

Salmon Bake Enjoyed at Prineville

Mrs. Ada B. Millican Entertains Club Women of Crook County Seat in Novel Fashion on Salmon Day.

ONE of the most unique and interesting events of the year in Oregon was the "salmon bake" given on Salmon Day to the members of the Shu-mi-a club (Plute Indian name signifying to study or think) by Mrs. Ada B. Millican at her headquarters "Wickham" in Prineville. The rooms were decorated in daffodils, heliotrope and ferns. After the guests were all seated at the table two young ladies bearing a great platter laden with baked salmon, entered and held aloft the piece de resistance of the feast, while Mrs. Millican paid the following tribute:

"Salmon! King of all the finny tribe that sports in ocean, bay or stream; for such thou hast made our broad Pacific northwest famous. We love thee, alas that thou shouldst be slaughtered to make a woman's holiday."

At the close of the banquet Mrs. W. J. Bellman was introduced as toastmistress, and a number of toasts were responded to. Mrs. Rosa Brink gave the history of the salmon industry in the northwest, graphically describing the freshets of early days, when the run of salmon filled the streams of the Crooked, Ochoco and McKay rivers. Mrs. Margaret Elkins handled the butcheries in a very impressive manner, closing with a toast to the women destined especially for the modern woman.

Mrs. Evelyn L. Walker gave an original poem, "Oregon's Toast to the Salmon." Mrs. Emma Gray, who had been given the privilege of choosing her own subject, responded with the following toast to the hostess:

Toast a lady of Oregon note, Who sometimes writes good newspaper copy, Her latest effort in the poetic line Is an Indian legend, which is very fine. Her name is well known to the literate, Now I believe you all know that it's Millican.

After the toasts each Shu-mi-a responded to call each by giving her favorite recipe for preparing salmon. Mrs. Ella M. Busey, sister of Mrs. Millican, and Mrs. Ruby Laflair were special guests of the day.

Interior Decorating Discussed.

The Self Culture club met last Friday evening at Mrs. Ella B. Jones' studio, being entertained by A. P. Rasmussen, assisted by E. Phillips, W. Oaks and Mr. Jack. A very interesting lecture was given by Mrs. Laura B. Doolittle on "Interior Decorating," which was greatly enjoyed.

"Romeo and Juliet" Presented.

The Portland Shakespeare Study club gave a very acceptable performance of "Romeo and Juliet" on Tuesday last, at Grace Memorial Parish house, for the pleasure of a large audience composed of friends of the club members. During past months the play has been studied analytically by the club under the able leadership of Mrs. Julia C. LaBarre, and as given Tuesday it was a presentation by a number of the students of their individual interpretation of the characters, which they portrayed. The cutting and staging was arranged by Mrs. Adeline

SHAKESPEARE CLUB GIVES "ROMEO AND JULIET"

Top, right to left—Miss Alleen Brong as "Juliet"; Mrs. Herbert Garr Read as "Romeo." Bottom—Cast of characters which gave "Romeo and Juliet" at Grace Memorial Parish House Tuesday afternoon.

M. Alvord, the club's dramatic coach, who gave the matter the benefit of her best efforts. The characters of Romeo and Juliet was given an original and interesting interpretation by Mrs. Herbert Garr Read, and Juliet was charming and lovable as acted by Miss Alleen Brong. Mrs. Anton Geblish, as Friar Laurence, showed the result of thoughtful study of the part; her friar being the thoughtful, scholarly, kindly man, like to think of. As head of the House of Capulet, Mrs. Roy Peterson was splendid, portraying at one moment the genial, hospitable host and at another the arrogant, unjust and implacable father.

Mrs. E. P. Preble, as Lady Capulet, gave a graceful and realistic portrayal of the character. The characters of Prince and Apothecary had been studied by Miss May Breslin, who was called upon a few days ago by the illness of a relative, to fill the vacancy. Mrs. P. L. Thompson consented to act those parts, and the able manner in which she conquered a difficult situation is convincing proof of her versatility.

Mrs. W. A. Glover also came into the work late, to substitute in the part of Montague, doing very creditable work. As Mercutio, Mrs. Allen Todd was delightful, acting the part of that jovial character in a natural and pleasing manner. Mrs. Todd also did fine character work as Friar John. Mrs. James Robarte, as Benvolio, and Mrs. C. P. Fisher, as Balthasar did very creditable work. Mrs. D. B. Mackie was a dignified and likable Paris, and in the character of Peter and the Page Mrs. M. C. Robins was simply irresistible.

Mrs. W. A. Carter, in the part of Tybalt, showed scholarly and artistic interpretation, with fine dramatic ability. Mrs. R. E. Jones as the Nurse, received unstinted applause for her excellent portrayal and natural adaptation of that difficult role.

