Many Greetings Telegraphed .-- Portland entered into the Easter spirit in an emphatic manner, as far as the telegraphing of greetings is concerned. The new Easter blank of the Western Union was a most popular one for the past few days, and yesterday those held for delivery Sunday morning were sent out. Since Friday noon messages with Easter lilies were frequently mixed in with prosy business messages on the wires. The meeting of the seasons with suitable holiday is now making preparations for the blanks has done a great deal to promote the holiday festival spirit, as is well evidenced by the increases in the number of messages handled each
