Mrs. Pennybacker Writes of Council

Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, who will leave soon for a leisurely trip west, en route to Portland to attend the national council, has issued the following letter relative to the big gathering:

It is impossible for me to write a letter these days without speaking of our council meeting that is to convene May 31 at Portland, Or. The program, with Mrs. Grace J. Clark as chairman, is working out well. Dr. David Starr Jordan is to speak on "Peace." We are to do our best in Portland to have more time than ever for the personal touch. The state presidents will meet in a session with the president of the general federation. The chairman and members of the departments of work will meet with Mrs. Sneath, first vice president. The general federation will meet with Mrs. White, chairman of the membership committee, presiding. There will be time after each group of subjects for discussion, and this discussion will be open to every member.

May Wright Sewall Coming West.

Mrs. Mary Wright Sewall, chairman of the organizing committee of the International conference of women workers to promote permanent peace, which is to take place in San Francisco, July 4, 5, 6 and 7, has been secured for a lecture in that city early in May. The local branch of the Woman's Peace party, of which Mrs. Julia Margam is chairman, will meet this week and will make an effort to have Mrs. Sewall stop off in Portland and deliver a lecture. She has four engagements each in Seattle, Tacoma, and will be heard in other western cities.

Rose City Park Association.

A business meeting of the Rose City Park Parent-Teacher association was held yesterday afternoon with a good attendance of members. Plans were made to assist in an entertainment to be given about the middle of May by the children of the school for the purpose of raising money to be used in purchasing books for the school library and a stereopticon lantern. Ten dollars was voted for the National Congress expenses. A nominating committee was appointed and the election of officers will take place at the May meeting.

Shakespeare Club Reciprocity Day.

The Portland Shakespeare Study club's reciprocity day is looking forward with keen anticipation in club circles. A varied and interesting program is planned and the club extends an invitation to all clubs, whether organized or not, also Parent-Teacher and Grade Teacher associations, to be its guests next Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, central library hall.

Students Discuss National Woman Suffrage.

The Susan B. Anthony amendment for woman suffrage was the subject of discussion of a group of feminists, half of whom were young men, Tuesday night at the home of Professor and Mrs. William Ogburn of Reed college. Miss Virginia Arnold was the speaker. The discussion was spirited, questions and answers coming thick and fast.

Albina Homestead to Give Tea.

The Albina Homestead Parent-Teacher association will give a silver tea Friday afternoon from 2 to 5 at the home of Mrs. G. W. Weisenauer, 850 Grant avenue north, to which all people of that neighborhood are invited. There will be a program and refreshments.

Alberta Woman's Improvement Club.

A busy meeting of the Alberta Woman's Improvement club was held last night with a good attendance of members. The Alberta section was districted according to streets, each street composing one district and for each block a chairman was appointed. A membership campaign will be begun at once and the club hopes to secure a membership of several hundred. The twenty-fourth street district will entertain the other members of the club between the hours of 2 and 4 Thursday afternoon, May 29. A committee was appointed to make inquiry regarding plans for the proposed new library building with a view to having club rooms included in the new structure. A committee was appointed to investigate methods of improving streets in other cities.

Little Stories for Bedtime

Old Mr. Toad Disappears. Admit your fault when you've done wrong. And don't postpone it over long. Peter Rabbit didn't blame Old Mr. Toad a bit for being indignant because Peter had watched him change his suit. It wasn't a nice thing to do. Old Mr. Toad had looked very funny while he was struggling out of his old suit, and Peter just couldn't help laughing at him. But he realized that he had been very impolite, and he very meekly said Old Mr. Toad so.

Daly, commissioner of public utilities, said this morning that owing to the poor condition of the street it would be impossible to oil and impracticable to sprinkle. He says the street is badly corrugated with what he terms "rivulets" and that to put oil on it now would do no good. He says, however, that he will take the matter up with Commissioner Dieck with a view of having other repairs made that the thoroughfare may be put in shape for oiling. The barometer was invented in 1643.
