San Francisco, May 14.—Bobby Keefe, who looks as if he might be blown away in the next high wind, was trotted out for a slaughter by General McCredie yesterday and Fisher and his Oaks did a nice, artistic job of it, 5 to 2. The grizzled veteran made his first appearance in the Coast league here in quite a long time and the old fans gave him quite a hand. On the other hand Klavitter had the Beavers guessing until the ninth, when the northerners collected a couple of runs on three hits. If Gus Fisher had been able to hit the ball better the Beavers would have gone a little better in run getting department. Keefe retired the Oaks in order in the first inning, but took his beating in the second. He hit Johnson to start it and Jimmie Keady in the third on Ness' single. Lober camped under Elliott's fly, and when the latter threw to the plate, Ness went up to catch it and the fans felt like a coup de grace, that caused his retirement in the third inning. Litschi hit a hard grounder to Bates, who winged it to the plate. The ball rolled away from Keefe and both Mundorf and Ness scored. Then, while the Beavers were taking a jaunt into the atmosphere, Lindsay came home and Litschi started for second. Bill scoring before Fisher and Davis had retired Lobsenz. The error by August Fisher was one of the prettiest things ever seen in these parts and the fans felt like patting him on the back. One might say that Gus erred his mates into the cellar.

The Oaks gathered another brace of runs in the fifth frame. Manda got a scratch because his pop fly dropped safely between Stumpf and Keefe. Stumpf started after it but backed away when he saw Keefe chasing the fly. Keefe figured suddenly that it was Stumpf's fly and quit. Really the ball dropped safe. Litschi sacrificed and Klavitter was an infielder out. Marcan drove Manda home with a bang to center. Marcan stole second and went to third on Fisher's error, scoring on Mundorf's single. Krause pitched from the sixth inning and held the Oaks at bay.

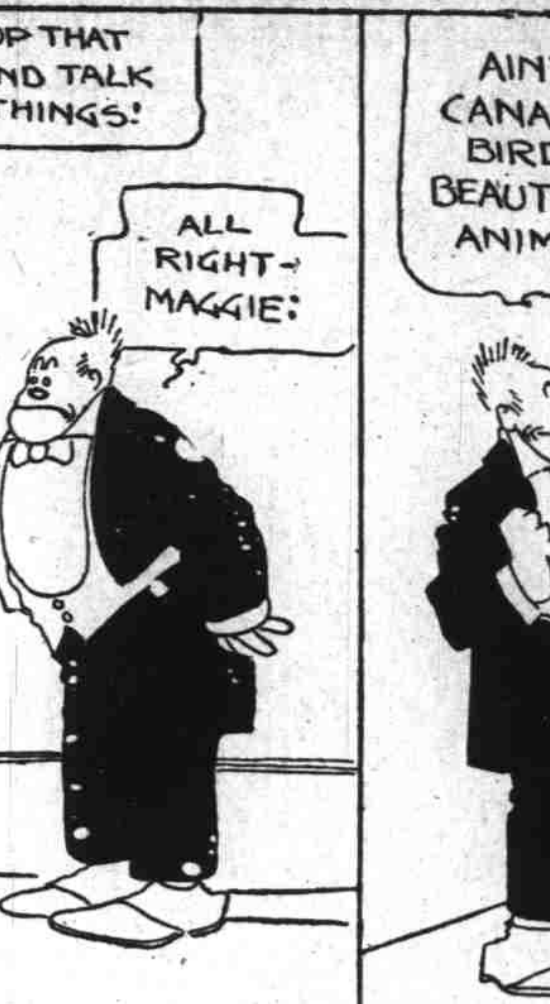

The Beavers saved themselves a shut-out in the ninth, when Spear doubled into left after Derrick had fanned. Bates singled to right, his last of three hits, including a triple. Lober followed with a double to center. This scored a run and put Bates on third, whence he scored on Doane's out. Fisher made the last run, Manda to Ness, and the game was over.

KNUDSON SHOWS TOO MUCH STUFF FOR COLUMBIA

Borleske's Ball Team Wins by Rally in the Ninth Inning.

