BARRACKS NEWS

Mrs. Peter C. Field, wife of Major Field, gave a card party Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. H. C. Moore, who recently arrived here from Pendleton. White and purple lilacs, carnations, pansies, wallflowers and greens were used profusely throughout the house, while a color scheme in green and white was carried out in the dining room by white carnations and lilacs and greens. The prizes at the six tables of auction bridge were won by Mrs. Murray Baldwin, Mrs. George S. Young, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. David J. Baker, Mrs. Ulrich of Portland, and Miss Tiernan of West Virginia, who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Charles T. King. Mrs. William Brook, Mrs. David J. Baker and Mrs. Charles T. King assisted the hostess in serving tea at 5 o'clock, when a number of additional guests dropped in.

Lieutenant and Mrs. James B. Woolnough have their house guests, Mrs. Carrick and Mrs. Woolnough of Minneapolis, grandmother and mother of Lieutenant Woolnough, who arrived last week for a short visit in the post.

Mrs. James B. Woolnough was hostess at a charming tea on Thursday afternoon, when all the ladies of the post were invited to meet her guests, Mrs. Woolnough and Mrs. Carrick of Minneapolis.

On Monday afternoon Mrs. H. C. Gibeon entertained at a sewing party. The house was artistically decorated with lilacs and greens, while a bouquet of the same flowers centered the dining table. Mrs. Edgar A. Fry served the salad, Mrs. Peter C. Field poured the coffee. About 25 ladies of the post and Mrs. Margaret Waring and Mrs. Sears of Vancouver, were the guests.

The Post Musical club will meet next Friday afternoon with Mrs. Edgar A. Fry, when the Russian composers will be invited to meet a number of their compositions played.

A number of officers and women of the post have been attending grand opera in Portland.

On Thursday the fiftieth anniversary of the death of President Lincoln flags were at half mast and military duties were suspended as a tribute to the martyred president.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Rutherford Hartz entertained informally last Saturday night for a number of the musical people of Portland and Vancouver.

Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Moore have arrived from Pendleton. Dr. Moore is a member of the Medical Reserve Corps.

Robert Offley, son of Captain and Mrs. Offley, recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he took the entrance examinations for West Point. The result of the examination will not be known for several weeks.
