

SEATTLE PHYSICIAN DOESN'T KNOW HOW HE STANDS IN ARMY

Dr. Eugene T. Hurd Writes, However, That He Wears Gold Lace, Gets Respect.

IS WITH THE RUSSIANS

Strap-Bangers Lose in Their Fight for Seats on the Long Bus.

Seattle, Wash., May 1.—Dr. Eugene T. Hurd, of Seattle, former state representative from the Forty-sixth district, was assigned to the Tenth Army of the Russian troops, as chief surgeon in charge of the Twenty-ninth field hospital at Grodno, when he reported as an American volunteer surgeon for duty with the czar's forces.

Being handicapped by the lack of English associates who understand Russian army ratings, Dr. Hurd is not quite certain as to the rank he holds in the army. He is sure that he holds rank as a commissioned officer of standing, however, he writes to A. B. Mason, a friend in Seattle, because of the gold of his new uniform and the respect shown him by the soldiers.

Cracked crabs, the piece de resistance of many a midnight supper in times past, and according to physicians, "the stuff that dreams are made of," will be missing from the menus of Washington restaurants, says L. H. Darwin, state fisheries commissioner.

The new fisheries code makes the closed season on crabs extend from July 1 to October 31, and during that time they may not be offered for sale. Under the former law it was not permissible to catch crabs during the summer months, but dealers are permitted to put them in cold storage during the winter and sell them in the summer. In times past tons of crabs were cooked and then frozen.

An innocent ordinance, having to do with the censorship of moving picture films, private and great discussion in the council with the result that the moving picture operators, on the one side, and the board of theatre censors on the other, were directed to send in their recommendations in writing so that the council may draft a new censorship bill.

Dr. Sarah Kendall, chairman of the board of censors, says that of recent months she and her associates have had more to do with the censoring of films by the national board than with the others, called in newspaper parlance, "tramp" films.

The state public service commission was enjoined this week by the federal court from enforcing its order directing the Puget Sound Light and Power company to furnish seats for substantially all passengers on the Alki Point and Fauntleroy street-car lines. The commission's order was unreasonable, and, therefore, void.

The decision is regarded as setting a precedent for the treatment by courts of this vexing question, the court declaring that "the furnishing of seats for passengers on street railway cars is an unsolved problem, and perhaps will remain so as long as a considerable part of the population is habitually attracted in the same direction at the same time."

The commission made its order apply only to the Alki Point street railway cars because these are the longest lines in the city, and passengers who do not obtain seats are compelled to stand for half hour or more from terminus to terminus.

In one of the heaviest votes ever cast at any election, the United States of Washington, Russell Callow, of Shelton, member of the 1915 class, was elected president of the Associated Students at the annual election Wednesday. Callow received 1234 votes. Jack Fancher of Spokane received 654 votes.

The other positions filled were: Harold Foran, vice president; Miss Ethelyn Shipley, secretary; Wesley Rennie, graduate representative; Fred Lind and Walter Anderson, co-representatives; Walter Tuesley and Marjory White, junior representatives; Ray Gardner, sophomore representative; Ruth Thompson, freshman representative; Emil Harja, editor of the University of Washington Daily.

Original Cartoon Received. University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., May 1.—The University of Oregon, through the efforts of Professor Eric W. Allen, has received as a gift from Mrs. T. W. L. Allen, a Southern Pacific late Homer Davenport, the famous cartoonist, an original cartoon in its original frame. The cartoon is called "The World-Wide Struggle for Money."

This drawing was the only one obtainable as there has been a great demand for the artist's work. Mrs. Davenport responded to the offer of the university to perpetuate the work of her son on its walls, saying, "My son loved Oregon and its people, and in complying with your request, we would be but fulfilling his wish."

Accused of Aiding Delinquency. Charges of contributing to the delinquency of a minor were discharged in the municipal court yesterday against Fred C. Aiken, a Southern Pacific brakeman, following the hearing. Aiken was arrested Tuesday and charged with annoying little girls of the Woodstock district, but the evidence of the children was held as insufficient by Judge Stevenson.

EXTINCT VOLCANO WILL BE LODGE ROOM

View of Wizard Isle, an extinct volcano in Crater Lake, Oregon, one of the world's natural wonders. Medford, Or., May 1.—It is not every lodge that has the enterprise to carry on an initiation in the crater of an extinct volcano, but that is the plan of the local lodge of Knights of Pythias, and lodge members from all over the northwest will attend the ceremony, August 17, 18 and 19.

