Prominent Men of State Included Among Speakers; Pageant to Be Feature.

The thirtieth annual convention of the Oregon State Sunday school association, to be held in the First Presbyterian church, April 28-30, promises to be the best meeting the organization has ever held.

Danenhower, secretary of the Multnomah County Sunday School association, is directing plans for this event. Over 400 persons will take part.

Turks Order Missionaries Away

Couple Once British Subjects

To be ordered out of Jerusalem by the Turkish army authorities because they were formerly English subjects, was the experience of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Thompson, missionaries of the Christian and Missionary Alliance, who have just returned to this country.

Mrs. Thompson arrived in Portland earlier this week, will speak tomorrow at the Gospel tabernacle, 305 East Ninth street, and Monday or Tuesday go to Seattle to remain with relatives until after the war is over.

The Thompsons were located in Palestine 12 years, where they had charge of the American church at Jerusalem, seating 450 persons, and one of the largest missionary institutions in the Levant.

Their work was a prosperous one until the war broke out, or rather until Turkey plunged into the conflict.

Then the tourist travel stopped, business was stagnated and the work of the missionaries came to a standstill.

December 24 came the word for the missionaries to leave. There were 12 of them in Jerusalem of whom the Turkish authorities had suspicions. That same day an Italian boat called at Joffa, on the coast a short distance from Jerusalem, and the followers of the Cross departed from the Holy Land. They went first to Alexandria in Egypt, then to London by Gibraltar, and in February came to New York.

At the same time, Mrs. Thompson said, the missionaries were treated very kindly by the Turks, and no reports of violence of Christians in the Palestine were heard at any time. Shortly after the war was declared, Jerusalem was placed under martial law, but the Turkish troops, the woman missionary asserts, were very kind, and maintained, at all times, splendid order.

Portland Inviting Field for Pastors

Portland is proving to be an inviting field for some of the eminent preachers of the country. Rev. George F. Darsie, who stands high in the denomination which he represents, begins his pastorate of the First Christian church, corner Park and Columbia streets, tomorrow.

Rev. Darsie comes from Terre Haute, Ind., and achieved notable results while minister of the First church of that city. Beginning with a small coterie of people, the organization developed under his leadership to a membership of 1200, with over 900 in the Bible school. The church is regarded today as one of the strongest in Indiana.

Mr. Darsie is assisted in his work by his wife, who is a trained worker in all departments of church activity.

Rev. S. M. Conner has been temporary minister of the First church for almost a year and the work has progressed nicely during his pastorate.

Mid-Week Meeting Largely Attended

Three hundred and seventy-five persons, the largest mid week meeting crowd the Westminster Presbyterian church has ever had, attended the annual meeting of the congregation Tuesday night. Officers elected were:

Streng, succeeding themselves for three years; Charles Cochran succeeding Elder E. W. Amesbury, resigned. The final report of the building committee was heard.

S. P. Lockwood was toastmaster and A. F. Bittner, Ruth Cushing, Mrs. H. C. Buckley, Charles E. Cochran, Mr. Frost and Rev. H. W. Marcotte responded. A playlet, "Love's Dilemma," in which six young men took part, rounded out the pleasure of the evening.

The organization was divided into two sides, the "Hustlers," led by Miss C. Burback and the "Busy Bees," led by G. L. Repp. The former group secured 24 and the latter 13 new members, increasing the Endeavor to a membership of 105. Plans are now under way for a campaign that will increase the membership to 200. BISHOP STARTS FIRST OF SOCIAL SERVICE MOVEMENTS IN CITY

Plan to Canvass Every Member of Episcopal Church Outlined at Banquet.

Rt. Rev. Walter T. Sumner, as bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Oregon, has launched the first of his social service movements which made his work as a priest in the Chicago diocese so eminently successful and himself so widely known.

The plan was outlined at the laymen's banquet, given in his honor at the Multnomah hotel Thursday night, and met with enthusiastic and unanimous approval.

The "Every Member" canvass, which under a dozen different titles has been carried out in every part of the United States, strangely enough has never been applied to any extent in Oregon. Thursday night Bishop Sumner made the surprising announcement that such a canvass would be made throughout the diocese of Oregon on the afternoon of Sunday, May 2. He furthermore announced that every layman would be expected to help, participate if possible, and that every clergyman, including himself, would be in the field.

The "Every Member" movement is a personal canvass of all members of the various congregations, members alike delinquent or in good standing, for the emphasizing of a carefully considered subscription, on a weekly basis, instead of a collection, for current expenses of the parish and for church missions in general.

Every parish clergyman will be asked to appoint a committee large enough that all the members in the district, in addition to as many nonmembers as possible, can be seen. The canvass will be a house to house one.

Easter Music Will Be Repeated Sunday

The Easter music, given last Sunday at the White Temple, was so much appreciated that it will be repeated tomorrow in response to numerous requests. The Easter cantata, "Messiah Victorious" (William G. Hammond) will be given in the evening. Tomorrow morning Dr. Hinson will preach on "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground," and in the evening he will speak of "The Cost of a Man." There will be baptism at night.

CHURCHES ON EAST SIDE JOIN BOOSTER MOVEMENT

Launching a movement out of which in time an east side ministerial association is to grow, a number of ministers from the central east side district met Wednesday evening with a score or more of laymen at the Sunnyside Congregational church.

The primary movement started at this meeting concerns the making of an appeal to all the moral and religious forces of the east side. The slogan of the east side business men, "Boost for a Bigger, Better, Busier East Side," has been adopted by the ministers, and an endeavor will be made to give the east side churches in the central district the same strength of the west side places of worship.

The second meeting for the spreading of this propaganda will take place at the Y. M. C. A. Monday noon.

Thirteen churches so far have been enlisted in the movement, and committeemen from them will be addressed by Rev. A. C. Moses. Those appointed from these churches are as follows:

Congregational, Revs. W. H. Meyer and H. J. Staub; Presbyterian, Revs. W. H. Amos and L. K. Grimes; Methodist, Revs. T. W. Lane and W. J. Ingels; United Brethren, Revs. J. B. Parsons and J. D.
