

PORTLAND, OREGON, SUNDAY MORNING, APRIL 18, 1915.

SPEEDWAY PEOPLE TO TURN RACE MEET-OVER TO CHARITY THIS FALL

Some Organization Will Be Given Right to Stage Event and Receive Profits.

HIGH CLASS NAGS COMING

Leading Horsemen of Northwest Take Up Reins as Weather Man Begins to Adopt Balmey Attitude.

By J. D. Olson.

To hold a monster race meeting and fair in Portland this fall, the entire profits to go to charity is the plan announced by the Rose City Speedway association. It is planned by the association to turn the meet over to some organization, such as the Muttis, which may handle the money, paying the expenses and use the profits as deemed best.

The attractions planned for the opening week, beginning August 2, are high class, and will attract huge crowds, it is thought. Carnival companies, which show over the northwest during the fall, will come to Portland, and together with a high class program of harness and running events, will no doubt make up a program which will excel anything ever held here, even in the palmiest days.

Should this plan go through successfully, and there is little doubt but that it will, the fair will be held each year and the profits used for charitable purposes.

Leading horsemen from all parts of the northwest are in correspondence with the Speedway association, and high class racing stock will be seen in action in Portland this fall from Vancouver, B. C., Montana, Idaho, Washington and all parts of Oregon.

As the Portland fair is on the northwest fair circuit, this year there is little doubt but that the 1915 meeting and fair will be the most successful ever held in the Rose city.

Word has been received from Baker, Or., from C. W. Todd, well known horse owner and trainer, that he has a large stable of trotters and pacers, as well as some of the finest thoroughbreds in early spring training. Among them are Halmatton, a pacer which holds the Oregon record of 2:06 1/4, Bonnie Antrim, Aldine, Maurice S. and Smiley Mint, the latter heading his string of thoroughbreds. Trainer Todd writes that all of his horses are in good early season trim and he expects to have a tanner year.

Medford Horses Working.
Medford has several prominent horsemen who report that their pacers and trotters will be in good shape for the spring opening of the circuit in this city. Taylor brothers of that city have a large stable headed by the fast pacer King Seal, who has been seen in action at a number of meets in this city. George Swisher, another Medford horseman, has in training a fine stable, among his best prospects being Hattie B, a pacing filly owned by Mrs. C. W. Watts.

Fred Brooker of Vancouver, Wash., is another trainer who is beginning early in the year. He has a number of fast trotters and pacers, which he purchased last fall, will be the big money winners of the season.

At the Rose Vista track, east of Multnomah, Charles Gholson is conditioning a large string of classy steppers, headed by St. Elmo, a pacer, that has world of speed. He is also training Fred T. Merrill's string, which includes Red Hal, 2:10 1/4, the pacer that made superb creditable showing at the last fall meeting.

MOVIES OF HARVARD MEN

The newest idea, as reported from Harvard University, is to have baseball team candidates and on-screen practice under the stimulus of a moving picture machine camera. Since the opening of the outdoor athletic season, the Crimson baseball, lacrosse and rowing squads have been snapped several times by "movie" operators, and while the pictures were being recorded, according to reports, the coaches and that the crews pulled with splendid harmony, the ball players fielded like major leaguers, and the lacrosse men were unstopable.

FINAL SOCCER GAME ON

Brooklyn Celtic soccer team of New York will play the Scottish-Americans of Kearney, N. J., in the final game of the American Football association challenge cup today in Newark, N. J. The Brooklyn team oddly enough knocked the Bethlehem, Pa., team out of the American cup series which they won last year by defeating the Steelworkers 1 to 0. In turn the Bethlehem team qualified for the semi-final of the National cup series by eliminating the Scottish-Americans.
