NEW IMPERIAL GRILL TO BE THROWN OPEN TO PUBLIC TONIGHT

Alterations and Enlargement So Extensive as to Require Month to Make.

SPECIAL ENTERTAINMENT

Many Reservations Made; Golf Club Gives Luncheon Today in Wistaria Tea Garden.

A substantial addition to Portland's list of high class eating places will be made tonight in the formal opening of the new and enlarged Imperial

After a month spent in making extensive alterations and improvements, Mine Host Metschan has everything in readiness and will throw the new grill open to the public at 6 o'clock tonight. A special table d'hote dinner and entertainment from 6 p. m. to a, m, will be features of the opening.

The enlarged grill will have a seating capacity of 250, an additional 100 capacity being gained through tearing out the old writing room and woman's reception room on the Stark street side of the building, and throwing this space and the old grill at the rear of the hotel into one big room. The new room is 100 by 60 feet in dimensions, and is furnished in solid

In the new room there are 130 plate glass mirrors, 69 light fixtures with 126 candle power lights and 18 transoms. The wall paper is specially designed in a tapestry border and depicts a French hunting scene. The drapes and lambrequins are of subdued blue. Battenberg curtains cover the windows. The floor is of tile, color and design made to harmonize with the decorations of the grill.

At a meeting held at the east side library the matter was discussed at great length and after two thirds of he delegates had left the hall a motion to approve the issue was laid upon

The meeting drifted away from the ain question and consumed much time in discussing types and cost of pavements. It was finally decided to wait on the board of county commissioners with a view of ascertaining their position in the matter of letting the contracts in the event the bond is-

Roadmaster Yeon addressed the meeting and pointed out the benefits to the farmer and the laborer through contemplated improvement. He said that in the matter of letting the paving contract the bidding would be open and that all types of pavement would be given consideration.
