

NEWS OF THE SOCIAL WORLD

Mrs. Willis Kellogg Clark, who was Miss Carolyn Nearing Gillespy of Seattle, and whose marriage occurred Thursday in Seattle. —Photo by Curtis, of Seattle.

with trailing wistaria. Ices were served from the library by Mrs. Ray Matson and Mrs. James Cranston. Assisting the hostesses about the rooms were Miss Isabella Gauld, Miss Shirley Eastham, Miss Cornelia Cook and Mrs. Carl Wernicke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Edwards were dinner hosts last Monday evening for the pleasure of Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle.

The following account of the Clark-Gillespy wedding in Seattle Thursday, taken from the Seattle Post Intelligence, is of interest to the many Portland friends of the bride and bridegroom:

Miss Carolyn Nearing Gillespy, daughter of Mrs. Sherwood Gillespy, was united in marriage to Willis Kellogg Clark, of Portland, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Church of Epiphany, Denny-Blaine park. Simply marked the service, and the decorations in the church were beautiful in their dignity. Apple blossoms predominated, with palms and greens making an effective background. On the altar were pink roses, used in profusion. As the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was played the bride and groom took their places before the altar, and during the reading of the service music was played softly, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue silk, with white hat.

In the evening a small reception was held at the home of the bride on Sixteenth avenue north, where the guests were decorated in fragrant apple blossoms. Mrs. Gillespy was assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. G. Clinton Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Harrie H. Starkey, aunt and uncle of the bride. Mrs. Clark received her friends in a charming little gown of white silk tulle, trimmed with iridescent spangles.

After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at Newberg, Or., near Portland.

elo goes on golf five afternoons each week now on the field of the Panama-Pacific exposition, instead of three times, as heretofore, and society continues to display its interest by an enthusiastic audience. J. Watson Webb of New York, who is playing with the Midwick team of Pasadena, is rapidly becoming the hero of the tournament, because of his brilliant play and his dashing, spectacular riding. Tall, lithe, muscular, the New York man is the "rooting" favorite of the onlookers. He is accompanied on his California trip by his wife, who was formerly Miss Electra Havemeyer, and they are staying at the Peninsula hotel at San Mateo.

Most of the eastern polo set are domiciled at this hotel, 20 miles south of San Francisco, or are the guests of friends at San Mateo or Burlingame. Much entertaining is being done for them, notably the elaborate ball last week by Mr. and Mrs. C. Frederick Kohl at their beautiful new country place, at which Mr. and Mrs. William Hitt (formerly Miss Katherine Elkins) were the guests of honor, and the various dinner dances at the Burlington Country club.

Among the pretty dinner parties preceding the cotton ball Wednesday night was that presided over at the Mallory by Mrs. C. H. Martin, wife of Colonel Martin, who is now stationed on the Mexican border. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright, Miss Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Mears, Colonel and Mrs. Cabell and Japanese Consul Kumasaki.

The dinner table was adorned with a basket of spring blossoms. The color scheme was pink and lavender.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rothwell also presided at a delightful dinner party preceding the cotton ball Wednesday night at the Mallory hotel. The guests were: Mrs. Waldo Avery, E. Ortman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. de Schweinitz.

Amid a profusion of cherry blossoms, wistaria, greens and gaily bedecked booths, 500 guests mingled at the college fete given by the Portland Pan Hellenic association Friday evening in Cotton Hall. Charming young college girls presided over the booths and cried their respective wares. The program booth, artistically decorated in morning glories, was in charge of Esther Malley, Cecil Miller and Florence Johnson of the Chi Omegas. A fishing pond in the form of an old-fashioned well was the means by which the Delta Omegas drew the curious. Louise Braze, Pearl Cady and Mrs. Donald Pague were in charge. Kappa Kappa Gamma served ices. Mrs. Frederick Kiehl, Mrs. Theodore Williams and Miss Williams assisted in a charming Japanese garden. Gamma Phi Beta sold refreshing drinks in a Dutch garden formed of trellises hung in red Masters and Bertha Lilly, in Dutch costume, served. Beulah Hayes, Lillah Sengstake and Marjorie McGuire mingled among the guests selling popcorn balls from the attractively decorated booth of Kappa Alpha Theta. Delta Delta Delta carried out its fraternity idea in a unique way by having its members in the shape of a Greek delta. Norma Graves, Olive Risley and Hazel Ralston sold colonial nose-gays. The fortune telling booth, presided over by Miss Thompson, was the Alpha Xi Delta attraction in a tepee on the balcony. Alpha Phi served coffee and sandwiches in a palm garden in the balcony. The patronesses were Mrs. James B. Kerr, Mrs. J. C. Elliot King, Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons, Mrs. C. E. Grille, Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. R. L. Donald, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. Alice Benson Beach, Mrs. Charles A. Hart, Mrs. Horace B. Fenton, Mrs. Beryl Green, Mrs. Virgil Crum, Mrs. Roscoe R. Giltner, Mrs. Alfred Moody, Mrs. Ralph Yaeckel and Mrs. J. E. Withrow.

