and club activities here, and will be missed by a host of friends. She was chairman of the social committee of the Women's club last year and was also prominently identified with committee work in the Monday Musical club.

A shamrock dancing party under the direction of Professor Montrose M. Ringler at Hotel Mallory Wednesday evening for guests and their friends was an evening long to be remembered.

Mrs. G. W. Harris was the hostess at a 500 party given at her apartments in the Columbian Wednesday. The rooms were beautifully decorated with shamrocks and jonquills. A delicious luncheon was served. The guests were Mrs. William Handell, Mrs. G. E. Dutton, Mrs. C. L. Claussen, Mrs. L. E. West, Mrs. M. Anderson, Mrs. E. J. Jorgensen, Mrs. T. M. Allen, Mrs. O. Fellison, Mrs. E. Beck, Mrs. Ida Johnson, Mrs. William Ash and Miss Upden. The prizes were won by Mrs. Jorgensen, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Claussen.

Mrs. James B. Welch entertained at her country home at luncheon last Saturday. Mrs. Clarke Nelson and Mrs. Fred Earl of Pendleton and Mrs. Seth Catlin of Portland.

The women's auxiliary to the German Red Cross society is completing plans for their benefit card party which will be an event of March 25 at the Deutsches Haus. Bridge, 500 and what will be played with handsome prizes offered, and an informal dance will follow. All who are interested in the splendid work of helping to raise funds for relief of the wounded and suffering soldiers in the fatherland are invited to attend.

The Rose City Dancing club closed its series of parties Thursday evening at Christmen ball, giving a unique St. Patrick's party. This club is one of the oldest dancing organizations in the city. For the past five years it has given a series of 12 dances each season at Christmen's hall. Especial decorations and general arrangements combined to make Thursday evening's dance a fitting close to this year's series. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Steel, Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Chatten, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wood, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Ball, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Coford, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Catlan, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Vogin, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Elrod, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. McPherson, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Lullmege, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gaddis, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Hayek, Miss Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Blasing, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dully, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stringer, R. F. Johnstone, Miss Johnstone, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Skiff, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Crispin, Albert L. Stone, Miss Stone, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Groh, A. L. Stone, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Runyon, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Colser, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dick, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Leiby, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Bryne, Miss Bagley, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Shearer, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Hyatt, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Dresback, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Heppburn, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ingham, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pierce, Otto J. Reafer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Dick.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. C. H. Smith of Mount Tabor gave an elaborate musical tea complimentary to her mother and sister, Mrs. Jane Morrison and Mrs. Charles Woodbury Hudson, who are her guests from Honolulu. Miss Eva Johnson and Miss Sigie Lack were the soloists, which was unusually artistic. Mrs. A. F. Watson was accompanist to Miss Johnson. Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. J. A. Applewhite, Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mrs. C. E. Stolte and Mrs. H. S. Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grabs of 368 Victoria street, celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary last Sunday evening at Linnea hall with about 150 intimate friends as their guests. An elaborate supper was served and an entertaining program of vocal and instrumental music and brief talks by a number of the guests who had known the couple for many years were special features. The guests presented the host and hostess with a beautiful set of flat table silver, the presentation being made by C. W. Swenson.

Mrs. T. H. Edwards returned home Thursday after a delightful visit of three weeks' duration in Seattle, where she was the house guest of Mrs. E. L. Webster. Mrs. Edwards is prominently identified with the work of the P. E. O. societies and enjoys a number of social affairs in Seattle with members of the society at that place.

The B'nai B'rith hall was the scene of a dance and card party given by Portland lodge No. 415, Independent Order of B'nai B'rith, on last Tuesday evening, March 16. Members of the lodge and invited guests shared in the pleasure of the evening and all declared it a most enjoyable affair.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. D. Germaine, Mrs. Julius Kraemer, Mr. and Mrs. M. Barus, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Politz, Mr. and Mrs. E. Kraemer, Mrs. L. Coblenz, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Moore, Mrs. S. Rich, Mr. and Mrs. Goldenberg, the Misses Madeline Stone, Edna Hineswanger, Amy Brunn, Ethel Cohn, Freda Baruh, Helen Coblenz, Elsa Goldsmith, Gae Goldsmith, Daisy Dobner, Rita Frazer, Miss Jacobs and Miss-Moyses, Milton Friedenreich, Julian Coblenz, Albert L. Stone, Dr. M. M. Ertman, Otto Kraemer, Henry Feldman, Dr. Edward Hirstle, Alfred Hexter, Dr. Adalbert G. Bettman, Roy Feldeneimer, Nathan Simon, Edwin Neustader, Milton Friendly, James Rothchild, Eugene Rich, Adolph Unna and Ben Lerner.