Timely hitting and Carl Knudsen's effective twirling gave the Lincoln high school tossers a 4 to 3 victory over the Columbia university nine yesterday afternoon in the most thrilling game of the interscholastic season. Coach Borleske's players won the contest in the ninth inning. Schildknecht, the first batter up in the final frame, doubled to rightfield and advanced to third on Parks' infield hit to McKenna. McKenna's error, Fox's hit bat for Nofke, and he sent a hard grounder to McKenna on the hit and run play. McKenna tried for Schildknecht at the plate, but the Cardinal catcher beat the throw. All the other runs were scored in the second inning. Columbia scored its three tallies on Groce's error, Fox's hit, Bloch's triple and a wild pitch. Lincoln tied the score on Caesar's double, a fielder's choice, a hit by a pitched ball, Park's triple and Groce's single. Columbia had several chances to win the game, but could not hit in the pinches.

KIRCHER DROPS OFF ON WAY TO JOIN NEW CLUB

Ex-Portlander Is Sold by Aberdeen to Nashville Club.

Two ex-Portland coasters were in town this morning, on going to Aberdeen and the other coming from that burg. George Kircher, who has experienced several trips, is traversing the route of Rod Murphy, with the reserve English. Kircher, who while enriching the telegraph companies in negotiating with Aberdeen and Louisville, innocently found himself the property of Aberdeen, is on his way to the southern league. Kircher is said to have been sold by Aberdeen to Louisville for $1000, and if this is true there will be great gnashing of teeth in the McCredie family. Kircher will get a portion of the purchase money. Barnes, it is said, after agreeing to sell, wanted to call the Nashville deal off. Kircher was unconditionally released by McCredie. All he cost John Barnes was the price of a few telegrams and $750 for railroad fare. And now Jawn comes along and gathers in a thousand fish. We hereby recommend John to any unpeopled government as financial adviser. The comedian arrived this morning, and will carry a day in Portland in order to get accommodations. He is said to be suffering from a slight charley horse, but should be able to get into the game when he reports at Montgomery. Kircher came to Portland from Astoria of the Southern league. Murphy came to Portland from New Orleans, and reports to Aberdeen. He says the new Beavers look good. He is not yet learned that he is to join Aberdeen, and will settle down to await the return of Judge McCredie from Spokane.

MAC DOES NOT KNOW WHERE BILL RODGERS IS

Portland Manager Says Released Clevelander Has Not Answered Wire.

San Francisco, Cal., May 14.—(U. P.)—Walter McCredie, manager of the Portland Beavers, said today that he was ignorant of the whereabouts of Bill Rodgers, former star infielder and captain of the Beavers, who recently was released to them by the Cleveland Americans, with which club he has been playing this season. "Rodgers has had I sent him a telegram asking when he would arrive, but he has not seen fit to answer, apparently, and I am in the dark regarding the whole affair. Rodgers' transportation, according to my understanding, is to be paid by the Cleveland club. There was no necessity for him to sign a contract before coming west, and I have been unable to discuss terms with him, because I do not know where he is. I expect him to be with the Beavers this summer, however."

JEFFRIES IS RECOVERING

Los Angeles, Cal., May 14.—(U. P.)—In a serious condition as a result of the week's battle with pneumonia, James J. Jeffries was under care of nurses and the family physician; unless complications set in, however, he will recover, his doctors said. Jeffries' illness was unknown to his friends until last night, after he had been pronounced out of danger.

Walsh's Arm All Right

Los Angeles, Cal., May 14.—(P. N. S.)—Ed Walsh, famous "spitball" pitcher, will leave here today for Chicago to join the White Sox. The veteran twirler has been ill for two weeks with grippe, but said today, following a short workout, his arm is in good shape. Schaefer May Coach Again. Berkeley, Cal., May 14.—(P. N. S.)—Selection of a football coach for the coming season is expected to be made tonight at the final meeting of the student executive committee of the University of California. In all likelihood Jimmy Schaefer, last year's coach, will be reappointed.