The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Griffin, was becomingly gowned in light pink taffeta trimmed in pink tulle and little pink rosebuds. Her bouquet was of the delicate shaded Killarney rosebuds.

The Misses Martha Whiting and Margaret Ferguson, the latter a Los Angeles girl, acted as bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in chic costumes of pink taffeta combined with point d'esprit net and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas.

Little Sarah McLeon, crisp and lovely in a French embroidered frock, was flower girl and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Hal E. Barton attended the bridegroom. The bridal march was played by Miss Mary Caldwell and Miss Maud Ross sang "At Dawning." From 8:20 until 10 the bridal party received, over 100 guests being bidden to the reception. Mrs. Clay, mother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson stood with the bridal party. A buffet supper was served from the dining room, where Mrs. C. W. Fulton, Mrs. M. C. Woodward, Mrs. E. B. McLeon and Mrs. J. W. Cressat presided at the samoviers and cut the ices. Assisting in serving were Miss Rhoda Rume-lin, Miss Sara McCully; Miss Mary Stuart Smith, Miss Marda Parker and Miss Hildreth Humason. Punch was served in the library by the Misses Hafriet and Mary Kern.

Among the out of town guests who came for the wedding were Mrs. I. A. Grimes and Mrs. C. B. Haradon of Alaska, Mrs. J. B. Augustine and Mrs. A. W. Miller of Seattle.

Mrs. Lee Hoffman will speak to the women of the Unitarian Alliance next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Unitarian chapel at Broadway and Yamhill street. Her subject will be "Arts and Crafts."

The card party and the dance given by Chi Omega sorority Thursday at the home of Lucile Shepherd was an enjoyable event of the week. Cards were played from 2 to 4 o'clock and the college boys came in at 4 and danced until 6. Programs were white embossed in gold and favors were sweet peas and lily of the valley corsage bouquets. The decorations of tulips and dogwood were most effective. Ice and wafers were served. The guests included: The stance Taylor, Vera Olmstead, Marion Springer, Aline Johnson, Lois Ladd, Georgia Cross, Dorothy Groman, Arvilla Beckwith, Ruth Dorris, Velma Sexton, Gladys Wilkins, Helen Robinson, Merna Brown, Mildred Brown, Mildred Gerig.

Mrs. Elov T. Hedlund received on Thursday from 3 to 5, complimenting two charming matrons, Mrs. Claire M. McKellips of Corvallis and Mrs. Frank Whitely of Fairbanks, Alaska, who have been spending the winter in Portland. A lovely color effect was produced throughout the rooms by masses of purple lilac and sprays of graceful wistaria against the ivory white wood-work. In the tea room, Testout roses and the soft glow of candles enhanced the table. Here ices were served by Miss Dorris Hawkins and Mrs. William N. Gatens. Besides the honor guests, Mrs. J. M. Meacham, Mrs. Whitely's mother, received with Mrs. Hedlund. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. C. H. King, Mrs. Gordon B. Bamond, Mrs. David P. Olson, Mrs. Robert Ber-ner, Mrs. Victor Brandt and Mrs. Frank L. Boyd. Mrs. Whitely spent December and January visiting friends and relatives in the south, Birmingham and Nashville, Tenn., being two places where she was delightfully entertained. She will return to Alaska in June. Mrs. Claire McKellips will be

Mr. and Mrs. Butterfield, Miss Butterfield and Mrs. and Miss Klosterman all plan about a month's sojourn in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Webber will be joined there by their daughter, Miss Margaret, who has been visiting in San Diego, and will pass several months in California. Mrs. Standifer will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Boshke, in San Francisco for a month or six weeks.