Mrs. Joseph D. Leonard, who will assist at the Cathedral ball Easter Tuesday evening.

SOCIETY PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Christman arrived in the city from the east and are visiting at the home of Mrs. M. Boltana, 422 East Forty-fourth street. Mrs. Christman was formerly Miss Theresa Boltana, leaving here four years ago for Portsmouth, N. H., where she was married to Mr. Christman of the United States navy. They will leave the latter part of March for the Bremerton, Wash., navy yard where Mr. Christman will be stationed for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Johnson, mayor and president of the First National bank of Dickenson, N. D., who have been the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Cota, 871 Haight avenue, left Saturday morning for South America and expect to return home by the way of Havana and New York city. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were guests of honor at many social gatherings while in the city.

Miss Jessie L. Baylis and Miss Jennie McDevitt of Spokane are in Portland visiting with Miss McDevitt's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. R. Emmett Fry, at King street, near Washington. Miss Baylis and Miss McDevitt are en route home after passing several weeks in California and the Hawaiian islands. They returned from the latter place on board the Great Northern.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marsh of Pittsburg were guests in the city last week, visiting at the home of Mrs. F. W. Berry. Mr. Marsh is a prominent business man of Pittsburg, being president of the Standard Underground Cable company of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh are en route home by way of the sound and Canada after visiting in California at the expositions.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson of La Grande, Ore., are guests at the Campbell hotel for a few days. Mrs. Richardson will be among the singers to appear in Mrs. Ross Coarsen Reed's complimentary recital at the Hellig, tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst left on the steamship Great Northern for a month's visit at San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Miss Mildred Buckley, who is enjoying a delightful visit with her many friends at the University of Oregon, will return to Portland on Monday and after continuing her visit with her grandmother, Mrs. N. E. DeSpain, and other relatives and friends, will return to her home in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn have returned from an extended trip to Arizona and southern California where they have spent two months.

While in Arizona they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. B. von Kleinsmid at the State university.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gollebur and daughter Rhoda have returned from Roseburg, to remain permanently in Portland. They are now domiciled for the summer at Firmont, Humphrey boulevard, after having visited Mrs. Gollebur's sister, Mrs. E. G. Jubitz.

Mrs. John Peters, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Richard Carter Wariner, left Saturday night for San Diego, where they will visit friends for a month and, returning to San Francisco, they will pass a month there visiting the exposition.

Mrs. Thomas Brittain Foster has as her house guest her sister and brother-

R. Emmett Fry, at King street, near Washington. Miss Baylis and Miss McDevitt are en route home after passing several weeks in California and the Hawaiian islands. They returned from the latter place on board the Great Northern.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Marsh of Pittsburg were guests in the city last week, visiting at the home of Mrs. F. W. Berry. Mr. Marsh is a prominent business man of Pittsburg, being president of the Standard Underground Cable company of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Marsh are en route home by way of the sound and Canada after visiting in California at the expositions.

Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson of La Grande, Ore., are guests at the Campbell hotel for a few days. Mrs. Richardson will be among the singers to appear in Mrs. Ross Coarsen Reed's complimentary recital at the Hellig, tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hayhurst left on the steamship Great Northern for a month's visit at San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Miss Mildred Buckley, who is enjoying a delightful visit with her many friends at the University of Oregon, will return to Portland on Monday and after continuing her visit with her grandmother, Mrs. N. E. DeSpain, and other relatives and friends, will return to her home in Pendleton.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Linn have returned from an extended trip to Arizona and southern California where they have spent two months.

While in Arizona they were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. R. B. von Kleinsmid at the State university.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gollebur and daughter Rhoda have returned from Roseburg, to remain permanently in Portland. They are now domiciled for the summer at Firmont, Humphrey boulevard, after having visited Mrs. Gollebur's sister, Mrs. E. G. Jubitz.