The extinct volcano is situated in the peak of Wizard Isle, which rises from the calm surface of Crater Lake, nearly 10,000 feet above the level of the sea. Special permission has been secured from Secretary of the Interior Lane for exclusive use of the island on initiation day and Uncle Sam will see that no one gets on its shore without the proper password.

Invitations have been extended to prominent public men throughout the country, and it is possible that Secretary of State Bryan and Governor Johnson of California will attend the ceremony. Governor Johnson has accepted the invitation and Secretary Bryan has expressed his interest in the celebration and his desire to be there.

The crater on the top of Wizard Isle is almost an exact miniature of Crater Lake without the water, there being ample space for several thousand people to entertain themselves comfortably in the crater.

Yamhill Pioneers Accept. McMinnville, Or., May 1.—The Yamhill County Pioneer association has accepted the invitation of the Civic Improvement club of Sheridan to hold its annual reunion in that city on June 2. Scores of pioneers from Yamhill and adjoining counties will be in attendance. A committee has been appointed to prepare the program for the occasion.

Island Ranch Sold. Vancouver, Wash., May 1.—E. T. Gilbert yesterday closed another big dairy deal whereby he disposed of the August Peter dairy ranch, also known as the Lundson ranch, on Sauvie Island, to Arthur Schneider for $12,000. The deal includes 120 head of cattle, several horses and considerable farm machinery and a lease on the 800 acre farm. Yesterday's deal made the third big deal Mr. Gilbert closed during the month of April.

Liquor Seller Fined. Vancouver, Wash., May 1.—M. Tolosano, of 274 East Ninth street, Portland, who was arrested last night at the Columbia quarries for selling liquor in a dry unit, was today fined $38.40, by Judge R. H. Beck of the superior court before whom he pleaded guilty. Elmer Johnson, a resident of Washington and the other licensee were issued to couples. One resident of Washington and the other of some other state. The number of licenses issued to couples from Washington totaled 16. The fees derived amounted to $650, of which Oregon couples, Portland, paid over $450.

Complaint Is Dismissed. Vancouver, Wash., May 1.—Justice of the Peace W. S. T. Derr yesterday dismissed a complaint, which had been charged against W. G. Drowley, a local attorney, by L. E. Smith, a battery attorney. The two attorneys had posed each other recently in court and a number of remarks were made by Smith to which Drowley objected. Smith later demanded an apology. Smith refused to apologize and it was after his refusal that Drowley slapped him in the vicinity of the two counties. Drowley, tended to show that the assault, if any had really been committed, was justifiable, and the court held that the grounds were hardly sufficient for an arrest.

Will Guide Fishermen. Vancouver, Wash., May 1.—The Clarke county game commission has instructed County Game Warden J. M. Hoff to have a number of signs placed along the county line between Clarke and Skamania counties as a guide to fishermen, who may frequent the vicinity of the two counties. Special attention is generally paid to fishermen who stray from one county to another and are asked to show their license. It is a violation of law to guide those who are licensed to fish in Clarke county that the signs were erected and they will be placed along the different streams where the two counties join.

Vancouver Marriage Licenses. Vancouver, Wash., May 1.—Marriage licenses were issued today to the following couples: Malcolm Osborn and Miss Laura Schane, both of Vancouver.

French Remedy Aids Stomach Sufferers. France has been called the nation without stomach troubles. The French have for generations used a simple remedy in a short time. The demand is so great that he imports these oils from France and compounds them under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. People everywhere write and testify to the marvelous relief they have received using this remedy—some do so with the body of poisonous accretions that have accumulated for years and convince the most chronic sufferer from stomach, liver or intestinal troubles.

Mayr's Wonderful Remedy is sold by leading druggists everywhere with the positive understanding that your money will be refunded without question or quibble if ONE bottle fails to give you absolute satisfaction. (Adv.)

Neah-Kah-Nie Trip Made by Climbers

Neahlem, Or., May 1.—The first trip of the Go-ha-she Tribe, Neahlem hikers, was made to the top of Neah-Kah-Nie mountain last Sunday by 13 members. The trip was rather difficult. The main party left Neahlem at 8:30 in the morning and were joined at the base of the mountain by Miss Sadie McKenna, Miss Margaret East and Mrs. J. W. Tohl, who had spent the previous night at Short Sand beach.