A reunion party was given at the Portland Heights club Friday night, April 16, for all members and former members. A delightful time was enjoyed by the guests, who thronged the club. The patronesses were: Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. J. Honeyman, Mrs. Jay Smith and Mrs. A. D. Charlton. The floor committee was: W. S. Dinwiddie, Fletcher Linn, R. L. Donald and William Young, and the social committee Mrs. A. B. Slau-

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Edwards were dinner hosts last Monday evening for the pleasure of Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle.

The following account of the Clark-Gillespy wedding in Seattle Thursday, taken from the Seattle Post Intelligence, is of interest to the many Portland friends of the bride and bridegroom:

Miss Carolyn Nearing Gillespy, daughter of Mrs. Sherwood Gillespy, was united in marriage to Willis Kellogg Clark, of Portland, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Church of Epiphany, Denny-Blaine park. Simply marked the service, and the decorations in the church were beautiful in their dignity. Apple blossoms predominated, with palms and greens making an effective background. On the altar were pink roses, used in profusion. As the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was played the bride and groom took their places before the altar, and during the reading of the service music was played softly, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue silk, with white hat.

In the evening a small reception was held at the home of the bride on Sixteenth avenue north, where the guests were decorated in fragrant apple blossoms. Mrs. Gillespy was assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. G. Clinton Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Harrie H. Starkey, aunt and uncle of the bride. Mrs. Clark received her friends in a charming little gown of white silk tulle, trimmed with iridescent spangles.

After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at Newberg, Or., near Portland.

elo goes on golf five afternoons each week now on the field of the Panama-Pacific exposition, instead of three times, as heretofore, and society continues to display its interest by an enthusiastic audience. J. Watson Webb of New York, who is playing with the Midwick team of Pasadena, is rapidly becoming the hero of the tournament, because of his brilliant play and his dashing, spectacular riding. Tall, lithe, muscular, the New York man is the "rooting" favorite of the onlookers. He is accompanied on his California trip by his wife, who was formerly Miss Electra Havemeyer, and they are staying at the Peninsula hotel at San Mateo.

Most of the eastern polo set are domiciled at this hotel, 20 miles south of San Francisco, or are the guests of friends at San Mateo or Burlingame. Much entertaining is being done for them, notably the elaborate ball last week by Mr. and Mrs. C. Frederick Kohl at their beautiful new country place, at which Mr. and Mrs. William Hitt (formerly Miss Katherine Elkins) were the guests of honor, and the various dinner dances at the Burlington Country club.

Among the pretty dinner parties preceding the cotton ball Wednesday night was that presided over at the Mallory by Mrs. C. H. Martin, wife of Colonel Martin, who is now stationed on the Mexican border. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright, Miss Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Mears, Colonel and Mrs. Cabell and Japanese Consul Kumasaki.

The dinner table was adorned with a basket of spring blossoms. The color scheme was pink and lavender.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rothwell also presided at a delightful dinner party preceding the cotton ball Wednesday night at the Mallory hotel. The guests were: Mrs. Waldo Avery, E. Ortman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. de Schweinitz.

Amid a profusion of cherry blossoms, wistaria, greens and gaily bedecked booths, 500 guests mingled at the college fete given by the Portland Pan Hellenic association Friday evening in Cotton Hall. Charming young college girls presided over the booths and cried their respective wares. The program booth, artistically decorated in morning glories, was in charge of Esther Malley, Cecil Miller and Florence Johnson of the Chi Omegas. A fishing pond in the form of an old-fashioned well was the means by which the Delta Omegas drew the curious. Louise Braze, Pearl Cady and Mrs. Donald Pague were in charge. Kappa Kappa Gamma served ices. Mrs. Frederick Kiehl, Mrs. Theodore Williams and Miss Williams assisted in a charming Japanese garden. Gamma Phi Beta sold refreshing drinks in a Dutch garden formed of trellises hung in red Masters and Bertha Lilly, in Dutch costume, served. Beulah Hayes, Lillah Sengstake and Marjorie McGuire mingled among the guests selling popcorn balls from the attractively decorated booth of Kappa Alpha Theta. Delta Delta Delta carried out its fraternity idea in a unique way by having its members in the shape of a Greek delta. Norma Graves, Olive Risley and Hazel Ralston sold colonial nose-gays. The fortune telling booth, presided over by Miss Thompson, was the Alpha Xi Delta attraction in a tepee on the balcony. Alpha Phi served coffee and sandwiches in a palm garden in the balcony. The patronesses were Mrs. James B. Kerr, Mrs. J. C. Elliot King, Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons, Mrs. C. E. Grille, Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. R. L. Donald, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. Alice Benson Beach, Mrs. Charles A. Hart, Mrs. Horace B. Fenton, Mrs. Beryl Green, Mrs. Virgil Crum, Mrs. Roscoe R. Giltner, Mrs. Alfred Moody, Mrs. Ralph Yaeckel and Mrs. J. E. Withrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Butterfield, Miss Butterfield and Mrs. and Miss Klosterman all plan about a month's sojourn in San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Webber will be joined there by their daughter, Miss Margaret, who has been visiting in San Diego, and will pass several months in California. Mrs. Standifer will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Boshke, in San Francisco for a month or six weeks.