Mrs. John Peters, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Richard Carter Wariner, left Saturday night for San Diego, where they will visit friends for a month and, returning to San Francisco, they will pass a month there visiting the exposition.

Mrs. Thomas Brittain Foster has as her house guest her sister and brother-

In-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hanan, of Roseburg. They plan to pass several weeks in the city dividing their time between Mrs. Foster and Mrs. John A. Jamison, also a sister of Mrs. Hanan.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Harper, 210 East Thirty-fifth street, are congratulating them on the arrival of a daughter on March 16. She has been named Marion Louise.

Mr. and Mrs. John Harvey Noyes have returned home from their wedding trip and will be at home to their friends after April 1 at their home, 717 East Burnside street.

Mrs. O. H. Fithian returned home Friday night from California, where she has been visiting for the past month, viewing the expositions at San Diego and San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Stephenson, whose marriage was a recent event at Oakland, have returned home from their wedding trip and are domiciled at the Hotel Mallory.

Mrs. Faye McDonell returned last Tuesday on the steamer Great Northern from San Francisco, where she has been visiting for the last four months.

Mrs. M. F. Lawrence, a well known resident of this city, departed on the steamer Rose City last Friday for a two months' visit at San Francisco and the exposition.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Friedrich (Katherine Covach), of 540 Division street, are being congratulated on the arrival yesterday afternoon of a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Duncan, of 307 East Forty-second street, are being felicitated on the arrival, March 6, of a baby boy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carter (Gertrude Craven) are being felicitated on the arrival March 11 of a baby boy, Charles H. Carter Jr.

Mrs. Sarah Barde Field is domiciled at the Multnomah hotel, having returned recently from an extended visit in San Francisco.

Mrs. Gustave Abendroth of Irvington has returned home after passing several weeks in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Mrs. J. H. Joyce is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. M. Rhodes of Bay City, Or.

Miss Mary McArthur is home from a four weeks' visit with friends near Salem.

WEDDINGS

A very pretty home wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar Gibson, 944 East Main street, Thursday afternoon, March 18, when Mr. Gibson's sister, Miss Mildred M. Gibson, was united in marriage to William D. Walker, by the Rev. J. J. Staub, D. D., of the Sunnyside Congregational church. The rooms were most artistically decorated in festoons of smilax and pink roses. The bridal party entered to the strains of the bridal hymn from "Lohengrin" played by Miss Eva Ellis. Little Agnes W. Gowans, leading the procession as flower girl, was attractively gowned in white lace over pink messaline, carrying a basket of Bridesmaid roses and ferns. Her bracelet was the gift of the groom. Miss Ellis wore a corp colored messaline with all-over lace. Miss Ada M. Cole was bridesmaid. She wore a handsome gown of flowered chiffon over blue charmeuse and carried an arm bouquet of Bridesmaid roses. A beautiful gold bracelet was the groom's gift to her. William Wright acted as best man. Entering on the arm of her brother, the bride was charming in a white charmeuse gown trimmed in old lace; the long veil was caught up with orange blossoms; she carried an arm bouquet of Bridesmaid roses. A handsome gold chain was the gift of her mother. The ceremony, including the impressive ring service, was witnessed by the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. F. Gibson, Master Stewart Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Duncan, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Gowans, Agnes W. Gowans, Mrs. C. Stewart, Miss Ada M. Cole, Miss Eva Ellis and W. Wright. After an elaborate luncheon, the bridal couple left on an early evening train for an extended wedding tour. A happy incident occurred immediately after the service in the arrival of a telegram of congratulations direct from Sterling, Scotland. Mr. Walker is a prominent contractor of Portland and Gearhardt.

The following notice taken from the San Francisco Examiner of March 14 is of interest to many Portland people as the bridegroom was for several years a Portland resident and is a member of the Multnomah and other clubs of this city: "At a quiet 5 o'clock home ceremony last Sunday, Miss Ethel Skoesh of Minot, North Dakota, became the bride of J. K. Mahoney, of Minneapolis. The marriage culminated a pretty romance which began in the east and, according to original plans was to have been concluded by an elaborate church wedding in June at the eastern home of the bride. However, when Mr. Mahoney, who is auditor for a large eastern concern, found that business would require his presence in California for some months, his present bride found it desirable to come to Oakland as a guest at the Walsworth avenue home of Mrs. A. S. Anderson, at the same time enjoying the exposition during her stay. Upon her arrival a wedding was decided upon the next day, and details were quickly arranged. The Anderson home was elaborately decorated with spring blossoms and foliage. The dining room was done in pink, and the bride's table, at which were seated 15 guests, was adorned with pink roses, orchids and lilies of the valley. Rev. Albert W. Palmer officiated. Mrs. Anderson was matron of honor, and Hilmer M. Myhra, a business associate of the bridegroom, was best man. The bride wore a smart tailored suit of gray and carried orchids and Brides roses. Mrs. Anderson wore a spring gown of white cloth,

