The first dancing party for the week of spring vacation, and one of the most delightful of the season, was given by the Alpha chapter of the Kappa Delta Iota fraternity last Saturday evening, April 10, at the Rose City Park clubhouse. About 50 couples were entertained in the ballroom, which was decorated in purple and gold, the fraternity colors. A feature of this decorating was a huge gilded frame fashioned in facsimile of the fraternity pin, with electric bulbs arranged to represent the pearls. A decidedly novel effect was produced by switching on these lights for the moonlight dances.

Palms were placed to partially screen the orchestra; the programs were unique, being of white kid, tied with rich cord of purple and gold and bearing the K. D. I. monogram on the cover. Several members from the University of Oregon, including Raymond Staub, Robert Baker and Edward Garbade, as well as a number of college guests, attended. Mrs. Oscar Lapham, Mrs. Albert Godell and Mrs. Roderick McCalley served as patronesses, and the committee in charge was W. Eldred Coombs, Merle W. Moore, Oscar S. Lapham, Frank D. Hunt Jr., F. Paul Campbell and Alfred Shawcross.

"At CHERRY'S, you know, 389-391 Washington street. A glorious place to shop, dear—all of wonderful costumes, all priced reasonable. Lola, you've seen the message, 'CREDIT.' And it's given generously with clothes so charming as to keep Cherry's customers 'nip and tuck' with Fashion's 'crearies and changes' always."
"This Spring you should have one of Cherry's smart, tailored, graceful, wide-skirted new Suits—and a dashing 1915 Coat from Cherry's line. Better run up tomorrow early, Lola. You know where the store is. They handle men's clothing as well. While the two locations are in the same building they are separate, so if your brother needs a suit, a real nice nifty suit for Spring, take him along, too.