The start for the top was made shortly after 10 o'clock and all reached the summit before noon, where a campfire was built and where the men of the party remained in the commissary department. The day was ideal for the trip and a magnificent view was had of the country surrounding the mountain. To the north the coast line could be seen almost to the Columbia river and to the south a view to the southern extremity of Tillamook county was unobstructed.

From the summit of the mountain one can overlook the entire Neahlem valley and over the ocean for about 50 miles. The trip was rather difficult as the ascent was made by the steep trail and, as few had gone over it this year, it was considerably overgrown. The party consisted of Professor and Mrs. A. English, Miss English, J. W. Tohl and wife, Miss Sadie E. McKenna, Miss Margaret East, Miss Helen Scholmer, Emil Scholmer, Meyer, C. Cotton, A. J. Erbenberger, Jack Leslie and James Murdock.

No Flowers at Junior Prom. University of Oregon, Eugene, Or., May 1.—No cake and no flowers is the decree of the Junior Prom committee, regarding the dance for junior week-end, May 15. The Junior Prom is the biggest social event of the college year, and has been criticized for its undemocratic traditions. Other plans for simplifying the occasion are being formulated.

OAKLAND IS HOME OF OLD ODD FELLOW

John T. Bloomfield. Oakland, Cal., May 1.—John T. Bloomfield, of this city, claims the distinction of being the oldest Odd-Fellow living in the United States, having belonged to the order for almost 70 years.

Mr. Bloomfield was born in Centerville, Wayne county, Indiana, August 26, 1825, and was initiated in Wayne lodge No. 17 Cambridge City, Indiana, in the fall of 1845. Being seized with the gold fever, he contemplated journeying to California, but wished also to become a member of the I. O. O. F. and not being the required age, a special dispensation was necessary, and his was granted by the grand master.

Arriving in Nevada county, Cal., Sept. 1, 1849, at which time he was a member of the encampment, there was not an Odd-Fellow lodge in existence west of the Rocky mountains. He joined at the organizing of Yuba lodge No. 5, was elected recording secretary, and advanced continuously through the chairs, became a member of grand lodge of California, and was delegate to session held in Marysville in 1855. He was elected grand lodge in 1858. Settling in Oregon in 1858 Mr. Bloomfield was transferred to Spencer Butte No. 9 of Eugene, and was representative to the grand lodge in Corvallis in 1863. Withdrawn from Eugene and became a member of Umpqua No. 37 Oakland in 1880 still a member, though retired from active work.

Mr. Bloomfield and his wife live in their home at the outskirts of Oakland. He has been an invalid for a number of years. He was guest of honor at Monday's celebration here.

Seaside to Vote On Union School. Seaside, Or., May 1.—An election to decide whether Seaside is to have a union high school will be voted upon by the people of school districts Nos. 26, 27, 10, 3 and 4, comprising Seaside, Gearhart, Necanicum, Clatsop and Elk Creek, on May 15. A delegation composed of B. W. Otto, school director; Payton Randolph, president of the Seaside Commercial club; Lou C. Henry and W. G. Mac Rae, and to Astoria yesterday and filed with O. H. Byland, county school superintendent, the five petitions that were signed by the six districts, having children of school age, living in the districts named.

The election will be held under the old law, in order to have the high school question carried, it will be necessary not only to have a majority of the votes cast in the five districts, but a majority of the districts must favor the new school.

Molalla Chicken Thieves Are Caught

Deputy Sheriff Finds That His Burglar Had Been Used by the Outfits and He Starts Investigation. Molalla, Or., May 1.—Carl Wagner, a bookkeeper in the Weinhard brewery; Gus Jewett and Roy Hutcheson were arrested here the first of the week charged with stealing chickens. They pleaded guilty and were fined $15 each by Justice of the Peace J. H. Dungan.

R. D. Ball, living eight miles from Molalla, discovered Sunday morning that a number of his chickens were missing. He found that the people getting the chickens had come in a buggy and upon further investigation found that the tracks were made by a buggy belonging to L. C. Hubbard, owner of a Molalla livery stable and also a deputy sheriff.

Mr. Hubbard, then investigated and found feathers in one of his buggies and thereby the supposed chicken thieves were traced. In this section there has been a great many chickens stolen during the winter.