Mrs. Hubert F. Parsons, who is one of the patronesses for the Cathedral parish ball.

The couple are passing their honeymoon in the north and on their return will visit the exposition for a month or so before returning east.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Tuesday, March 16, at the First German Baptist church, when Miss Pauline Weiss, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weiss of 824 Corbett street, was given in marriage by her father to Eugene Wetzel.

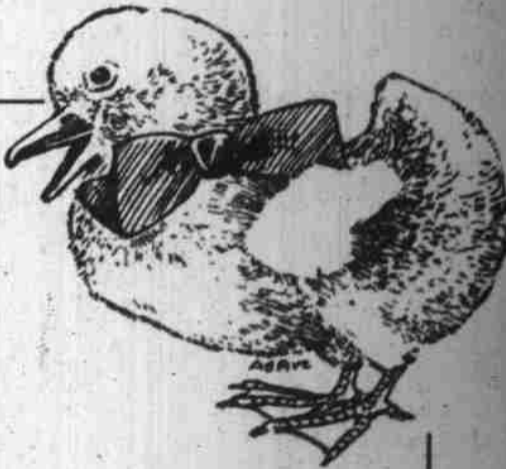

The bride was attired in a creation of old ivory meteor and rare Chantilly lace. She carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley and Brides roses. She wore a handsome diamond, pearl and sapphire necklace, the gift of the groom.

Miss Martha Weiss, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She was gowned in white crepe de chine and all-over lace. She carried a bouquet of Brides roses. The Misses Lydia Frey and Ruth Webster were bridesmaids. Little Lorna Hunt and Ruth Weiss were flower girls. Miss Emma

(Continued on Following Page.)

Stunning Suits for Easter--

We all feel as if we simply MUST have new Clothes for Easter—but where to get them is the perplexing problem. Here you will find a wonderful collection of Spring's choicest Suits, ranging in price from $17.50 to $50.00. Smart models in sand shades, black and white checks, and plain colors; best styles, best quality, best workmanship and finish. Won't you drop in and let us show you?

Don't Wait for the Last Rush to purchase your Easter hat. Our hats are the prettiest in the city—and a complete and comprehensive assortment awaits your selection.

All Millinery Moderately Priced

Spring Coats Original and "Different" Models $10 up

Sheer Pretty Waists for your new suit. Dainty tucked and embroidered models in newest effects. $2.00 Up Charming Dresses in authorized Spring styles. Empire and Eton effects, and the ever popular plain little models with full skirts.

Arrived!

Just Unpacked Yesterday and on Display Tomorrow for the First Time in Portland

The Styles That Set the Fashion

For Spring, 1915, and won't be shown elsewhere for WEEKS! Come and see what is really NEW and truly EXCLUSIVE in Misses' and Women's

Tailleur Suits Day Time and Evening Frocks and "The New" in Blouses

NOT merely "Early Spring" Models. NOT "Advance Models" of uncertain Style—BUT THE REALLY NEW and EXCLUSIVE THINGS!

We waited till Fashion definitely made up her mind, AND THEN WE BOUGHT OUR SPRING LINES, with the result that ONLY the delightfully DIFFERENT and genuinely EXCLUSIVE Styles are to be found here!

Come Monday and see for the first time, the Styles that will SET THE FASHION and STAY IN STYLE throughout the coming season!

C. E. Holliday Co. Three Fif-y-Five Alder Corner of Park

ENGRAVED STATIONERY WEDDING AND CALLING CARDS W. G. Smith & Co. THIRD FLOOR MORGAN BLDG.

CREDIT YOUR PRIVILEGE

We Give American Travel Scrip

405 Washington St. at Tenth

CREDIT YOUR PRIVILEGE

A Mile of Travel For Every Dollar Spent