GOOD ROADS BONDS ISSUE IS INDORSED AS A TRUE ECONOMY

United Improvement Clubs and Portland Realty Board Take Favorable Action. YEON GIVEN AN OVATION. Blessings to Be Derived From Hard-surfaced Highways Dwelt Upon By Speakers.

At a well attended meeting of the Greater East Side United Improvement Club's association the proposed county bond issue of $1,250,000 for highway improvement was unanimously endorsed by a rising vote.

County Roadmaster John B. Yeon and County Commissioner Rufus C. Holman were the speakers, H. F. Palmer acting as chairman of the day. Mr. Yeon was given an ovation when he rose in answer to the board's call and was applauded again and again during the course of his talk.

Both speakers dwelt on the blessings of good roads and pointed out how the bond issue would be true economy in securing them. The resolution passed by the board reads in part: "Resolved, That we, the Portland Realty board, most heartily indorse said proposed bond issue for the improvement of our county roads."

Superintendent Churchill also urged a study of the county unit plan of the school administration. He pointed out the benefits that would accrue to the schools in the rural districts if they were under the supervision of a county board of directors and a county school superintendent.

He explained various changes that were made by the last legislature in the school laws of the state and stated that he expected to have copies of the school laws printed and ready for distribution by May 15. A. C. Newell presided at the meeting.

WILL ASK CONGRESS WHO TO BLAME FOR SUBMARINE DEATHS

Brother of Albert Ede, Commander of F-4, Wants Responsibility Fixed. SAYS IT WAS MURDER. (Pacific News Service.) Los Angeles, Cal., April 10.—"It was nothing short of murder for the navy department to permit the use of the submarine F-4 if she was in an unseaworthy condition as reports indicate, and I intend to demand a congressional investigation in an effort to place the blame for the death of the 21 persons who perished in the vessel if the facts are borne out."

This is the declaration made by Allison E. Ede, of the Los Angeles engineering department, brother of Lieutenant Alfred Ede, commander of the "Shark" that lies at the bottom of the ocean off Honolulu harbor. Both Ede and Ede's brother, Lieutenant Ede, were on the F-4, which was commanded by William S. Nelson, chief machinist's mate on the F-4, are incensed to think that the government will permit the men in the submarine service to make under-sea maneuvers in deep water with craft that, according to Mrs. Nelson, and a letter written by Lieutenant Ede just before his death, was leaky and run by motors that were not in proper condition to say the least.