Great credit is due Mrs. Roy Peterson, dramatic chairman of the club, for her unselfish and loyal attitude, as well as her able and untiring efforts in the discharge of her duties, which did much to bring about the success of the play.

Coterie Has Saint Patrick Party.

The handsome new home at 759 Thompson street was thrown open last evening to the Coterie club, and friends, for a women's day party in honor of their husbands. The flags of old Erin were draped in the halls and dining room, with pots of shamrock. An attractive program was rendered as follows:

A group of Irish songs, recited by Grace Miller; Irish recitation, sung and danced by Mrs. James M. Roberts; Symphony in A major by Mrs. Allen Todd; Miss Agnes Cover. Refreshments in keeping with the day were served at 11. The punch bowl was presided over by Miss Alexander. RECIPE TO STOP DANDRUFF

This Home-Made Mixture Stops Dandruff and Falling Hair and Aids Its Growth.

To half a pint of water add:

Barbary 1 oz.
Bary Compound a small box
Glycerine 4 oz.

These are all simple ingredients that you can buy from any druggist at very little cost, and mix them yourself. Apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, then once every other week until all the mixture is used. A half pint should be enough to rid the head of dandruff and kill the dandruff germ. It stops the hair from falling out, relieves itching and scalp diseases.

Although it is not a dye, it acts upon the hair roots and will darken streaked, faded, gray hair in ten or fifteen days. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes harsh hair soft and glossy. (Adv.)

Big Cleanup Campaign on in Woodstock

Parent-Teacher Association, Under Leadership of Mrs. E. H. Ingham, Sponsor for Plan of Beautification.

THE Woodstock Parent-Teacher association, of which Mrs. E. H. Ingham is president, has inspired a cleanup campaign in that district, which is just now at its height. A few weeks ago 800 copies of verses setting forth the need and aim of a cleanup campaign for Woodstock, from the pen of Mrs. Ingham, were distributed among the homes of that district. The district has been divided into sections and the children and adults are working vigorously. A silver cup is to be given to the team of boys doing the best work, the boys to have their names engraved on the cup, which is to remain at the Woodstock school.

Following are the verses:

Oh, in the groves of "Woodstock,"
There's rubbish thrown at night;
But the "Captain Boys" of Woodstock
Will put it out of sight.

Oh, then, ye wives of Woodstock,
When garbage you collect,
Be very careful of the place
To put it, you select.

For in this town of Woodstock
We proudly call our home,
No unsightly thing must face us—
Not even a poor dog's bone.

Work not alone for conquest,
In the great Rose City show;
But the "Captain Boys" of Woodstock
Will put it out of sight.

And when boys have cleared our
Woodstock of every thrown-out can,
On careless wives of Woodstock
We'll surely place the plan.

Besides old cans in Woodstock,
There came back the old rangers
When they loiter on the street,
If we could see the vision
Of Woodstock, clean and sweet,
We'd gladly sweep the streets,
When they loiter on the street.

Why, all of us that live here,
(We're such a jolly band!)
Would gladly sweep the streets,
And do other things of hand.

And when, with Captain Boys,
We've won the ribbon blue,
We'll all join hands and feast,
And shout for "Woodstock, too!"

Pisgah Home Farm Colony Is Thriving

Mrs. Hattie B. Lawrence Tells What Has Been Accomplished on 640 Acre Tract Near Scappoose by "Boys"

"YES, eight miles is a long walk for a woman of my age, but I never enjoyed anything more in my life," said Mrs. Hattie B. Lawrence, the head of the Pisgah Home Colony association, who recently returned from the 640-acre farm located eight miles from Scappoose, which the association now possesses.

"Our boys have finally succeeded in making a trail so people can find their way back to Scappoose, next they want to make it so a team can be taken over and then I shall be making an effort to get horses and cows for our ranch. As yet we must be content with some chickens and turkeys and one lone goose. Our house, 20x40 feet in size and two stories in height, is completed; that is, it is enclosed. Downstairs we have a living room, dining room and kitchen and up stairs is the sleeping dormitory. We have 20 men at the colony now, superintended by Mrs. Stewart, for whom they now are building a house.

"The land has been burned and great logs, only just charred on the outside, lie in great numbers all over the farm. These men are piling up for future use. The land will not be difficult to put under cultivation; already the boys are sowing 50 acres to timothy and clover, this to be used for pasture. We also have 85 apple trees set out and a great quantity of berry bushes. And I took with me pounds and pounds of garden seeds. The Portland seed men were very generous with their donations of seeds and the Pisgah colony people will surely have a goodly supply of fresh vegetables.

"Since I came here, I have secured several fine gifts for the colony in the way of farm machinery, including several barrows, one of them a spring harrow, a plow and a seeder and cultivator. These, together with horses, will be sent up as soon as the road is finished. The colony is in excellent hands and I hope some of the boys understand farming and all are enthusiastically interested in the development of the farm."
