Makes Your Stuffed, Catarrhal Head Clear as a Bell

When you wake in the morning plagued with the tortures of head colds and catarrh, head, nose and throat stopped up, air passages clogged with obnoxious, catarrhal discharges that have collected during the night and you can hardly breathe—just put a little Hyomei Pocket inhaler charged with the pleas-ant healing oil of Hyomei between your lips. Hold it there while dressing and breathe the medicated, antiseptic, germ killing air deep into your nese, throat and lungs with every breath you draw.

This clean smelling, germ destroying air of Hyomei penetrates deep down into every fold and cravice of the membranous linings of your nose, throat and lungs where no liquid spray could possibly get and absolutely kills and drives out of your system every germ it finds there, heals the inflamed swollen tissues and after the very first trial you notice a wonderful improvement. A few weeks use and every catarrhal germ is killed and driven set of your system. 4

Popular Priced Opera Proves as Popular in Fact as in

By J. L. W.

Popular priced grand opera seems to be popular here in fact as well as of the grand master, William Galloname, for last night the opening per-formance of the Lambardi Opera company drew a capacity house to the Baker theatre. From the orchestra pit to the uppermost seat in the gallery not an unsold seat remained. Business Manager D'Allatour called it good business and was well satisfied. If such splendid attendance continues, Portland may retain the Lambardi is in Lane, Linn and Benton countles company for an indefinite period, a month or more.

General Director Cecchetti, the hardest working individual in the entire company, was much pleased, too, for the audience was responsive and applauded with genuine enthusiasm that indicated real appreciation.

Verdi's magnificent "Aida" was the opera chosen for the opening performance and it was adequately staged. Apparently many of the costumes were

The cast of principals was splendid, Katherina Lynbrook, American. in the title role. Miss Lynnbrook is a dramatic soprano of sparkling voice with a wide range and seemingly unlimited power. She would be ideal for Wagnerian roles, as for instance Elsa in "Lohengrin." As Aida she was a visiting the Grand Canyon, Yosemite trifle tall for the tenor, Eugenio De Falso, as Radames, who on the other hand is a bit short in his 5 feet 8 or less, but whose fresh and sparkling voice compensates for his shortcomings in stature. The aria, "Celeste Aida," in the opening scene was sung with such ferver and beauty of style

Romance of Hope Type, Star's Best

By the time you are dressed your head will be as clear as a bell, you will breathe with ease and comfort, eat your breakfast with a relish and go about your day's work with a clear brain and steady eye.

"The Unafraid," with Rita Jolivet, is the Lasky offering holding the Star's screen for the remainder of the week. It is a romance of the Anthony Star's screen for the remainder of the Hope type, with generous proportions of melodrama, but it proves only fairly good.

The story is placed with Montenegro and deals with two brothers, one good, the other bad. The bad one seeks to betray his country, the good one prevents it, with an American heiress playing an important role in the developments. The brothers and the secret agent are played by perfectly unmistakable Americans, while American heiress is portrayed by a perfectly unmistakable French woman. The story progresses with jumps and bounds minus a number of necessary explanatory links. Miss Jolivet is beautiful and talented. House Peters makes all he can of the good brother, and Page Peters portrays the bad one. The interior settings are good and there are some effective exteriors. A good Nestor comedy and Pathe weekly
