

COVELESKIE ROUTED BY SALT LAKERS AND SIX RUNS ARE PLENTY

Batting Rally Started by Buddy Ryan Makes Call for Reserves Necessary.

PORTLAND PLAYS POORLY

Beaver Needs Get Befuddled When There Is Chance to Start Burst of Run-getting on Rival Slabsters.

Portland continued its losing streak yesterday against the Salt Lake club, which fell on young Coveleskie in the fifth inning and rapped out half a dozen runs. Before and after that the Blanks were helpless, for Krause, who relieved the Poje, had the mountaineers on his hip. Howard Gregory started the game for Salt Lake, but Krause soaked him in the back in the fifth, and when the Bee walked on to there was consultation of Blankenship and his lieutenants, ending in Greg going to the bench. Lulu Williams replaced him. Williams was clicked for the two runs of the locals. It was a poorly played game from a Portland standpoint, showing that in addition to their eyes, arms, and legs the Beavers haven't got their heads in good working order as yet. Buddy Ryan, Beaver castoff, celebrated his homecoming by cracking the Cove for a single in the fifth that drove in two runs and started the fireworks. The Salts batted around in the uproarious frame.

Gregory opened the fifth with a single across second and stole, when Fisher threw a wet ball into the air. Shinn singled to left and put Howard on third, Orr popped to Davis and Coveleskie filled the bases by cracking Elmer Zacher on the left elbow, arousing that usually docile person's fighting blood. There were no casualties. Ryan came through with a biff across second that scored Gregory and Shinn and put Zach on third. With the infield draw in, Tennant's grounder got away from the Keweenaw, who had a dead double play ahead, and Zacher scored. Gedson's single to right scored Ryan and both Tennant and Gedson filled the bases by cracking scratch single to Derrick. That ended Coveleskie and Krause came in, fanning Rohrer, hitting Gregory in the back and whiffing Krause.

Beavers Manage to Get One. Portland's first run came in the fifth and Manager Cliff even begrudged the Beavers that poor, down-trodden tally. It was this time, Coltrin walked on Gregory, who, it was thought had been wounded by being hit in the back and he was replaced. Krause singled across second. After Doane's fly to Zacher, Coltrin went to third. Then Speas hit a skier to Zach, Coltrin scoring after the catch. After Rohrer crossed the plate, Rohrer threw to Tennant and Krause, who had gotten lost somewhere in the region of second base, was doubled out. Blank argued that inasmuch as Harry had been doubled out the run didn't count regardless of the fact that Coltrin had crossed the plate, long before Krause was out. It was suggested that Cliff be provided gratuitously with a set of rules.

Lober walked in the ninth, took second on Davis' single to center and scored on a hit to first. Lush pitched for Coltrin. Krause, with a fine chance for a rally, hit into a double play. Lush pulled a funny one. He failed to notify Empire Finney that he was betting for Coltrin and had two strikes on him, before Finney caught him. He had graciously announced Lush to the scorer, while a few boneheads sniggered. If Finney had failed to notice Lush in the heat of the game, and had not announced him, Johnny would have been called out for betting out of order, nis hit would not have counted, Lober would have been sent back to second and Davis to first, and there would have been two out instead of one.

CLEVELAND OFFERS MANAGER M'CREIDIE A PAIR OF PLAYERS

Cleveland Officials Say Rodgers Is Not Coming Back to Portland for Present.

Portland has no chance of getting Bill Rodgers back from the Cleveland Indians, at least not for the present. This is the dictum of the Cleveland officials, and it ought to put the quietus on the rumors that have been floating around that the captain of last year's Beavers is coming back. A wire from Cleveland, states that Manager Joe Birmingham is still undecided about his infield, and will hang on to Bill Rodgers, who went to the Naps so highly recommended by Walter McCredie.

Just now Cleveland is offering to turn over to Portland Outfielder Hilliard and Infielder Pezold, both of the Cleveland American club. McCredie has given out that he intends to land a slugging outfielder, and Hilliard is of that variety. Pezold is a youngster who finished up the season for the Peterboro club of the Canadian league. With the class C club he played in 92 games, was at bat 332 times, made 66 runs, 102 base hits, 163 total bases on hits, gathered 23 doubles, 10 triples and six homers, stole five bases, made 10 sacrifice hits, walked 58 times and struck out 58 times. His batting average was .307. He fielded .965, getting 208 putouts, 15 assists and 8 errors in the 92 games.

Last year, with the Cleveland club of the class AA American association, he went to bat in 66 games and piled up the respectable average of .280. He was at bat 214 times, made 31 runs and 19 earned runs, gathered 40 hits, of which 15 were doubles, 5 triples and 2 home runs. He had 10 sacrifice hits, 7 stolen bases, walked 19 times and fanned 25 times. He had 109 putouts, 7 assists and 6 errors for a fielding percentage of .967.

Pezold is a young fellow who needs experience, and whether McCredie wants to take the time developing him, or whether he will take the kid who made 13 errors in 75 chances last fall at third base for the Naps. His batting average was .226, three points lower than that of Ping Bodie, and one point above that of Harry Heilmann, who came back from the majors to the San Francisco club.

3 Chinook Caught Within 40 Minutes

By landing three big chinook salmon with a 5/4 ounce rod in the remarkable short space of 40 minutes yesterday, W. W. Evans of the hardware department of Meier & Frank's believes he has established a new record for the Oregon City fishing zone. Evans, who is a well known member of the Salmon club, began trolling just above the bridge at Oregon City yesterday morning at 7:50. He quit with the limit at 8:30. The salmon weighed 17, 15 and 12 pounds, respectively, and the largest measured 38 inches long. He used only regulation tackle, which includes a nine strand line.