A reunion party was given at the Portland Heights club Friday night, April 16, for all members and former members. A delightful time was enjoyed by the guests, who thronged the club. The patronesses were: Mrs. J. N. Teal, Mrs. J. Honeyman, Mrs. Jay Smith and Mrs. A. D. Charlton. The floor committee was: W. S. Dinwiddie, Fletcher Linn, R. L. Donald and William Young, and the social committee Mrs. A. B. Slau-

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Edwards were dinner hosts last Monday evening for the pleasure of Mrs. Margaret Burrell Biddle.

The following account of the Clark-Gillespy wedding in Seattle Thursday, taken from the Seattle Post Intelligence, is of interest to the many Portland friends of the bride and bridegroom:

Miss Carolyn Nearing Gillespy, daughter of Mrs. Sherwood Gillespy, was united in marriage to Willis Kellogg Clark, of Portland, yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Church of Epiphany, Denny-Blaine park. Simply marked the service, and the decorations in the church were beautiful in their dignity. Apple blossoms predominated, with palms and greens making an effective background. On the altar were pink roses, used in profusion. As the bridal chorus from "Lohengrin" was played the bride and groom took their places before the altar, and during the reading of the service music was played softly, and Mendelssohn's wedding march was used as a recessional. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue silk, with white hat.

In the evening a small reception was held at the home of the bride on Sixteenth avenue north, where the guests were decorated in fragrant apple blossoms. Mrs. Gillespy was assisted in receiving the guests by Mr. and Mrs. G. Clinton Butler and Mr. and Mrs. Harrie H. Starkey, aunt and uncle of the bride. Mrs. Clark received her friends in a charming little gown of white silk tulle, trimmed with iridescent spangles.

After a short trip, Mr. and Mrs. Clark will be at home at Newberg, Or., near Portland.

elo goes on golf five afternoons each week now on the field of the Panama-Pacific exposition, instead of three times, as heretofore, and society continues to display its interest by an enthusiastic audience. J. Watson Webb of New York, who is playing with the Midwick team of Pasadena, is rapidly becoming the hero of the tournament, because of his brilliant play and his dashing, spectacular riding. Tall, lithe, muscular, the New York man is the "rooting" favorite of the onlookers. He is accompanied on his California trip by his wife, who was formerly Miss Electra Havemeyer, and they are staying at the Peninsula hotel at San Mateo.

Most of the eastern polo set are domiciled at this hotel, 20 miles south of San Francisco, or are the guests of friends at San Mateo or Burlingame. Much entertaining is being done for them, notably the elaborate ball last week by Mr. and Mrs. C. Frederick Kohl at their beautiful new country place, at which Mr. and Mrs. William Hitt (formerly Miss Katherine Elkins) were the guests of honor, and the various dinner dances at the Burlington Country club.

Among the pretty dinner parties preceding the cotton ball Wednesday night was that presided over at the Mallory by Mrs. C. H. Martin, wife of Colonel Martin, who is now stationed on the Mexican border. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Wheelwright, Miss Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Mears, Colonel and Mrs. Cabell and Japanese Consul Kumasaki.

The dinner table was adorned with a basket of spring blossoms. The color scheme was pink and lavender.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Rothwell also presided at a delightful dinner party preceding the cotton ball Wednesday night at the Mallory hotel. The guests were: Mrs. Waldo Avery, E. Ortman, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. de Schweinitz.

