

EGG TRADE SPOTTED WITH SOME ABNORMAL TO FORCE THE PRICE

While the egg market locally is firmer in spots, it is not quite as strong as indicated yesterday. Some business in candied chickens to pass as high as 21c a dozen, but some of the business is not available above 20c.

Sales of Case Count Made Down to 20c Again in Some Quarters With Canceled Ruling From 20c to 21c—Receipts Fair.

Receipts of eggs are showing up quite fair in the aggregate, although some of the dealers report a shortage. Some are obtaining more than their usual requirements for small springs even at the lowest levels.

Case count sales are mixed between 19c and 20c a dozen, with dealers reporting both sides of the market.

With storage operations greatly diminished and with outside markets just a fraction higher than the high here, the trade has been carrying a slight surplus.

Receipts of eggs are showing up quite fair in the aggregate, although some of the dealers report a shortage.

While current demand for heavy hens is very good from front street with arrivals limited, trade outside of front street is not so brisk.

CHICKEN MARKET IS MIXED While current demand for heavy hens is very good from front street with arrivals limited, trade outside of front street is not so brisk.

TURPENTINE PRICE LOWER Announcement was made today by local wholesale paint houses of a drop of 2c a gallon in the price of turpentine.

SALMON RUN IS LIMITED Few fish are now being caught at Oregon City, lower river canners which has been securing from 2 to 30 tons of fish every other day.

NEGLECTING LOCAL ONIONS Local onions of the old crop are being neglected by the new crop California onions.

BUTTER MARKET IS STRONGER While no change in prices is announced, considerable business is being done in the entire butter market.

BRIEF NOTES OF THE TRADE California steamer came in with fresh speens.

STRAWBERRIES IN BAD SHAPE; PRICE IS DOWN

Strawberries are generally in poor condition on the local market at this time. The market was demoralized by the trade especially in view of the wet condition and, not over a week ago, the price was 20c.

Just as present California berries are the best fruit available in the Portland trade, arrivals from Sacramento today were of unusually good quality.

Local berries are selling generally at 1.00 per crate for 2 1/2 bushels. A few of the better class fruit are reported at as high as $1.20 but by no means general.