Amid a profusion of cherry blossoms, wistaria, greens and gaily bedecked booths, 500 guests mingled at the college fete given by the Portland Pan Hellenic association Friday evening in Cotton Hall. Charming young college girls presided over the booths and cried their respective wares. The program booth, artistically decorated in morning glories, was in charge of Esther Malley, Cecil Miller and Florence Johnson of the Chi Omegas. A fishing pond in the form of an old-fashioned well was the means by which the Delta Omegas drew the curious. Louise Braze, Pearl Cady and Mrs. Donald Pague were in charge. Kappa Kappa Gamma served ices. Mrs. Frederick Kiehl, Mrs. Theodore Williams and Miss Williams assisted in a charming Japanese garden. Gamma Phi Beta sold refreshing drinks in a Dutch garden formed of trellises hung in red Masters and Bertha Lilly, in Dutch costume, served. Beulah Hayes, Lillah Sengstake and Marjorie McGuire mingled among the guests selling popcorn balls from the attractively decorated booth of Kappa Alpha Theta. Delta Delta Delta carried out its fraternity idea in a unique way by having its members in the shape of a Greek delta. Norma Graves, Olive Risley and Hazel Ralston sold colonial nose-gays. The fortune telling booth, presided over by Miss Thompson, was the Alpha Xi Delta attraction in a tepee on the balcony. Alpha Phi served coffee and sandwiches in a palm garden in the balcony. The patronesses were Mrs. James B. Kerr, Mrs. J. C. Elliot King, Mrs. Mable Holmes Parsons, Mrs. C. E. Grille, Mrs. George Gerlinger, Mrs. R. L. Donald, Mrs. Fletcher Linn, Mrs. Alice Benson Beach, Mrs. Charles A. Hart, Mrs. Horace B. Fenton, Mrs. Beryl Green, Mrs. Virgil Crum, Mrs. Roscoe R. Giltner, Mrs. Alfred Moody, Mrs. Ralph Yaeckel and Mrs. J. E. Withrow.

The maid of honor, Miss Margaret Griffin, was becomingly gowned in light pink taffeta trimmed in pink tulle and little pink rosebuds. Her bouquet was of the delicate shaded Killarney rosebuds.

The Misses Martha Whiting and Margaret Ferguson, the latter a Los Angeles girl, acted as bridesmaids. They were gowned alike in chic costumes of pink taffeta combined with point d'esprit net and carried shower bouquets of pink sweet peas.

Little Sarah McLeon, crisp and lovely in a French embroidered frock, was flower girl and she carried a basket of rose petals.

Hal E. Barton attended the bridegroom. The bridal march was played by Miss Mary Caldwell and Miss Maud Ross sang "At Dawning." From 8:20 until 10 the bridal party received, over 100 guests being bidden to the reception. Mrs. Clay, mother of the bridegroom, and Mr. and Mrs. Ferguson stood with the

EVERYTHING THAT'S NEWEST FIRST AT THE EMPORIUM

"Oh, That's So Different!"

YOU'LL be surprised too, when you see the smartness, the individuality shown in Emporium garments this Spring at moderate prices. Even though our business is large, we only specify a few of each style—many times, one or two garments alike.

The "Prince Chap" Suit $19.50

Mannish double-breasted tailor Suit of navy poplin. Finished in large white pearl buttons. Very new!

"Florence Nash" Suit $22.50

Worn by this delightful actress in "Sinners," the play New York has talked so much about! Smart Palm Beach checks; long "boxey" coat, with white Quaker collar and cuffs.

Hairline Tailor Suit $24.75

Plain tailored, straight line suit, in new hair stripe.

—Charming Taffeta Silk Dresses—Eton, with white vestee and shirred top skirt. Specially marked for this $13.95 sale at —New Palm Beach Skirts—sand color, hard woven material. Very serviceable and smart. One style has $4.95 patch pockets

Jap Silk Blouses

—soft and charmingly simple, with the hemstitched yoke and cuffs. You'll surely want one. Specially marked Monday

Hats of Individuality

—Hats of the latest style!
—Hats of beautiful materials!
—Hats by our own clever designers!

Surely there are thousands of women who will testify that we are showing the prettiest Hats in Portland.

Large Leghorn Hats Large Lace Hats

Black Maline Hats

Each day an ever-changing display—coming and going. Always something new! And so modestly priced—

$6.50 to $12.50

124-126-128 Sixth St. EMPORIUM Just a step off Washington

ENGRAVED
STATIONERY
WEDDING
AND CALLING CARDS
W. G. Smith & Co.
FLOOR MORGAN BLDG.

$60 Suits $45
Bear in Mind, You Get a Star Suit.
J. K. STERN
447 ALDER ST.

Engraving?
For the Best See Us
SECOND FLOOR
Gill's
THE J. K. GILL CO., 34 & Alder.